40-42 WALL STREET,

P. O. Box 756.

NEW YORK.

July 21st 1893.

W. T. Stephens Esq
St Paul Minn.

Dear Sir,

Yours of 17th inst. at hand and noted.
The numbers of Consolidated 6% Bonds which I advised in my letter of 15th inst. as having been returned to me by Messrs. Kuhn, Loeb & Co. were correctly dictated by me but were mercilessly jumbled
by my stenographer.

I did not read the letter carefully when signing
or would have noticed the error.

The numbers of the above bonds received by me from Messrs. Kuhn, Loeb & Co. and returned to Mr. Kelly's safe were 9751/9899, 9901/10200 and 10615/10665.
Say $500,000. W. T. Stephens, Consolidated 6% Bonds.

Yours very truly
W. T. Stephens

Dear Sir:

I have this day received information that convinces me that Allen was foaled in 1879 instead of 1880, as given, and therefore he is one year older than I supposed. This was unknown to me previously and I hasten to write you at once as I do not want any misapprehension in the matter. It does not make him worth a dollar less, for he is like a colt now and if properly taken care of is good for 15 years at least and ~~perhaps~~ ^{vitality} longer, as he has a wonderful constitution and great individuality. I have just received a letter from Mr. M.C. Dorman, Swanton, Vermont, to the above effect and shall forward same to Mr. J.H. Steiner, Registrar of the American Trotting Register Association.

Yours truly,

C. K. Larrabee

Dear Sir:-

Your letters of the 16th and 17th inst. duly received. I note what you say in regard to the Hendryx-Kootenai mines. I have no idea of advancing any sum of money to Mr. Hendryx. He was here a short time ago, and I told him he might get his papers in shape and submit them to me when I next went East.

Yours truly,
