Mr. Hill & others

City - Will you please order from Milwaukee ten cases of for our good here and five more for Minneapolis, Mr Hill said yesterday we had better take that in. and then can fill up our old orders - understood him to say no egg at Duluth - are going there today and on return Thursday will settle pool drafts

The team - menced yesterday at the Craig and got 18 cars loaded. Mr. Gordon was at me for the 10¢ per ton. I have no authority to settle any other accounts but yours, and I told Mr. Gordon as soon as the cargo was unloaded ~~would~~ settle with him. He wants the 10¢ for all that has been brought up but the $3000 and as I have no instructions from the other parties to pay, I do not feel at liberty to ~~speculate~~ ^{speculate} or act for them. He telegraphed you yesterday afternoon and ~~told~~ ^{told} asking whether I should pay him the 10¢ before cargo is unloaded. I have no wish to go out side of instructions. He proposes to make us quit work unless the 10¢ is paid before 10 o'clock this am.

Very Respectfully
Acers
