

GENERAL CORRESPONDENCE

1893 APR. 8-9

FOLDER NO

JAMES J. HILL PAPERS

PLEASE RETAIN
ORIGINAL ORDER

EXECUTIVE MANSION,
WASHINGTON.

April 8th, 1893.

James J. Hill, Esq.,
St. Paul, Minn.

My dear Sir:-

The President directs me to acknowledge the copy of the record of the treaty with the Chippewa Indians, together with the notes of the conferences in full, which you were good enough to send him. As an evidence of your thoughtfulness and consideration this gift is especially valued.

Very truly yours,

Private Secretary.

My dear Mr. Hall,

We are all interested in getting good men on the Federal Bench - The recent death of Judge Deady of Oregon has made a vacancy which has not yet been filled - Do you know a good Democrat out there who could fill it -

I saw Mr Olney a day or two ago & he told me
no one had been selected whereupon it occurred to me that you might know of the right man & that perhaps between us we could get him appointed - At all events there would be no harm in trying - My understanding is that there is considerable pressure to get the place filled -

I arrived here from the West a few days ago

Yours truly
C. C. Perkins

Presents.

Dear Mr. Hill:-

This will introduce my old friend, Mr. Geo. Wm. Ballou who, in connection with Mr.
Wm J. Clark has, I understand, an option to purchase the Broadwater Mine, at Neihart.
Mr. Ballou has explained the matter to me and he wants some modification of the original option. He has also shown me an agreement between Mr. Clark and John E. Searles, Treasurer of the American Sugar Refineries Co. Perhaps you know Mr. Searles; he is associated with the Havemeyers in the Sugar business and is a man of large wealth and a good business man. His contracts are absolutely good I know him personally and I hope you will be able to arrange matters and help my friend Mr.

Bacon to get what he wants.

yours sincerely

Samuel Hill, Esq.,

President, Minneapolis Trust Co.,

Minneapolis, Minn.

Dear sir:-,

I beg to return to you herewith Declaration of Trust executed by the Vice President & Ass't Sec'y of your Company under date January 20th, 1893, pertaining to a deed of George A. Brackett dated January 9th, 1893, to what is known as the Harrison Block, Minneapolis, more particularly described in said Declaration. As the matter Mr. Brackett had in hand at the time this instrument was executed has been arranged in another way, deed covered by this Declaration of Trust should be returned to Mr. Brackett, and for this purpose I return to you the aforesaid Declaration of Trust.

Kindly acknowledge receipt.

Yours truly,

Enclo.

Dear Sir: I trust you will pardon my intrusion. I might seem to take in addressing this Note to you, but I am credibly informed that you are a Collector of Old Pictures, and in Connection with this, beg to say that I have Two small silk Tapestry Pictures, purchased at a "garret" sale at Holmby House, Northamptonshire, said to have hung in the Room occupied by Charles 1st of England when a prisoner at said Residence. I am not anxious to dispose of same, but Circumstances over which I have not control, force me to offer the same.

Should be pleased to offer same for inspection and give as reference.
