St Paul Station, 8th April 1893

Jas J. Hill Esq.

Dear Sir

Pardon me for intruding upon your valuable time. I do so, presuming on your many kindnesses to me, and to explain what I think you would wish to know regarding the cost of the Maiden Lane Barn. When handing in my papers &c. to Mr. Stephen, I learned that the impression existed that the bids for the barn included the whole work. And that the extra cost was a surprise. The facts are, that those bids were based on your supplying all the brick, lumber, plumbing and steam heating.

I have left with Mr. Stephens the plans and specifications, also a statement showing work and material amounting to $6464<sup>80</sup> that you would have had to pay extra to the amount of any of the bids.

I am sorry if the amount of cost exceeded what you wished to spend, but I know that you have good value for all that was expended.

I feel it a duty which I owe to myself to bring the matter thus before you. And I hope you will examine the statement, as I value highly, and have always sought to merit, your esteem.

Very respectfully yours
Jas Brodie
