LEGEND OF THE WINTER CARNIVAL

A long, long time ago, Astraios, the god of Starlight, and Eos, goddess of the Rosy Fingred Morn, were wed. The union was blessed with four sons: Titan, Euros, Zephyrus and Notos.

Boreas, King of the Winds, assigned to each brother a permanent grant of great force and power.

- To Titan was assigned the blustery North Wind.
- To Euros was granted control of the irresponsible East Wind.
- To Zephyrus was given custody of the bountiful West Wind.
- To Notos was presented the balmy South Wind.

The brothers cavorted gaily over land and sea. Boreas, while on his extensive travels, came upon a winter paradise known as Minnesota. He paused to behold the enchanting beauty of a magnificent group of seven gently sloping hills in whose embrace nestled a beautiful city.

Boreas whistled in sheer ecstasy, "Historic Saint Paul and her seven hills! An ideal place. I will make Saint Paul the capital of all my domains. It will henceforth be emblazoned to the world as the winter playground of the realm of Boreas."

Meanwhile, Vulcanus, the god of Fire and implacable enemy of Boreas, crackled in defiant disdain. "By the great sword of Mars I will temper the blusterings of Boreas with the heat and roar of my forces." He was tireless in his bitter resistance to all the festivities of Boreas.

Undaunted, Boreas proclaimed a celebration in the spirit of gay Carnival. "So be it!" shouted Boreas. "There will be Carnival in old Saint Paul!" Preparations were made in all the Principalities, Provinces and Royal Houses within the Realm of Saint Paul.

Vulcanus, the Fire King, made known his determination to attend the great festival. He was tireless in his bitter resistance to all the works of Boreas.

Boreas paid little heed to the warnings of the Fire King.

And so, on the appointed day, it came to pass that Saint Paul welcomed the coming of Boreas. The king headed a gigantic parade of his mighty Legions.

The festivities continued with winter sports, challenging games of wit and entertainment to awe even the king.

Boreas soon announced that a Grande Coronation would be held in the Great Hall of Jupiter, and he would select a lovely Queen to reign with him. The most beautiful maidens of the Capital Domain would be in attendance—and one would be chosen "Queen of the Snows." The Lord High Chamberlain solemnly revealed the chosen maiden and escorted her to the Royal Throne. Boreas himself placed the jeweled crown upon her fair head. She was acclaimed Queen of the Snows.

The Carnival reveled with great feasting, competitions and displays. Midway through the celebration, a courier brought news that Vulcanus planned to storm the Ice Palace of Boreas.

The King of Fire breathed defiance. "The people of the realm will soon discover that their comfort and safety rests with me. I will give them warmth when Boreas leaves them cold!"

The gala Carnival continued unabated. Minstrels played and sculptures appeared from snow mounds and ice blocks.

With a sudden fury, the night air reverberated with the thunder of bursting bombs. The heavens flamed with the red glare of exploding rockets. An assault upon the great Palace of Boreas created wildest confusion.

In the midst of the Inferno, Vulcanus appeared upon the carpet, shouting in frenzied triumph that this revelry proclaimed by Boreas must cease.

"Go ye back to your hearth and your workbenches," he cried.

Boreas rushed to his palace and girded to encounter the foe. But from within the palace came the Queen of Snows. She pleaded with Boreas to yield in the interest of peace and goodwill, rather than subject her beloved people to the terrors of bitter strife and warring of the elements.

"You have cheered them mightily, good Boreas," advised the Queen. "The ten days of Carnival you have proclaimed have been abundantly fulfilled. Health and vigor you have imparted to them. Joy you have brought them. Boreas, is it not best that our good people enjoy these beneficent blessings and return to the pursuit of their labors?"

Pondering the Queen's fair counsel, Boreas agreed it is best that the Royal Family be gathered together to spread out beyond the Realm and share the good news of Saint Paul and her spectacular winter beauty. What better way than to join in the celebrations of cities throughout the land, as they have come and joined in Carnival these festive days.

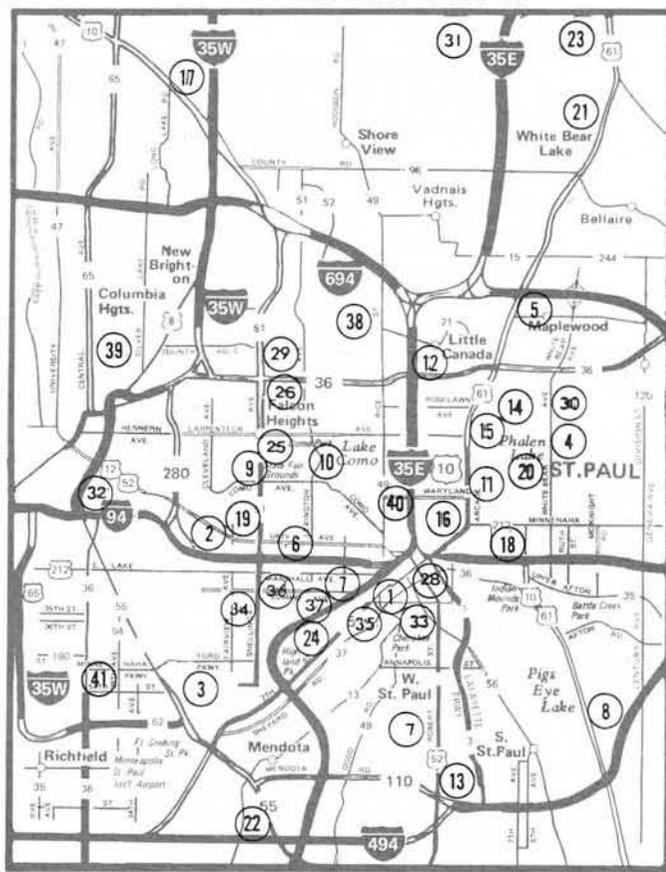

And so the rich living tradition of Carnival is carried to peoples across the country throughout the year until the white mantle of another January beckons a return to this mid-winter jubilee of the nation.

FORMER QUEENS AND WHAT THEY'RE DOING
TODAY

SHIRLEY PETERSON (MRS. ROBERT) GRAIZIGER

Queen of Snows during the Victory Carnival of 1946, Shirley Peterson (Mrs. Robert) Graiziger recalls that "the people of Saint Paul, and especially the returning servicemen, were really ready for a celebration, and it seemed that the whole town came alive and entered into the spirit of Carnival." The Graizigers, their three boys and two girls, are residents of Roseville. Shirley has been active in PTA, Girl Scouts and Roseville Youth Hockey. She has been on the Roseville Park and Recreation Board for three consecutive terms, has served as an officer and board member of the Roseville Central Park Auxiliary, the Women's Division of the Saint Paul Winter Carnival, and is a member of the Former Queen's Club and Southview Country Club. In addition to enjoying their cabin on Wilkins Lake, McGregor, Shirley spends her leisure time golfing, reading, fishing and spectating at sporting events. Her sons have played hockey, football and baseball, and husband, Rob, a former U of M letterman, has coached hockey teams in Roseville for many years. Pictured, back row, David, Bob and Pat; center, Bob, Sr., and Shirley; front, Judy and Mary with "Augie." Mary was a 1974 West Wind Princess.

GRETCHEN HAUENSTEIN (MRS. ROBERT H.) WOLFE, 1937 Queen of Snows, enjoys her volunteer duties at Bethesda Lutheran Hospital in St. Paul. During her 15 years of volunteering at the hospital, she has been seen in the gift shop, as a gift buyer, as an officer and board member, and at the lobby information desk. The Wolfe's have lived in the St. Paul area since 1959. Previously they lived in Michigan, Pennsylvania and in western Minnesota. They are the parents of three children, including twins, and are also the grandparents of twins. "My hobbies have become more of the sedentary variety — I enjoy needlepoint, knitting, sewing, reading and cooking. This past year I have been taking organ and Spanish lessons, and hope to pursue them further."

HELEN DUFFY (MRS. RICHARD T.) MURPHY

Cuddling baby lions, tigers, jaguars and a lame polar bear, were favorite activities of Helen Duffy (Mrs. Richard T.) Murphy when she was active with the Como Zoo Docent program after her reign as Queen of Snows in 1947. She has also been involved with Immaculate Heart of Mary parish, her children's schools, and is on the board of the Guild of Catholic Women. Helen's hobbies include golf, bridge and oil painting. In addition to their home in Saint Paul, where they have sponsored a tea for former Queens during the past 15 Winter Carnivals, the Murphy family also enjoys a log home on Lake Superior. Three of their five children are at home and attending college. Three dogs, two collies and a "charming little mutt," are also a part of the family circle. Pictured, left to right, back row, are Laurie, Patrick, Richard and Helen, Dick Jr., his wife, Kaye; front row, Maureen and Sharon.

MARION O'HARA

For the past 30 years, breeding and exhibiting dogs has been an "all-consuming" hobby for 1938 Queen of Snows Marion O'Hara. Her dogs have earned some 20 championship titles. Her hobby has taken her from coast to coast and into Canada. Her memberships include the Land O'Lakes Kennel Club, Inc., Minneapolis Kennel Club, St. Croix Valley Kennel Club, Dalmatian Club of America, British Dalmatian Club, American Fox Terrier Club, Minnesota Purebred Dog Breeders Assn., American Dog Owners Assn., and the St. Paul Dog Training Club. She manages to find time for the St. Paul Audubon Society and the Samaritan Hospital Auxiliary as well. "I have been retired from the Burlington Northern, Inc., for three years, and am busier than ever and love it! In my spare time, I do my own gardening and yard work." Marion resides in St. Paul Park.

KATHLEEN HANSON (MRS. ROBERT) NICKELSON

"Being chosen Queen of Snows seems like only yesterday," reminisced Kathleen Hanson (Mrs. Robert) Nickelson, 1941 Queen of Snows, who enjoys the distinction of being the only Queen to marry during her reign without giving up her crown. ("The fellows all had draft numbers.") The Nickelsons have always made their home in St. Paul, except when Kathleen's husband served with the Air Force in England during the war. Parents of seven children, they are also grandparents of seven. For 22 years they have enjoyed both camping and their cottage at Big Doctor Lake in Siren, Wisconsin. Kathleen has been block worker for the United Fund for 20 years and is serving as a captain this year. She also volunteers her time at Immaculate Heart of Mary Church, is a past president of the Altar Rosary and a two-year parish council member.

MARTHA DUPUIS (MRS. THOMAS, SR.) BENKE

Queen of Snows in 1942, Martha Dupuis (Mrs. Thomas, Sr.) Benke said she is still referred to as "queen" by many, and enjoys the title "even more so now, in my grandmother stage!" Parents of a daughter and two sons, the Benkes are also proud of their five grandchildren. In addition to her volunteer work through the years with numerous church groups, Martha assisted with Meals on Wheels, visited shut-ins, and coordinated programs at local nursing homes. She helped to organize the West St. Paul Ladies Bridge Club, and played tournament bridge with St. Michael's Church. "After going through Little League, Pee Wee Hockey, Cub Scouts, guitar and drum band practices in our home, two horses, cycles, and being foster parents to a niece," her interests now include reading, crocheting, painting ceramics, fishing and playing the organ. Martha and her husband also enjoy riding a bicycle built for two, a recent retirement gift from their children. The Benke family, left to right, Tom, Jr. and Kathy; daughter Marilyn and John Meisinger and Bob, Mary and Kathy; Martha and Tom Benke; Jean and son, John with Laurie and Brian.

IRENE FOSS (MRS. GEORGE) UNDERWOOD

A volunteer in the American Cancer Society's "Reach to Recovery" program, Irene Foss (Mrs. George) Underwood served as Queen of Snows in 1939. The year following her reign, she married George Underwood, Jr., and they became parents of three children, a daughter and two sons. Irene lives in Brainerd where her husband operated a hardware store until his death in 1969. Irene continued in the business another five years until it was sold. She enjoys gardening, "walking in our beautiful woodlands with my dog," playing bridge, visiting family and friends, fishing, and taking care of her two grandchildren.

LEROY LINDBLAD
1971 and 1972 CHAMPION

"It really was an honor to win one of the most exciting snowmobile races in the world. To be able to win the race two years in a row was more than I had dreamed. Each year, the race was well-organized and the officials courteous and friendly."

"At present, I am working at Polaris Industries. Although I am not racing, I still enjoy being involved with the snowmobile industry."

STAN HAYES
1973 CHAMPION

"The very first time I entered the '500' I won, although I had run many other cross-country races before. I have raced ovals and cross-countries most of my life. I prefer cross-countries, because winning is more dependent on the driver. I also believe that this type of racing is more relevant to the consumer than is oval racing.

"I hope that everyone will continue to work together to promote cross-country racing across North America, as they have done the past few years in Minnesota, Wisconsin, Michigan and Canada."

MARVIN ODE
1974 CHAMPION

Ode has competed in the "500" every year since 1968. He has finished the race twice, in the top ten both times.

"Winning the 'Winnipeg to St. Paul' in 1974 was definitely one of the most rewarding achievements of my career."

Ode said the main difference between the 1968 and 1978 races is that the clothing and durability of equipment make the race a more comfortable event now.

A research and development engineer for Arctic Enterprises for the past nine years, Ode is a resident of Thief River Falls. He and his wife of 17 years have three daughters.

EDWIN MONSRUD
1975 CHAMPION

"The I-500 is always one of the most challenging races, and I feel very lucky to have won in 1975. I look forward to this race every year . . . and am competing again in 1978. I've run the I-500 for eight years."

"I'm now a member of the cross-country team at Polaris, running mainly in the modified classes, using the race courses for testing new ideas."

BRIAN D. NELSON
1976 CHAMPION

"Winning the 1976 I-500 was the high point of my career. The last day I had to make up over 14 minutes. It was the hardest ride I have ever made."

Nelson is employed by Arctic Enterprises as a race driver, and test engineer. He has raced snowmobiles for 10 years, four of them as a professional driver. His 1976 win was on a John Deere snowmobile.

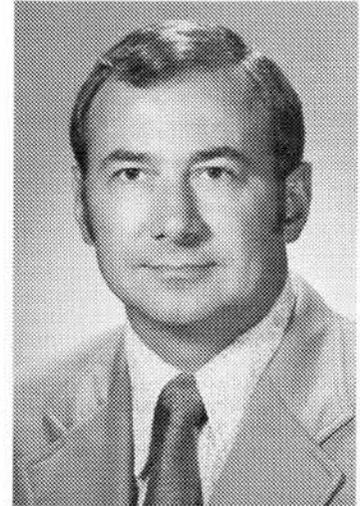

Nelson said that in the past three years he has accumulated more top 10 finishes and more International Cross Country Snowmobile Federation points than any other driver.

SWIM MEET — Seven hundred swimmers will participate in the Winter Carnival AAU Swim meet, according to Doug Hanson, 3M Co., chair. Indoor sports buffs can watch swimmers of all ages compete in this two-day event. Both A and

B competition are included.

TABLE TENNIS OPEN — Apache Plaza will be the scene of this state tournament under the direction of Don Larson, Disney's Table Tennis Center. Table tennis players of all abilities are invited to participate, and spectators are encouraged to watch this annual Carnival event.

TENNIS TOURNAMENT, JUNIOR — This Carnival tournament is open to boys and girls to 18 years of age. There are five age divisions; 10 and under; 11-12; 13-14; 15-16; and 17-18. Jack Johnson, St. Paul Indoor Tennis Club, is chair.

TENNIS TOURNAMENT, SENIOR — A new event this year, this men's and women's singles tournament is open to anyone in the Realm of Boreas and is sanctioned by the Northwest Tennis Association. The top four players from qualifying matches will compete with the top 12 players in the Northwest, according to chair Bill Kridle, Arden Hills Club.

TREASURE HUNT — Sponsored by the St. Paul Dispatch-Pioneer Press and the St. Paul Winter Carnival Association, this annual hunt brings entire families out-of-doors to search for the elusive bronze medallion. Poking around in the ice and snow can prove valuable to the finder, because the medallion is worth the newspaper's $1,000 plus a $1,500 Carnival bonus to registered treasure hunters.

UNIFORM EXHIBIT, CARNIVAL HISTORICAL REVIEW — Carnival photos, uniforms and memorabilia from the collection of the Minnesota Historical Society will be displayed at the Historical Society during Carnival. In addition, guest speaker, Donn Eiden, Northern States Power, long active with the Winter Carnival Association, and currently a director, will review Carnival history from its beginning in 1886.

VFW BOREAS FEST — Barbecued beef will be served beginning at noon the day of the Torchlight Parade by the Anderson-Nelson Post 1635 on Payne Avenue. Gordon Jones, Anderson Cleaners, is in charge.

VULCAN VICTORY PARTY — Chair Tom Watson, State of Minnesota, Department of Finance, expects more than 1,000 partygoers to attend the Vulcan Victory Party at the Radisson Hotel following the Torchlight Parade. The Imperial Order of Fire and Brimstone, alumni organization of Vulcanus Rex and his Krewe, invites all Carnivalites to celebrate the traditional overthrow of King Boreas by the Vulcans at this annual event.

WATER SKI ON THE MISSISSIPPI — For their third year, hardy water skiers wearing wet suits plan to take to the water for their annual Carnival show on the Mississippi at Hidden Falls. Chair Dutch Kosek, St. Paul Dispatch-Pioneer Press, said barefoot skiing is a possibility if water conditions permit it. Skiers are members of the American Water Ski Association, and the Bald Eagle Water Ski Club.

PUPPET SHOW — A youthful adaptation of Carnival's famed legend is portrayed by hand puppets, a feature added in 1977 through the generous sponsorship of Green Giant. King Boreas is valiantly defended by the Royal Guard as Vulcan seeks to thaw the winter festivity. The Queen of Snows' wise counsel prevents the strife from becoming too serious.

1977 JUNIOR ROYALTY

Three decades have passed since Boreas Rex issued the official decree which added Junior Royalty to the pageantry of the Saint Paul Winter Carnival . . .

... "henceforth all the royal functions in the great Realm of Boreas be lightly studded with sparkling and vigorous youth, selected from within the dynasty of his majesty's playfields in the great capitol of the Realm of Boreas, proclaimed as the Junior Realm of Boreas, to be ruled by the youthful King Frost and Queen of the Snowflakes.

Therefore, His Excellency, the Royal Chancellor will take all necessary steps to surround himself with outstanding loyal knights and herald the decree throughout the Realm of Boreas for all years to come.

It is further decreed that the great exalted ruler of his majesty's playfields establish and carry out his majesty's decree beginning in 1949."

When the Junior Royalty program began in 1949, twenty recreation centers participated in the Coronation of King Frost I, Tom Maloney, Baker Recreation Center, and the first Queen of the Snowflakes, Shirley Miller, Edgcombe Recreation Center. The first Lady-in-Waiting was Carole Erickson of West Minnehaha Playground. A Junior Prime Minister was added to the Royal Family in 1950. In 1955, each of the four areas of the city also held a coronation and selected a Wind and Princess for its respective section: North, South, East or West.

Thus, the Junior Royalty program has grown from the selection of a King and Queen from twenty recreation centers in 1949 to a selection of a Royal Family of 12 from 48 centers. The Coronation has become an elegant, formal pageant held at the St. Paul Civic Center. In 1977, 700 young people participated, and more than 4,000 spectators formed the audience.

The Junior Royalty travels with the Burlington Northern Clown Club during the ten days of Carnival each year, visiting schools and hospitals. The young Royal Family also appears in more than 30 parades throughout the year. Their float is sponsored by Buckbee-Mears. These young people are ambassadors of goodwill for the youth of Saint Paul.

A staff of 80 persons administers the program each year, assisted by hundred of volunteers. Pat Moynagh, City of St. Paul Recreation Department, has been associated with the program since 1956, and chairperson for three years.

1977 SENIOR CITIZEN ROYALTY

Fantasy

Each year more than 2,000 senior citizens participate in two Carnival events that they, themselves, have specifically planned — the Senior Citizens Coronation and the Senior Citizens Square Dance.

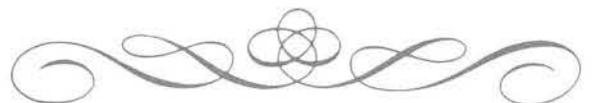

Members of the 1978 Senior Royal Court are selected at a free coronation ceremony. The afternoon of entertainment includes a processional led by the current Senior Citizen Royalty, King Boreas Royalty, and the candidates for 1978 Senior Royalty. The Minneapolis Aquatennial royalty have joined in honoring this annual ceremony.

Selection of nominees for the Senior Citizen Royal Court is made by the Senior organizations of greater Saint Paul. Each of the more than 100 organizations is invited to submit the names of one man and one woman candidate who are active in senior and civic endeavors to represent the elderly of Saint Paul. From the qualified candidates, a panel of judges determines the final selection at a reception for candidates at the Wilder Senior Citizens Center in early January.

The new Royal Court participates in both the Grande Day and Torchlight Parades. During the year they visit nursing homes, hospitals, senior club meetings, and participate in civic events and parades at festivals throughout Minnesota and Wisconsin. A total of 100 appearances are usually made by members of the Senior Royal Court.

Senior Citizens Winter Carnival activities are co-sponsored by the St. Paul Senior Citizens Coalition, the Associated Senior Citizens Assembly, and the Saint Paul Winter Carnival Association. Walter C. Peters is general chairman, a post he has most effectively served for eight years.

1978 PARADE BANDS

ST. CROIX CENTRAL MARCHING PANTHERS HAMMOND-ROBERTS, WISCONSIN

The 115 member St. Croix Central Marching Panthers, including a color guard of 30, are under the direction of Bruce Kamrath. This will be the band's third year in Winter Carnival parades. They have previously won Carnival's second place trophy. Since the 1977 Carnival, the Panthers have participated in 17 parades, winning either first or second place in 14 of them. They were voted the Outstanding Band-Second Place in the Cheyenne, Wyoming Frontier Days Rodeo Parade last summer.

HARDING HIGH SCHOOL MARCHING BAND ST. PAUL, MINNESOTA

Participating in Carnival parades for the past 14 years, the 160 members of the Harding High School Band also make numerous appearances at civic and educational events in the Midwest, including Kansas City and Chicago, courtesy of their sponsor, Eastern Heights State Bank. Robert Hartman is the band director.

SHANLEY HIGH SCHOOL MARCHING BAND FARGO, NORTH DAKOTA

The 44 members of the Shanley High School Marching Band are under the direction of James Schutz. They were the honorary band at the opening of the Red River Mall in 1975, participated in the Bismark Jazz Festival in 1976, and were the lead band in the N.D.S.U. Homecoming Parade in 1977.

HUMBOLDT HIGH SCHOOL BAND
ST. PAUL, MINNESOTA

The Humboldt band has marched in Winter Carnival parades for more than 20 years, taking second place in 1975. The band includes 80 musicians, 30 in the color guard and eight marchers carrying shields. Ray Schweizer is band director. Band members perform each year at the Minnesota State Fair, in the St. Patricks Day Parade, at Valleyfair, Mexican Independence Day Parade, and Indian Days Parade. They played at the Marine Corps Reserve Officers National Convention several years ago. For the past three years they have played at the state high school basketball league playoffs banquet.

SARTELL HIGH SCHOOL MARCHING BAND

Greetings Carnivalites!

Community participation takes on an imaginative aura when it unfolds each January during your Saint Paul Winter Carnival. The more than ninety events celebrated touch probably the broadest array of lives among all of Saint Paul's civic programs. All of it happens through the volunteer support of individuals, committees, city, county, state, and civic organizations and our generous Twin Cities' business community. This Association's Board of Directors gratefully acknowledges all who have contributed their time, energy and talents to our 1978 "Snowflake Fantasy!"

SAPPORO JAPAN SNOW SCULPTURE

A magnificent snow sculpture, larger and more intricate in design than most Americans have ever seen, will grace St. Paul's wooded and snowy Como Park during the 1978 "Snowflake Fantasy" celebration.

Seven sculptors from the Sapporo Japan Snow Festival have accepted an invitation from the Saint Paul Winter Carnival Association and Mayor George Latimer to create one of their ambitious snow sculptures in our Capitol City. The sculptors will be hosted by the 3M Company and the International Institute during their stay in St. Paul. Transportation for the Sapporo snow sculptors has been provided by 3M Company, and travel arrangements made by Northwest Orient Airlines.

The seven talented snow artisans will begin recreating their world-famous display in mid-January, with supplemental help at the site provided by volunteers from Twin City colleges. Approximately 600 tons of snow will be required to create a sculpture 24 feet high, and 40 feet wide, hauled by Minnesota Lumber Wrecking Company.

The spectacular workmanship of the sculpture will memorialize 1978 as a highlight among the Carnival's ninth decade of celebrations.

One of America's top escape artists and con-tortionists, Bernie Orlando will participate as a guest celebrity at several 1978 "Snowflake Fantasy" events including the Grande Day Parade and pre-parade show.

Orlando will also present his one-man escape show as a benefit for North Star REACT, one of 2,000 emergency communications teams in the world.

A St. Paul native and court jester in former Winter Carnivals, Orlando now makes his home in Hollywood, Calif. He has escaped on national network talk and variety shows, in vaudeville at county and state fairs, and in his own one-man shows. He holds the world record of 17 seconds for escaping from a strait jacket and chains. In 1977 he escaped from a flaming strait jacket suspended from a crane in New Orleans for Burbank International Pictures' movie release, "Journey Into the Beyond." Look for Bernie at numerous Carnival events throughout the ten day celebration.

Bernie Orlando exhibits the tools of his trade — padlocks, strait jacket and chains.

H.B. FULLER COMPANY Salutes the 1978 St. Paul Winter Carnival

The first Winter Carnival was 92 years ago, just one year before H.B. Fuller Company began. We have since grown into worldwide operations, but our home is still in St. Paul. And, like the Carnival, we contribute to the vitality of this area.

Our adhesives, sealants, coatings, cleaning equipment and chemicals hold things together, protect and keep them clean. But we do more than make our products here—we participate in our home community.

We provide jobs and taxes to strengthen the area economy. Five percent of our pre-tax profits are available to worthy community organizations. Our time-matching plan allows employees time off to work on community projects. We sponsor live Minnesota Orchestra concerts on MPR, to enrich our cultural life.

We thank and support the community that gives us a home and enlivens it with events like the St. Paul Winter Carnival.
