Mr A. W. Stephens
 St Paul

Dear Sir:-

Just a line to inform you that the Board adjourned until the 20th expecting meantime to hear from Mr Hill If he will accept our proposition and sell the lot for $10000 and subscribe 5000, we will build first class hospital on the same If you deem it advisable to present the matter to Mr Hill do so and let us know the result if possible on or before the 20 of March.

Yours Truly
 C. A. Hultkrans

My Dear Sir:

At last I have heard from my brother. He simply refuses to pay back the money he received from the sale of the wheat on which Mr. Hill had a lien. You can scarcely imagine the distress this gives both Mr. B. P. K. and myself, and anything we can do to satisfy you, that we had no hand in this matter.
