Mr. W. A. Stephens,

Private Secretary.

Dear Sir:-

Referring to my conversation with you a day or so ago, if possible, will you kindly let bearer know when will be a convenient time for Mr. Hill to see Mr. D. D. Merrill and Mr. Severance. They would like to have a short interview with him and will call at such time as can conveniently be appointed, preferably in the morning.

Yours very truly,

St Paul,

Dear Sir:-

Your favor of the 8th, at hand. In regard to Policy I01813, of the Citizens Insurance Company would say that I neglected to to tell you that the Citizens policy was to take place of Policy I079242, of the North British and Mercantile and Policy 55397, of the Merchants Insurance Companies recently cancelled, and sent telegram ordering these policies returned. Hoping every thing remains satisfactory I remain

Yours Truly,

My Dear Sir:-

I thought I would write you to ask if you could write me a Recommendation for the appointment to this Post office I have been in the employ of the G & N RR for 7 years. My last two years was on the Branches of the G & N RR and the Red Lake Falls under Col Wm Crooks there are 2 other applicants for this office and Col Crooks tells me that you are a personal friend of our N.Y. President and such a recommendation from you would be a great lift for me to the coming term here or personal to me. I have met you a few times only I am Irish and Scotch descent. lived at this place 17 years Recently married hoping you can assist me I am truly yours
