Dear Saunders,

Many thanks for your valued favor - with affidavit & money enclosures as stated. Enclosed I hand you Receipt for Acker & Rhodes, which I have tried to make a "Certificate of Stock" for them. I am greatly obliged to you for your several favors - The affidavit is all right -

That is great news from 65 Dglehart St. my congratulations to the young gent and his proud & happy parents - I am glad to know your business looks so well for this year. I should say the Supt of the N.W. Fuel Co. ought to have a salary of $5000. per an. You must have more to do than ever.

I wish you abundant success -

I do not think E. J. Williams is now in St Louis. He gave up his house in Lucas Av in April - & the City Directory gives no business address for him -

We have had some ex-citement in this vicinity for the past few days, but it is about over now and not many lives lost.

With best regards

Yours truly

A. H. Nash
