

C. A. BROADWATER

HELENA, MONTANA,

March 27th., 1893.

JAS. J. HILL, ESQ.,

St. Paul, Minn.

Dear Sir:-

The following telegram just received:-

R. L. McCulloh, Montana Nat'l Bank.

"I want sixty days extension on contract Broadwater ~~ground~~ group."

I saw Mr. Hill here and he is willing to grant it: The bad weather has made it impossible for my foreman to complete the necessary outside work. Wire me collect care Ballou & Co., Ten Wall Street. Am sure to make the deal". (Signed) Wm. J. Clark.

Will answer it:-

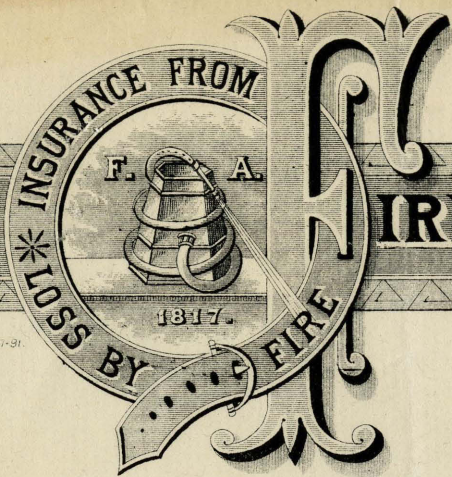

"Have written Mr. Hill submitting your request, when answer received, will wire".

The impression prevails that Clark will succeed in making the deal: Am told the work he has done, has developed some very rich ore and the belief is current with persons from Neihart and the Falls, that the property is a rich one.

His option expires on the 15th. prox. Please write me at your earliest convenience, your views about extending the time for him: He evidently desires to know if we will do so, as speedily as possible.

Yours very truly,

R. L. McCulloh
