My dear Friend.

The "picture of Jefferson" is boxed & will go to Express Office today. It occurred to me the Exp Co. would make no charge against you for transportation so do not pay it, if they do we wish to pay both ways & all expenses, you have been put to. Please let me hear from as to the expenses incurred we will be only too happy to reimburse you - I shall men-forget your kindness in having the "picture" & as soon as our Club has a meeting, you will be officially thanked. We had a grand banquet & a good time & are sure sorry you were not one of us.

The Picture was greatly appreciated & all enjoyed ⁱⁿ the possession of it.

I hope to be in St Paul the middle of May & if possible will pay my respects to you Again thank you & wishing all good things I am your friend

My Dear Will -

I shall expect a line from you very soon - Should you or your friends give intertainment to the little scheme I put before me last evening, there will not be more than $5000 for month
required for May & June.
I have in view 3000 tons of English 60"-stud rail in bond, which could be held in bond until

The Tariff Reduction takes effect & deliver
at once to all water.
St Paul ought to dis-
herself the credit
to give substantial encouragement to the Great work. Lowry suggested a pool of good fellows in the two cities.

What has occurred here today with the Jefferson will happen in an intensified degree whenever the Washington people of my hands
I am invited to the Rogers Pouquet this evening -

Dear Mr. Hill

Your Jefferson has created a sensation here & there as it properly stands an enriched man - It has been visited at the Rogers Club by Rogers - & also I have been visiting & declining saying what he paid for it I am prohibited in knowing that he readily sell it to more than one person for double the price I asked for it - It is reported that he paid five hundred for it - I have not contradicted the rumor - All I have said is "Mr. Hill dealt as one gentleman would deal of another - he gave me willingly by all I asked."

I want your help among rich men in New York as you can influence to subscribe handsomely toward presenting a set of the Washington Autotypes to each of the Public Schools.
There must be at least 200 Schools - So that $5,000 will be wanted altogether - (five thousand dollars - my family & paying the cost of framing)
This sum ought easily to be raised in Wall St if taken in hand by the right man having influence — but for me, unknown as I am it w^d be worse than helples —

I enclose you a few rough uncorrected proofs of an addition to the Washington prospectus — it will be read far & near in this land — It has not a fulsome word in regard to yourself — but too much to ask to pull some dollars out of some rich pockets towards the blessed object

Bishop Whipple called upon me after Mr. Hill left & when the pictures were again packed — I knew him not — until he told me who he was — Oh what a dear, frank, saintlike man — He is so profoundly unpretended — & has treated me as a familiar friend — I took him to see the Peter Stuyvesant & he was wild with delight — so also is he charmed with your Jefferson — You will see in how disguised terms he immortalizes the Washingtons —

I do hope you will let me take the Jefferson back with me, with my Madison & Adams ^{to England} — I shall come back very quickly (with the Water Color July Drawing Room — I am sending as thank offering for the horse, 1 work double for the tub — none of its originality shall in smallest degree be sacrificed — & I will have it suitably framed —

Don't forget the Wall St. help for the Public Schools —

Dear Mr. Hill — respect fully & faithfully yours
