Mr E. N. Saunders
St. Paul

Dear Sir- <sup>Winn</sup> The ton of coal came to hand. Upon opening it I discovered it to be blacksmiths coal, an article I have no use for. I wanted coke for cupola purposes. I have returned the coal you sent, back to the St. P. & S. C. Depot, subject to your order but presume the blacksmiths here, some of them would take it if you so desire.

I want a ton of <sup>coke</sup> ~~coke~~ as soon as you can ship it.
I have bought coke of you over a year, and how it should come that you forwarded coal in place of coke is a mystery. send me a a ton of coke at once as I wish to take off a heat as soon as it arrives.

Answer about the coal and what you wish done with it.

Very Respectfully
W. C. Easter.
