

To

Greeting

Know ye and all men by these presents, through the Royal and Imperial power conferred upon me as Supreme Ruler of the Realm of Joyland, Grand Commander of the Army in the Land of Health and Royal Admiral of the Navy on the Sea of Happiness, I, Boreas Rex 1, hereby notify you that I will call my legions together in St. Paul, the Capital City of my dominions, there to assemble on the twenty-seventh day of January, to remain until the fifth day of February, 1916. During which period dull care will be put aside, fun and frolic will prevail and the spirit of carnival proclaimed.

Having the greatest faith in the zeal, ability and loyalty of yourself and your most honored and beautiful lady I do hereby designate you Most Noble and Illustrious Knight of your Realm. And do hereby and hereon command you to appear before me at my royal court on the Carnival Field of St. Paul.

There to be presented to the Brilliant "Court of Joy" and to have the distinguished and honored title of "Prince of Play" conferred upon you.

You are further commanded to bring with you a retinue of at least twelve of your most dashing Knights and their Ladies, suitably garbed in any color of the rainbow to participate in the festivities. You are to select the day you desire to appear before me. You are to stay as long as you like.

And in order that true hospitality will prevail I am handing you a golden key which will admit you and your followers to all parts of our Realm of Happiness.

Given under My hand and seal this thirteenth day of January, 1916 A. D.

Lincoln

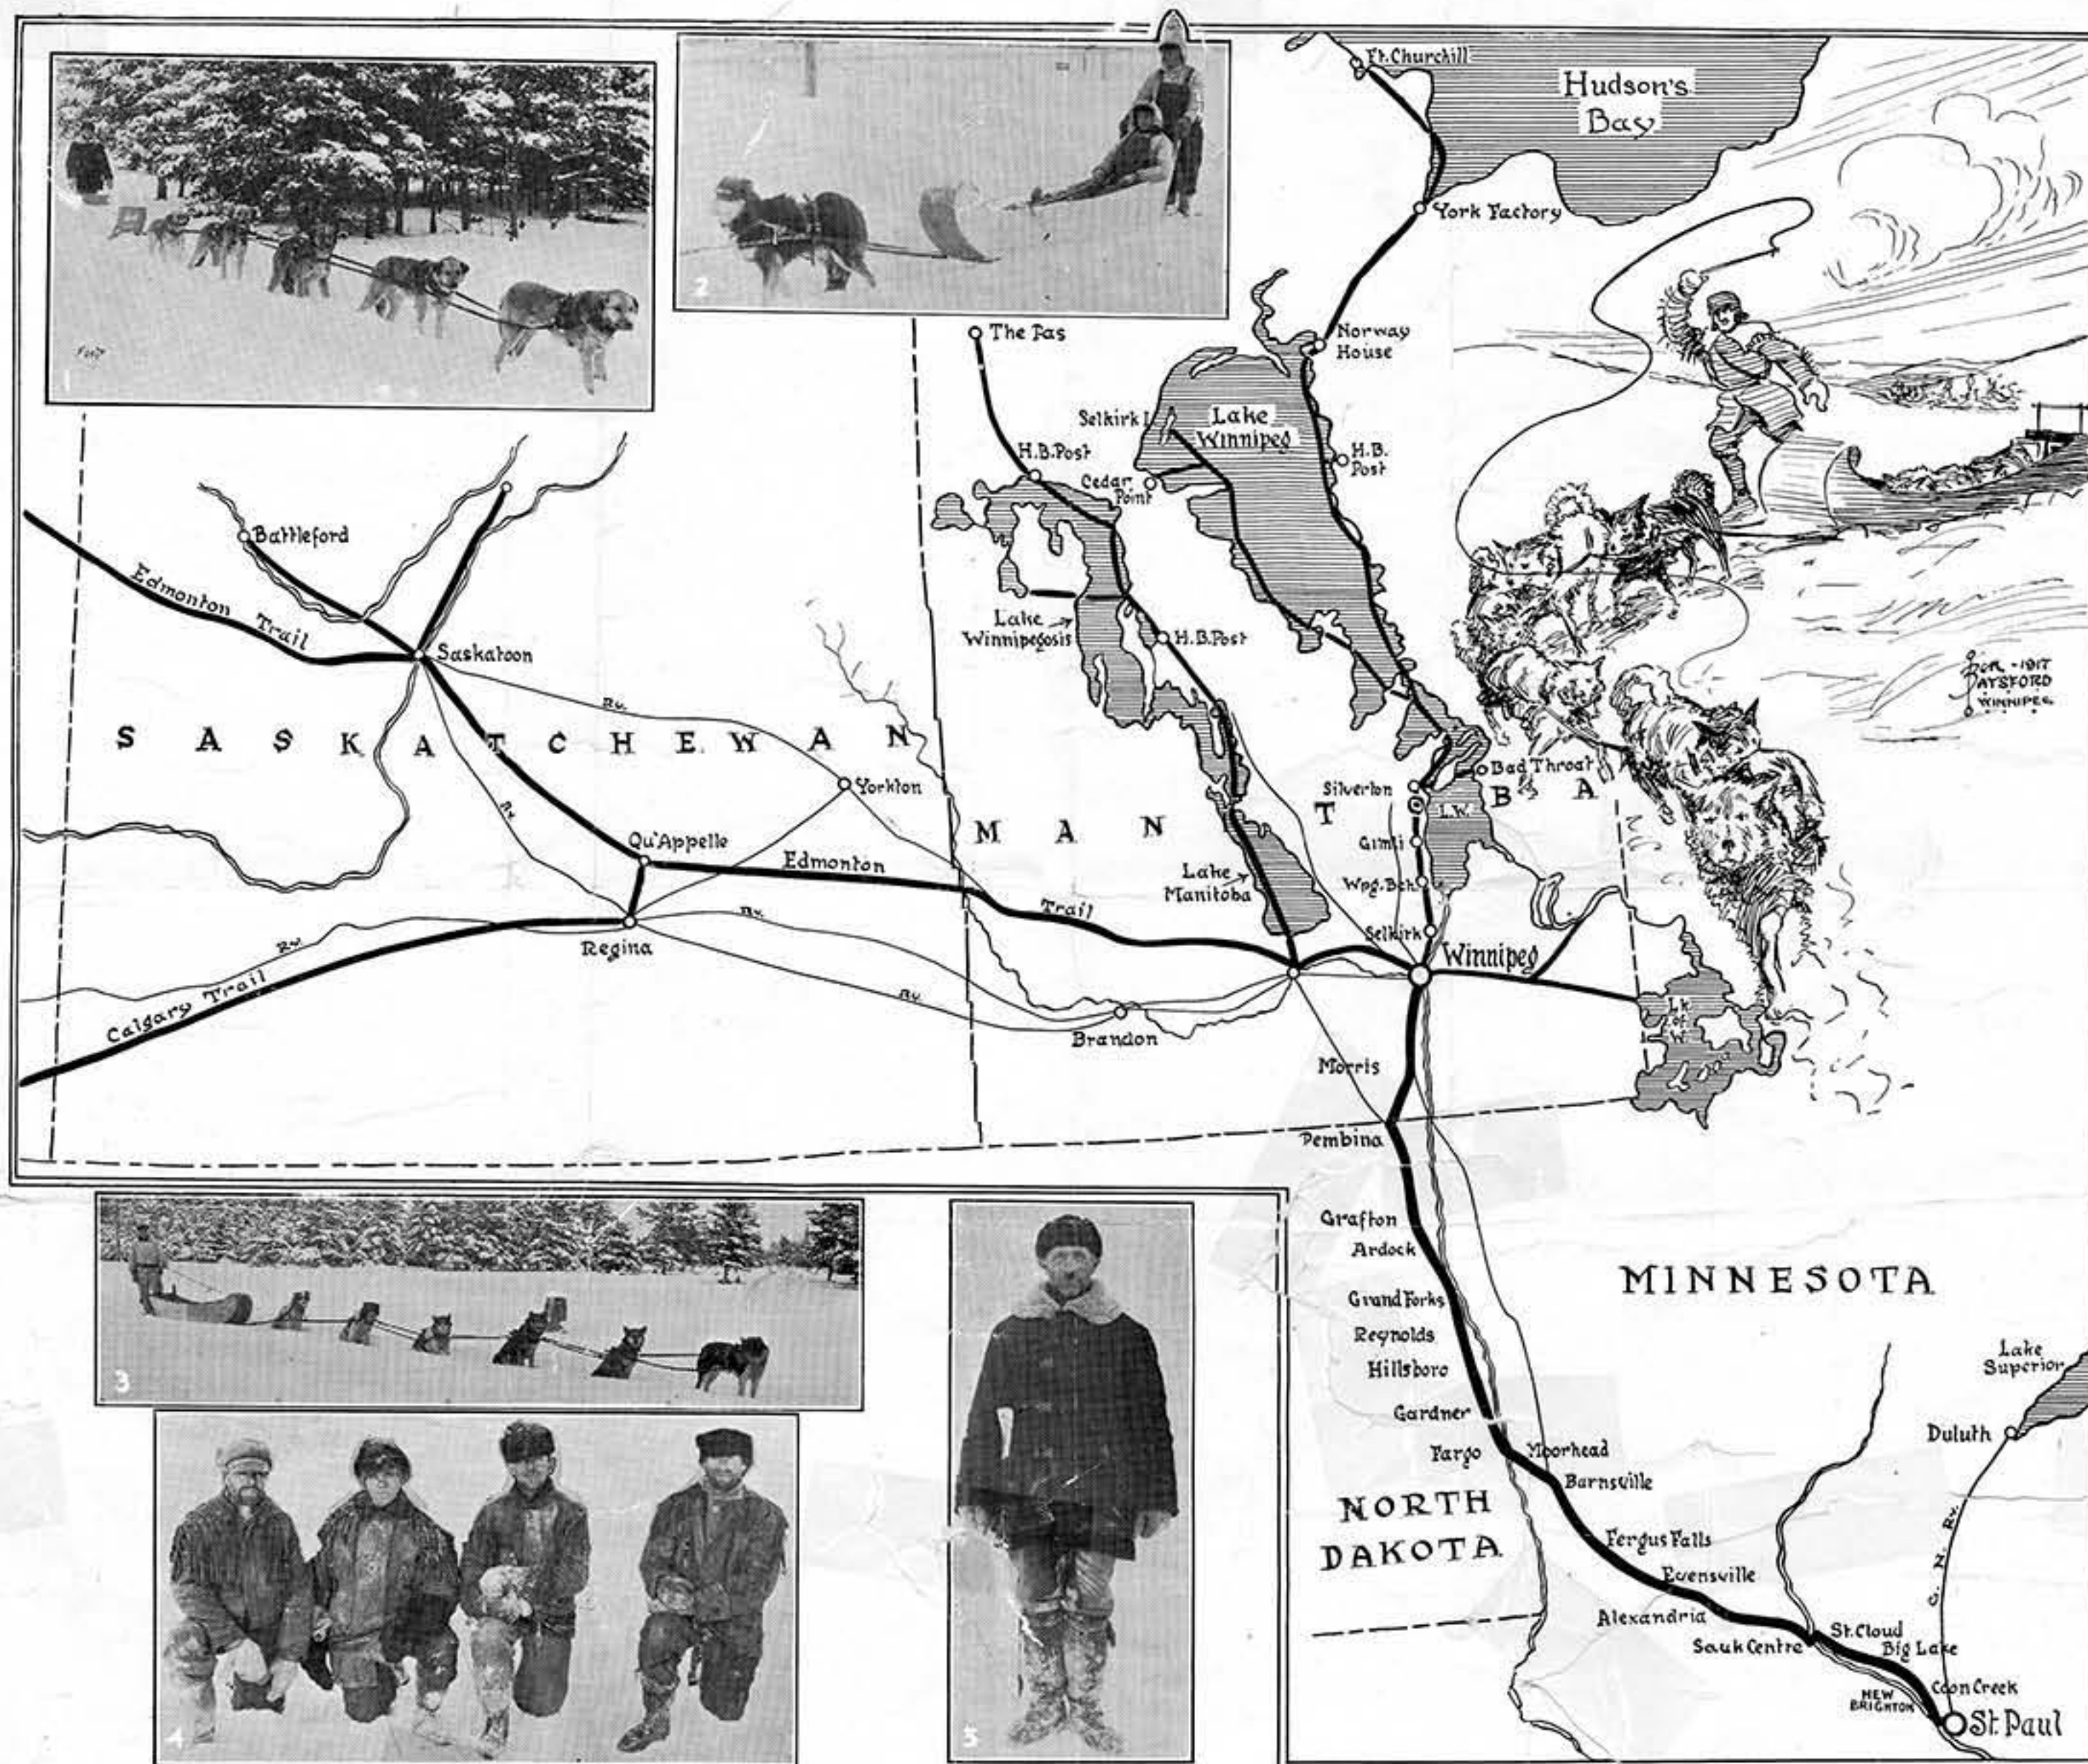

Guardian of the Realm of St. Paul.

Boreas Rex

11

LOUIS
MOEN

MINNESOTA HISTORICAL SOCIETY

Copyright in this digital version belongs to the Minnesota Historical Society and its content may not be copied without the copyright holder's express written permission. Users may print, download, link to, or email content, however, for individual use.

To request permission for commercial or educational use, please contact the Minnesota Historical Society.

www.mnhs.org