My dear Sir

We came here ten weeks ago, and

Owing to the dry & warm climate, my health is so much improved or will be by the 20th inst;
(the time I intend to leave for home) that it will not be necessary for me to further trespass upon your generosity, as I think my strength will enable me to travel in the ordinary way—which, I am now satisfied could not have been done last fall when your great kindness came to my relief—March brought continuous rain down for to Pan Christian, which sent me here— Mr Rice joins in kind regards to Mrs Hill and yourself as well as <sup>in renewed</sup> ~~renewed~~ thanks for your duly appreciated past kindness

Yours Very Sincerely

Dear Sir:--

Having been under the weather lately from overwork, and also absent from the city, your letter got "under the pile".

It was as much inattention as anything else, as I have had more work than it was possible for me to reach in the shop and detail that you would not understand, and as a result of this, I have overlooked this remittance to close this account, but I have never failed to keep up the life insurance which would settle all the debts in case anything happened to me, as I felt my kind friends were entitled to every dollar that was due them.

Find within, $71.15, which I suppose is satisfactory.

Yours truly,

J. Safford
