SENATE CHAMBER.

HELENA, MONTANA, Feb. 5 1893.

Dear Mr. Hill,

I received your message authorizing me to make a proposition to this Legislature. I found the offer into the Senate, but the combination was so strong in that body, that my offer was not considered.

The Senate voted to scatter the institution but we may possibly be able to defeat the plan in the House.

Mr. Daly shared me your despatch, last evening advising him that Conrad had been let out. I am very glad this action came so swiftly, as he richly deserved it. I have never seen Mr. Daly feel quite so well over anything, as did last evening after receiving your message.

The Senatorial deadlock continues.

I think Mr. Daly's and Mr. Dixon's plan will be in a short time to publicly name a list of Democrats, any one of whom

They will be willing to support for Senator.
Then if Mr. Clark is not willing to unite upon one of them, upon his shoulders will rest the responsibility of a Republican Senator. - I am anxious that this proposition shall be made soon.

There will be a heavy loss of Cattle,
I think, but our ~~sheep~~ interests will not suffer much. -

Very truly yours,
Paris Gibson.

Dear Sir:-

We wrote you upon the 10th. inst., asking you to give us the name of any person whom you thought would make a good Agent to look after the interests of our Edinburgh clients in Nobles County Minnesota, or inquiring whether you considered it would be advisable that Mr. Palmer should be continued in that agency.

We have not heard from you, and we write this letter to ask whether you have been unable to attend to the matter, or whether you are not disposed to recommend any agent.

Yours very truly,

J. H. Hill, Esq.,
Prest. Great Northern R. R.
St. Paul, Minn.

Dear Sir:-

At the request of several large bankers and prominent men of Chicago, St. Paul, Milwaukee and Minneapolis, we have decided upon the publication of a work of considerable magnitude and expense, to be entitled
"BANKERS AND PROMINENT MEN, THE FINANCIERS OF THE GREAT WEST.

We have undertaken this work only after mature thought, and upon the request of the parties mentioned and with a guarantee of their help in the way of letters of introduction and a specially prepared list of persons to be seen and arranged with.

Mr. Lyman J. Gage, Pres. of the 1st National Bank, Mr. Geo. Schneider, Pres. of the National Bank of Illinois, and other Chicago Bankers; also Mr. T. B. Walker, Pres. Flour City National Bank of Minneapolis, Mr. Wm. R. Merriam, Pres. Merchants National Bank of St. Paul, General F. M. Drake, of Iowa, and other prominent men, have furnished us letters to many of their friends, parties prominent in the financial world.

There will be 300 steel plates with biographies, and 200 biographies without plates, in the book. Of this number over 100 have already been seen and arranged with.

This will be an elegant work, superbly bound in fine Morocco, full gilt, etc., size 10x14 inches.

A copy of the work will be presented to the Public Libraries of all the large cities of the United States, also to many of the leading journals and be retained in both cases in their reference rooms. At the libraries it becomes an historical work of great value. It will also be sold extensively by subscription all over the United States.

Let us call your attention to the unique character of this work, to the high standing of representative men already secured, to the fact that being in all the Public Libraries it will become a valuable historical volume, outliving us many generations, and finally, that only men of reputation and personal worthiness will be selected, as success alone will not be a passport of admission.

Your name is down on this list especially prepared for us. We would like, if possible, to use your steel plate, if you have one, otherwise make you one, which after the publication of the book becomes your property, and will be delivered to your address. If you do not care to be represented by a steel plate, would like to arrange otherwise with you and publish your biography FREE.

Awaiting your early reply, we are

Very truly yours,
