Dear Sir

Your favor

20th just at hand and noted.

The note in question has bothered me more than any one else I am sure because I was unable to pay it as it should have been. Mr Hill has been very patient and I assure you I appreciate it. and at present I am unable to pay even the int-but I hope to be able to in a short time I am promised some money that is due me if not will arrange in some way & deed Mr Hill some property but I do not want to do that as its not what he wants & right to have. I assure you I will get there as soon as possible

Yours truly
