Gentlemen—
There still seems to be some mistake about the Coal. What we wanted was one Car Nuts Coal. It would seem that in trying to avoid the mistake of having too much of one that we are getting none at all.
Can we be assured of the one Car?
We have to live to the amount of about 12 tons.

Please reply and oblige

Lents

For Mr Samuels whom I am represented that you were in the habit of selling only to one dealer in a City & that in fact he could not sell at the same price that we bought at, to only certain parties, whose names he had in a Book. We find that you are sending coal ^{at same price} to other parties besides the ones he mentioned. Now we see no other way for you to make this matter ^{more satisfactory} plain than to send us five cars more of better coal than this one (#1460 which came last night) at a less figure than agreed on for this. Can you do it? Let us know at once. This lot in for 1460 is not as good as that in 2084. We must have the very best coal & very lowest price

Yours respectfully
