

Mary T. Hill Diary

1907

January 1, Tuesday

A fair page may all that is to be set down during this year be fair. This was a cold morning about zero. We had a telegram last night from Mamie stating Mary M. was quite well. Papa and I took our luncheon alone to day. Clara and Rachel went to Charlottes. Father McNulty celebrated 9 oclock Mass this morning. Father Gibbons and Bishop Shanley left last evening.

January 2, Wednesday

This has been a dreary day wind sleet and darkness. Judge Geo. B. Youngs funeral service occurred to day. Rev. Edwards conducted it. He will be buried in Edgartown by side of Mrs. Young. We received a cable to day from Mike and Gertrude from Hong Kong.

January 3, Thursday

Quite cold. Very slippery after yesterdays freezing and raining so we went down town in the Automobile. Coming back I called on poor Mrs. Lee found her too depressed. In the afternoon called on Mrs. Weyerhaueser, Mrs. Ward, Mrs. Skinner, Mrs. Field and Mrs. Farington. In the evening Clara and I went to Mrs. James Markers to meet Monsignor Oster. It was a pleasant occasion. Charlotte and George dined here and spent the evening.

January 4, Friday

18 above zero at 9 a.m. Rather cloudy coming us this morning. I stopped at Mr. Newels found him Mrs. Morrison and David all at home. I am sorry Papa seems so troubled these days; that is new for him. Papa spent this evening at Mr. Newels. Clara played pool, I tried to.

January 5, Saturday

Nearly 30 above zero. Such a fine day one wanted to be out all day. Rachel and Clara took long drive. I telegraphed Mamie this afternoon as I have not had word of Mary for several days. Mr. Newel spent the evening with us.

January 6, Sunday

20 above zero at 9 a.m. Cloudy and raw. Clara and I attended 9¹⁵ Mass at St. Lukes. Father McNulty thanked the parishioners for their generosity and consideration of him the past year. Letters from Mamie, Ruth and Samuel. Wrote to Ruth and to Mamie.

January 7, Monday

A very mild day. George Slade came home ill to day of "grip." Walter came from the West this afternoon, says he was ill out there three days. Walter leaves for Michigan to attend Ore meeting. Louis leaves for the West to see what can be done to open up the R. R. blocked by snow. {written in Louis' hand: "A - 22 coal and clothes [etc.?] 2 wrecks"}

January 8, Tuesday

Ten above zero this morning, but rather cold wind - very cold in account of wind in the afternoon. Rachel and I called on Mrs. Horace Thompson. Mrs. J. B. Rice dined with us and went with me to the Symphony Concert. Papa spent the evening at Mr. Uphams.

January 9, Wednesday

At nine a.m. 5 below zero. Quite a busy day seeing to bills ect. [sic]. And began to sort and look over letters of several years. Went to Mrs. Armstrongs Tea for Mrs. and Miss Spalding. Maud dined with us and she and I played pool later. I am so sorry for Papa he is so troubled about the snow blockade on R. R. George and Charlotte are both ill of colds.

January 10, Thursday

22 above zero at 9 a.m. Went to see Mrs. Lee and called on Mrs. Markoe also on Mrs. Eaton and went to see the Uphams to tell them of what Mrs. Smeall told me of Mrs. James and to say good bye as they are going to California leaving tomorrow. Papa was cheered this evening by telegram from West telling him of progress of opening the R. R. clearing the heavy snow.

January 11, Friday

8 above zero at 8 a.m. George and Charlotte some better. Quite a fall of snow to day. Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Upham left for California this evening neither well. Mr. Newel came over and spent the evening. Walter came back from Marquette Mich. We took luncheon at Mauds to day to meet Miss Mary Perkins. Called on Mrs. Prince and Mrs. Morgan.

January 12, Saturday

6 above at 8³⁰ a.m. This is a glorious winter morning. The new snow is so dry that it glitters in the sun shine like diamonds. Surely fine winter weather here is perfect. Papa gets more encouraging accounts in reports of opening up the R. R. in the Dakotas. Louis is out there.

January 13, Sunday

Was quite cold in the morning but passed more pleasant as the day wore on. Wrote to Mamie and to Ruth also to Lord Strathcona to thank him for Pheasants sent to us from the other side of the water. And they came in fine condition. Just finished reading Hawthornes Blythesdale Romance. How very different his style to the very modern.

January 14, Monday

A little above zero this morning. Storms and snow blowing continues in the Dakotas. Papa can not think of much else than the possible suffering for lack of fuel. A letter from Jim says he has had rheumatism again since his return from Okeetee Club.

January 15, Tuesday

10 below zero at 9 a.m. Georgiana has been with us since Sunday because Norman was ill. And George and Charlotte have been ill a week but are better. Norman is some better too. Charlotte wanted us to send Georgiana home so we bundled her like an Esquimou [sic] and sent her home in blankets and fur.

January 16, Wednesday

Cloudy and raw. Rachel does not feel well to day gave up and went to bed after luncheon. Thinks she has grip. George has gone to the Office to day and Charlotte is better so is Norman.

January 17, Thursday

Cloudy and moderate. Went over to see Mrs. Morrison this afternoon. She is rather depressed at prospect of being housed during the winter months. Wrote to Samuel and to Mother Xavier to day. Mittie Porter came down to spend the day and night. Maud dined with us we played pool in the evening.

January 18, Friday

20 above zero at 9 a.m. Cloudy and moderate. We are praying and hoping for warmer weather West of us so that the R.R. may run trains with fuel to the Dakotas. Situation is improving out there.

January 19, Saturday

30 above zero this a.m. A dark rainy morning turned to sleet then to snow. Toward evening wind changed and turned cold at ten p.m. nearly zero. Wrote to Miss. Watson to Mother Seraphica this evening.

January 20, Sunday

10 below zero this a.m. 8. A very cold windy morning and a very cold day about 5 below all day. We watched two fires last night from our bed room windows one on third street and the other on Eagle and Chestnut Sts. Wrote to Mamie and to Ruth. Mr. F. B. Clarke took luncheon with us to day. The Dakota leaves Yokohama to day for Seattle. Cable from Gertrude this a.m.

January 21, Monday

12 below this early morning. 8 below zero at 8 this a.m. and snowing with some wind so very disagreeable. Even the poor animals were to be pitied I thought this morning as we went down town. Terrific wind storm at Buffalo N. Y. yesterday.

January 22, Tuesday

Was 22 below zero this early morning. At ten last night it was ten below zero, and at 9 this a.m. 18 below on North Side zero on the South in the sun. Went to the Office with Papa it did not seem so cold. Letter from Ruth this morning. Mr. Geo. B. Harris and Mrs. Blithe came home with Papa to dinner and spent the evening. Clara and Maud went to hear.

January 23, Wednesday

At 9 a.m. 1 below zero. Cloudy raw disagreeable morning. The afternoon was moderate. Went to see Mrs. Lee and in the afternoon Charlotte and I called on Mrs. Morrison and Mr. Newel. If this severe weather and heavy snow fall with wind does not cease in the Dakotas and Montana I do not know what the results will be.

January 24, Thursday

12 below this a.m. A sunny and beautiful morning in spite of the temperature.

January 25, Friday

Very cold and disagreeable raw day. Louis is on the way home but at best his pace must be slow as the roads are not in good condition yet. George and Charlotte dined with us this evening. She and I played at pool.

January 26, Saturday

18 below at 9 a.m. This was a very cold morning no one loitering about the Streets. A day for my hood. I am nearly always amused when I wear it it certainly attracts attention even strangers seem curious to know who the wearer is. We all took lunch at Charlottes. Mrs. Furness and Miss Brown were there.

January 27, Sunday

10 below at 9 a.m. A bright still beautiful cold morning. Louis arrived home late last night. Have not seen him yet this morning. Louis did not find such fuel or food famine as has been reported in Press. Wrote to Mamie, Ruth and Gertrude. Papa leaves for New York this evening.

January 28, Monday

10 below this morning. House seems cold. A radiator frozen in one of the servants rooms since yesterday. They will leave windows open too long for this temperature. Went to Charlottes at Tea time to day and met the Boeckmanns there. The children are better.

January 29, Tuesday

Just below zero at 8³⁰ a.m. Snowed in the early morning, has been a beautiful day. Sunday one of the radiators of a servants room froze, to day as they were getting things back in order, a water pipe burst and flooded Claras room. We gave a luncheon to day to Mrs. Louis Chemidlin and twelve of her old friends. She will return to Mexico soon. A telegram from Papa telling me he is safely at 8 East 65th Street New York.

January 30, Wednesday

10 below zero at 9³⁰ a.m. How the severe cold hangs on. Clara and I went to the Symphony Concert last evening did not care so much for the Orchestration. Miss Powell the violinist was fine. Rachel and Walter went to the Theatre and were not very well pleased. Went over to 'Home of the Friendless' (an awful name for any place) to see Mrs. Schell to day found her busy and well.

January 31, Thursday

16 above. At last above zero weather. Busy doing I can not tell what, keeping things going and in place. Emma Gotzian took luncheon with us and stayed the afternoon to show Rachel how to make baskets. I called on the Visitation Sisters and to see Mrs. Geo. R. Finch who has been ill. We shall dine with Mr. F. B. Clarke this evening at the Aberdeen.

February 1, Friday

Nearly 20 below zero this a.m. Mr. Clarkes dinner passed off well last evening. Mr. and Mrs. Campbell and Howard James his mother and wife were guests. Went to call on Mrs. Jannary (Mrs. Elliotts mother) then went over to see Mrs. Morrison found Mr. Newel pretty well.

February 2, Saturday

10 below zero at 8 a.m. Unless the bear is an early riser he saw his shadow this morning as the sun shines beautifully since 9 oclock. This is blustery day as well as very cold few were at Mass for Candemas service this morning. Dined with Father McNulty at Charlottes this evening.

February 3, Sunday

22 below at 9 a.m. Was 24 last night. At ten last night received telegram from Mike and Gertrude they arrived back from Japan on the Dakota at Seattle yesterday. Wrote to Papa and to Ruth to day. Telegram from Mamie to day tells us Mary M. is quite well. George came up from Chicago this morning, returned there this evening. F. E. Ward walked 9 miles yesterday in Dakota blizzard. To St. Lukes this morning.

February 4, Monday

14 below at 9 a.m. Will be bright day. We have had a message telling us that Mike and Gertrude are on the way home from Seattle left yesterday. A telegram from Mike to day from White Montana stating they were 9 hours late. They are now where they will encounter the most snow and the coldest weather. I have not been well to day.

February 5, Tuesday

At 9 a.m. 20 below zero. It is reported that it was 30 below at 6 this morning, if that is true that is the lowest temperature here this winter. A telegram to day telling us Papa left for home at 2 p.m. Also a telegram from Mike telling us they are at Havre Montana and are 17 hours late. They seem hopeful that the Road will be clear very soon.

February 6, Wednesday

10 below at 8 a.m.

February 7, Thursday

Not so cold just at zero this a.m. A bright morning seemed cold enough when one was out. We have been seeking information of the incoming Oriental train from Seattle all forenoon as Mike and Gertrude are on it. Papa arrived home from New York this morning on time too. Mike and Gertrude arrived at 1250 both very well most enthusiastic over their trip to Japan.

February 8, Friday

10 above zero this am 9 oclock. And such a bright morning. All yesterday afternoon and evening were spent looking over things from Japan. They brought Louis and Maud several things. I got a fine Chuddah Shawl a doll dressed like a Japanese lady and parasol of bamboo and an ivory handle for a parasol. The children were bewildered and delighted at every thing. Maud, Walter, Rachel, Mike, Gertrude Geo. Finch and some others went for a sliding party to Town and Country and took Supper there this evening. Mr. Ed. Young came in and showed us how pool should be played.

February 9, Saturday

32 above zero at 9 this a.m. Rather a busy day trying to help get Gertrudes things ready to be packed as they plan to leave Tuesday. The day has been very fine went out in the Sleigh far as the Seminary in the afternoon. Mike spent the day in the Courtroom attending case against issue of stock.

February 10, Sunday

About same temperature as yesterday. We all with Charlotte attended Mass at St. Lukes. Norman went with us. All but Papa and I took luncheon with Charlotte to day. I as usual wrote to Mamie, Ruth and I also wrote to Mrs. Grover. In the evening several looked over Japanese Books and albums in the Gallery.

February 11, Monday

14 above at 9 a.m. A pleasant day out side busy looking up and putting together Gertrudes belongings. After luncheon Mike and Gertrude went to Crafts to have photo in wedding dress. Rachel and I went for a drive in the Auto far as Hamline. In the evening all but papa Clara and I went to dine with Mr. Macpherson and later to the Opera The Butterfly. Col. Clough called in the evening. Clara and I play at pool.

February 12, Tuesday

22 above at 9 a.m. A legal Holiday here but not observed as such except in Government Offices. Girls went to an entertainment this evening and were disappointed. Mike and Gertrude left for New York this evening. Samuel passed through St. Paul this evening but had not time to come up town.

February 13, Wednesday

Beautiful morning, by 3 p.m. a nasty wind from seemingly every direction. Rachel and I went for a drive and were glad to find shelter on our return. Played pool in the evening we feel that we can play a little better game now.

February 14, Thursday

10 above fine sunny day. A delightful afternoon. Rachel and I made some visits. We called on Mrs. A. Lindeke Mrs. Phil McQuillan. I called on Mrs. Borup and Mrs. Gotzian. Papa had a trying afternoon at the Capital being questioned about his own affairs by any 'Tom Dick or Harry.'

February 15, Friday

34 above zero at 9 a.m. Snow nearly all gone. Spring like morning. Papa was at the Capital all yesterday afternoon and will be there this afternoon again testifying in regard to Ore Deal.

February 16, Saturday

{Blank}

February 17, Sunday

This has been a spring like day. Louis and Maud went to farm and their Auto stuck fast the other side of the Soo R. R. George Charlotte and the girls went also in our Auto they escaped accident and got through in consequence of Louis mishap by going around. Mr. Newel came over to day.

February 18, Monday

A bright beautiful day but quite windy. Papa left for New York this evening. This has not been a happy day in the family as we all learn that George has resigned from G. N. R. R. This is not a well chosen time.

February 19, Tuesday

A delightful morning.

A telegram from Mike from Memphis saying they were well. Samuel here to day. On way back to Washington after seeing James at Middlesex School he dined with us this evening.

April 28, Sunday

New York. Rather cold morning. Papers tell us heavy snow interrupts street car service yesterday in St. Paul and Minneapolis. Delays trains and causes wrecks in the Dakotas. Went down to St. Peters old church and to see Pauline Emmett this afternoon.

April 29, Monday

New York. The Auto was out of order this morning so walked down town. Clara and I made [Maud/Mand?] calls this afternoon. Called on Mrs. Osborne, Mrs. Kennedy, Mrs. D. W. James and Mrs. Geo. F. Baker.

April 30, Tuesday

New York. Stayed in this afternoon. Mrs. Dahlgren came Lucy has had typhoid fever. Mr. Dickerman called this evening, told us of his country place.

May 1, Wednesday

New York. We looked about to day, at clocks and so forth. One sees so many that one becomes hindered – and takes nothing. Maria Taylor came in this afternoon looking well. Mr. Schley called this evening.

May 2, Thursday

New York. All this week has been threatening and foggy rather cold some rain. Clara, Ruth, and I went to the museum and looked at the Morgan Tapestries the Morgan collection of Chinese porcelains and at the collection of laces there. We Clara and I dined with Mrs. Thorne and Mrs. Ed. Thorne and their son there.

May 3, Friday

New York. Weather some brighter this morning. At 10³⁰ a.m. Clara, Ruth and I started for Convent Station in Ruths Automobile at Chatam we were delayed by a flattened tire. We arrived at the Convent at 1³⁰ p.m. found Mother Xavier looking well but aged. We also found a new Hall Reta Hall for the college students. Also new chapel in process of erection quite large.

May 4, Saturday

New York. A dismal morning – foggy and stifling. After noon cleared colder. Cable from George from Paris this forenoon. They arrived well. Papa did not return from Washington this evening. Mike and Gertrude back from the South, dinned with us this evening. Anson at Poughkeepsie. Ruth staying with us.

May 5, Sunday

New York. At last a perfect morning. Weather permitted May Day parties in Park yesterday.

May 6-7

May 11, Saturday

Arrived home from New York last night having left there Thursday afternoon at 330. Very directly. Today is quite cold. We find all the children very well indeed. Went to see Mrs. Morison this afternoon she of course is lonely. Mr. and Mrs. Upham came in this morning both well after winter in California. Went down to St. Marys to day.

May 12, Sunday

This is a hot morning. I went out to St. Lukes to eight oclock mass. It was 85 in shade this afternoon and no air stirring. Not a leaf on a tree yet, lilacs just bursting forth, grass hardly green.

May 13, Monday

Dark and cold again this morning. Everything looks so dirty, grimy and in need of skaking [sic?] up after the winter – but this weather does not invite house cleaning. A letter from Charlotte written aboard The Amerika before reaching Plymouth she not comfortable. Rachel reported good sailor. Weather about so, so.

May 14, Tuesday

Still colder and so dark and threatening of snow probably has rained a little. The poor farmers really have something to grumble at this year: but what good can that do, about 40 to day.

May 15, Wednesday

Not quite so dark but colder, 35 at 9 a.m. and snow enough to cover grass.

May 16-17

{Blank}

May 18, Saturday

We have had three rather fine days now and vegetation shows the effects. Clara and I spent a good part of this afternoon with Papa looking at pretty things at his office. I have been out at the Good Shepherd Sisters this afternoon poor things they have a heavy load to carry.

May 19, Sunday

The double birth-day of the two Louis. Papa and I took luncheon at Louis. Norman and Georgiana were there also. Afterwards we went to North Oaks with them. The farm looks in fine shape but the cold late season forbids vegetation. Every thing out there ready for warmer weather.

May 20, Monday

Quite cold this morning - not quite 40 at 9 a.m. Letters from Mamie, Mary, Charlotte, Rachel and Walter. Charlottes from Paris. Rachels from Aix les Baines. All well. Trying to do some cleaning after the winter, began to 1st and 2nd floors to day.

May 21, Tuesday

A dark and rainy morning rather cold too. I took luncheon at Mrs. Chas. Noyes to day to meet a Mrs. Cook.

May 22 - 24

May 25, Saturday

This has been an other [sic] trying week as to weather cloudy cold and wet no chance to get things out for an airing or sunning. Catherine Abbott came yesterday to spend some days with us. Our third floor about cleaned and the Music and Drawing room. Mr. Carey Hutchinson arrived to day for a few days.

May 26, Sunday

A cold and rainy morning and quite dark. Maud went to Rochester yesterday to see Minnie Oakes at the new Sanitarium. Have written to Charlotte and to Rachel the Amerika for June 7th from Cherbourg. To Ruth and to Mike also to Mabel Merriam of her engagement to Mr. John Wheelwright.

May 27, Monday

Bright rather cool - beginning at Summit and Selby Aves. and over to Dayton the streets are in such disorder that the laying of the Corner Stone can not be very impressive on June 2nd. And in lines down Robert street is all torn up for paving ect. [sic]. I am busy my self putting things in order and house cleaning. Letter from Rachel to day from Aix les Baines.

May 28, Tuesday

A really beautiful day. Clara and Catherine Abbott are making the most of the inviting weather. Selecting some ornaments to send to New York house enough is enough in any house, if taken care of. The trees are finally putting forth foliage, but there will not be any blossoms for Decoration Day this year. Maud and the children moved to the farm to day to North Oaks.

May 29, Wednesday

We are quite busy to day cleaning Dining room on first floor and sitting room on second floor - and making some plans for Papas dinner tomorrow night.

May 30, Thursday

This morning cloudy but not cold. Norman and Georgiana came early to see if I would take them out the cemetery as they remembered going with me last year – I took them. The cemetery was full of people - and beautiful flowers. Mr. George Harris came home with Papa this afternoon. I went with them to North Oaks and saw Minnie Oaks there looking so well.

May 31, Friday

Still cloudy and little rain. Papas dinner passed of well last evening. Mr. Fairclough played on the organ during the evening. The guests were Judge Sanborn, Judge Phillips, Judge Adams, Judge River {Riner?}, Judge Vanderverter, Judge Bunn, Mr. Chas. Bunn, Mr. Wm. Begg, Mr. Howard Elliott and Louis. Judge Hook was invited but could not be present. We have been busy to day in the library. Auntie came down to day. {in Louis' handwriting: Judge Adams & Phillips [] arrange 1⁰⁰ dinner for Secy. Taft in place of 20⁰⁰.}

June 1, Saturday

Papa left for Burlington Iowa this evening. Weather is still so changable [sic] that the house cleaning is often interrupted and rugs and other things have to take advantage of times between showers. Still we are getting on. These bishops were here yesterday Bishop James Schuebeck LaCrosse, Wis.

“ Frederick Eis Marquette, Mich.

“ A. Schimmer Superior, Wis.

“ John C. Cunningham Concordia Kan.

“ Maurice F. Burke St. Joseph, Mo.

“ J.J. Hennesy Wichata [sic] Kan.

June 3, Monday {on page for 6/4}

A fine morning cooler. A cable this morning from George from Paris telling us they will sail on Amerika Friday.

June 4, Tuesday {on page for 6/3}

A delightful morning turned to most disagreeable threatening day, interfering most disagreeably with our house cleaning. Several showers. Papa returned from Burlington Iowa this evening. A letter from Mamie also one from Ruth and a note from Edith Hand.

June 5-6

{Blank}

June 7, Friday

This has been a fine day. We are finishing up cleaning and putting to rights on first floor. Went to Mrs. Sanborns reception this afternoon to meet Mrs. Adams, Mrs. and Miss Hook. Dr. Taylor called this evening and told me of his stay in Washington.

June 8, Saturday

A fine day. Jim. and Mr. Kelly arrived this morning, finishing up the general house cleaning of the week. It does seem as if every thing gets out of order at once, now the sewing machines. Clara and Mr. Kelly went to the Hamlin concert and later joined me at Mrs. Furness' reception.

June 9, Sunday

Was raining, pouring in the early morning. We ventured to 9 oclock mass weather partially cleared until about four oclock after that poured all night. Mr. R. Kelly and Jim. went to Fargo at 10 p.m. Samuel dined with us on way to Washington D.C. Mr. Pierce managed to get light enough to photograph Papa, Jim., Walter and me.

June 10, Monday

Such a wet day, rained all day. A discouraging coming in of new moon. Busy seeing to having ornament gathered to pack for New York House. Papa went East with Jim. and Mr. Kelly this evening. Jim looks poorly, and this is most trying weather for him. Walter is here. Roads North Oaks very bad.

June 11, Tuesday

And still it rains with little appearance of clearing. I managed to get out to Good Shepherds House. Clara went to Visitation Closing Exercises and home in admiration of Archbishop Ireland and disgruntled at Father Phelens remarks. I called on Mrs. Adams, Mrs. Hook and Miss Hook. Judges Sanborn and Adams called this evening.

June 12, Wednesday

A cloudy threatening day turned to a fine late afternoon. It has been a busy day. Mr. Pierce the Boston photographer came at two to take Norman and Georgiana. Clara too was photographed. Mr. A Paget with Marquess Anglesey and Mr. Chas. Gordon called this afternoon. The English gentleman on way to Yellowstone Park. Wrote to Rachel and to Charlotte.

June 13, Thursday

A really perfect day. Busy all forenoon making preparations for a luncheon I give the visiting judges wives to day. The lilacs are at perfection now and more beautiful than ordinarily. The white ones are unusually profuse. My guest [sic] are Mrs. Adams, Mrs. Hook, Miss Hook, Mrs. Sanborn, Mrs. Elliott Mrs. Abbott, Mrs. Upham, Mrs. Furness Mrs. Noyes (Chas.) Mrs. Bigg, Mrs. Sheply, Maud, Clara. Afterwards we took Mrs. Morison and went to Minnehaha Falls, and Minneapolis in the Automobile.

June 14, Friday

Another fine day. Flag day. Mr. Secretary of War Taft in town to day. He was taken ill at Fort Snelling and was unable to attend laying of Y.M.C.A. cornerstone which A. B. Driscoll layed [sic]. A banquet of two thousand [came/crowd/corus?] and men greeted him in the evening at auditorium in the evening. A crowd of ladies in galleries he managed to appear there and spoke to five thousand or more on Panama Canal. Clara took Norman and Georgiana to North Oaks in morning, I went in afternoon took Mrs. Finch. The lilacs were and are glorious, and more profuse than ever.

June 15, Saturday

Busy all day. Went over to Mauds in the evening to see Minnie Oaks and Maud before they leave. Mr. Toomey came in before he left for Montreal on way to St. Johns River. He brought me bills recipted [sic] of Sisters debts to men here on trade. Took Mrs. Lee and Miss Wallace for a drive to see lilacs on boulevard.

June 16, Sunday

Grew very hot last night. At 8³⁰ this a.m. it was 74. We spent the day at North Oaks and it it [sic] was above 90 there in early afternoon. Maud and Minnie Oaks left for Seattle this morning. Morning paper told us the Amerika arrived yesterday. We received telegram from George this afternoon. I telegraphed Papa.

June 17, Monday

To day not so hot but warm enough. I went out to Good Shepherd Sisters with some work they were happy quietly. Mrs. Hook and Miss Hook called this afternoon before leaving for Leavenworth rained this afternoon. Spent this fore noon mostly in Basement seeing to cleaning there.

June 18, Tuesday

Cloudy and cooler. George telegraphs the children they will be at home Friday a.m. This evening Walter was part of a fearful accident. A Mr. Fred Schroeder went with him in his Auto. to Minneapolis. Returning when on Summit near Bridge suddenly Mr. Schroeder threw up his hands and fell out of the Auto on his head. Walter turned around and got back to him in a very short space. Called to him getting no response called for help, sent to telephone for Dr. and telephoned himself for an ambulance. Mr. S. died almost immediately. A Mr. Peter Grant brought Walter home in most excited condition. It is all dreadful.

June 19, Wednesday

North Oaks. Walter got scarcely any rest last night, nor did any of us. Mr. Macpherson stayed with Walter. This evening Mr. Mac- - Walter and I came out here Clara came with us. Mr. Schroeder is thought to have had a stroke. As he had a previous stroke of paralysis and was disabled.

June 20, Thursday

North Oaks. This has been a most perfect day, here. So quiet and peaceful all around. Walter got some rest last night. Norman and Georgiana spent the day here. Clara went to town with them this evening to be in town in the morning to meet Charlotte and George on their return.

June 21, Friday

North Oaks. A cool morning turned to hot afternoon and stormy afternoon and evening. Mrs. Raguet, George and Clara came out for luncheon. Mrs. R. stayed all night. Papa left New York to day for Montreal and sails tomorrow morning from there for St. Johns River. Busied myself out here experimenting with rhubarb wine.

June 22, Saturday

Came in to town this morning to attend some things and got in to heavy rain showers. It is a hot day.

June 23, Sunday

We were in for mass and went back to North Oaks in forenoon. Took Uncle Phelps and Fred. out for the day. The afternoon proved very stormy so we all came in, in the evening.

June 24, Monday

A very hot day. A sever [sic] electric storm in the afternoon. Walter went to Duluth in the evening to go from there to Marquette Wednesday. A telegram from Papa to day from Montreal. They sailed this morning for St. John River.

June 25, Tuesday

To day has been quite cool. Cold wind from N. W. I found wraps necessary this forenoon when I drove through park to Fair grounds. Wrote Papa to day to St. Johns River. Clara had a letter this morning from Mary M. Gertrude and Rachel leave New York for home to day.

June 26, Wednesday

Still cool. To day has been simply perfect. The afternoon was delightful. Mrs. Morison and Dan Morison and Father McNulty with Dr. Turner took dinner with us this evening. The Archbishop called here this afternoon after going to the farm to see me. Letter from Mamie to day.

June 27, Thursday

An other [sic] perfect day. Rachel and Gertrude arrived home this morning. Maud and Louis came home she from Seattle. To day was Cornelias Saunders wedding day and a perfect day it has been. We went to ceremony and to the reception. She is Mrs. Stott.

June 28, Friday

July 4, Thursday

North Oaks. Such a stormy forenoon, a tremendous electric storm before noon and such a down pour, for a time the sky looked very bad, and so dark. Afternoon and evening proved rather pleasant. Mike and Gertrude arrived Tuesday night and are out here with us so is George Finch.

July 5, Friday

{Blank}

July 6, Saturday

Came in to town this morning to see to some things. Strawberries at North Oaks are fine this year, indeed the whole garden is a pleasure to look at. Now we have peas, beets lettuce onions.

July 7, Sunday

After church this morning I returned to North Oaks. Mrs. Morison Ben., Stan. and Dan Morison with Margery Morison are Mauds guests. We have taken Dan and Ben over with us. Horace Thompson and Mrs. Thompson are spending the day with Maud. Mr. and Mrs. Upham and Grace and her children drove over from White Bear this afternoon.

July 8, Monday

North Oaks. As Mike and Gertrude are going to Duluth we shall go to town with them this afternoon. They dine with Charlotte this evening. The sweet peas are blooming profusely out here.

July 9, Tuesday

Samuel and James arrived this morning. Mike and Gertrude left after breakfast for Duluth and go East to Buffalo via Lakes.

July 10, Wednesday

James awakened this morning with so swollen a face that we suspect him of mumps. Poor boy! He has been deprived of all his vacations this year by one and another illness.

July 11, Thursday

Dr. Taylor and Samuel went to the Drs. Sanitarium this morning to be absent all day. So I called in Dr. Ramsey to see James. The boy is very patient and has to spend his time nearly alone. Weather is fine.

July 12, Friday

Samuel and James left us this morning on way to Seattle. James did seem more comfortable and would like to have stayed. Rachel and I went to North Oaks and preserved strawberries by partial Sun process we feel we are succeeding well in the effort.

July 13, Saturday

A very hot day. I was busy in morning hours replenishing my own needs as to materials for white sewing. After luncheon Gertrude Phelps brought Mr. Horrigan and announced her engagement to him. I was pleased with his appearance. Telegram to day that Papa will arrive in New York this evening from St. Johns River.

July 14, Sunday

Rained last night and there was accompanying electricity. Warm this morning and cloudy. Rachel has a sore throat. Walter is staying at White Bear Lake at Mrs. Ordways house has been there for the Regatta.

July 15, Monday

A delightful day after last nights storm and down pours; three inches of rain fell in same number of hours. The horse Stable at North Oaks was struck in two places last night by lightening [sic]. The heavy rain following so soon saved it. Clara, Charlotte and I spent to day at North Oaks. I went out to put strawberries in jars.

July 16, Tuesday

This is a fine summer day. Making current jelly this forenoon. Walter left for Montana this afternoon. A telegram came yesterday from Samuel from Seattle saying James had entirely recovered on the way. Stan Morison and Ed Young dined with us this evening.

July 17, Wednesday

Another fine morning. A disappointing sunrise greets one to day. The Currant jelly has not jelled! I shall see what leaving it in sun will do.

July 18, Thursday

{Blank}

July 19, Friday

Papa arrived home from New York last night at ten oclock. George Slade came with him.

July 20, Saturday

Quite a hot day. After coming back from leaving Papa at office covered jelly glasses. The sun finished the jelly all right. This evening Papa and I took quite a drive in Auto although weather was threatening. Out to River and over to Fort Bridge and back.

July 21, Sunday

This was a discouraging early morning very sultry, so humid rained nearly all last night. Papa is in St. Paul fifty one years to day. At 11³⁰ a.m. he and I started for North Oaks, we took luncheon and dinner there. I think Papa was pleased to see all looking so well attended to. Mr. and Mrs. C Bunn and Helen came over from White Bear Lake Mr. Macpherson with them.

July 22, Monday

George Slades birthday. Such a glorious morning. Letters from Mamie, Ruth and James N. B. to day. Also telegram from Mamie asking what James swelling was. Maud and Louis came in from North Oaks to day to do errands. Papa and I drove out to Minnehaha Falls and Fort Snelling this p.m. letters from Mamie, James and Ruth.

July 23, Tuesday

A delightful morning. Busy this forenoon getting things to gether [sic] for needy family.

July 24, Wednesday

{Blank}

July 25, Thursday

This is Normans birth day. I took Mrs. Finch out and spent day at North Oaks. The children had a happy day. I gave G. Norman a fishing rod and reel which delighted him. Papa received a letter to day from Mr. R. B. Angus telling him of the death of Edith – Mrs. Wanklyn.

July 26, Friday

Mr. Blythe and Mr. George Harris are our guests for a few days they with Papa spent the afternoon at North Oaks. I am busy there days trying to find fruit to put up. Put away blue berries to day.

July 27, Saturday

A cloudy morning. George and Charlotte came in and went directly back to North Oaks this morning. Preserving rasberries [sic] this morning. Wrote to Mr. Angus.

September 16, Monday

Papa, Jim. and Clara arrived from New York last night all well. Jim. weighing 155 lbs. and looking more like his old self than for a long while. This is Papas 69th. birthday. The family here dined with us this evening all but Walter he is off hunting with Mr. Barrows.

September 17, Tuesday

Weather the last week and at present far from pleasant. Threatening, windy and cloudy - heavy rains too. My throat troubles me - and I have not been well for a couple days.

September 18, Wednesday

Went to bed early last night but got little sleep. Throat troubled me and stormy weather kept me awake. Stayed in bed all this forenoon. Odd Fellows paraded past here to day large numbers. Telegram from Mamie. Jim went West this evening. Joe. Sikorski married to day.

September 19, Thursday

In bed all to day weather fierce. Such wind as one seldom hears and continues day and night with electric shows each night. It is Equinoxial [sic] storms with a vengeance [sic].

September 20, Friday

Quite a cold day, wind has subsided considerably and sun shines with such a clear blue sky as only follows a storm. Got up at noon to day feel better. Mr. Hutchinson dined with us this evening.

September 21, Saturday

A beautiful bright morning. Went out at eleven for a drive but could not go far on account [sic] of West wind. Clara and Rachel went cruising in the Auto - landed at South St. Paul and did not seem pleased with it. Cold to night.

September 22, Sunday

Quite cold cloudy and again threatening. I am quite interested and entertained by the 'Magnetic North' a book written by Elizabeth Robins. A telegram came from New York to day to Papa asking him to be a pall bearer at Mr. D. Willis James funeral Tuesday. He was sorry to have to decline.

September 23, Monday

Walter went East this evening to visit Ruth and Gertrude. Papa went to Chicago for the short space of tomorrow. He will be tired of two nights on cars.

Cold enough to wear furs. We stopped for Father McNulty and drove out in direction of Lake Josephine and New Brighton.

September 27, Friday

Cold and became cloudy this afternoon. We went out to North Oaks via of New Brighton found a fine Road. Indeed as we drove around in the Auto we are surprised at the number of good Roads about here.

September 28, Saturday

This has been a cold week. To day is bright. Charlotte, Clara, Rachel and I went over to Stillwater on the Auto. This forenoon took luncheon there called on Mrs. Connelly drove about some and returned via Lake Elmo. We all enjoyed the day.

September 29, Sunday

A beautiful morning. Papa went West to meet Jim. this evening. Louis went with him. Papa and Mr. Gruber went to North Oaks this morning.

September 30, Monday

A bright rather cool day. After luncheon Charlotte, Clara, Rachel and I went for an Auto ride. To Rosemount, on to Rich Valley. To Inver Grove, to St. Paul Park, to Newport and to Highwood and in to St. Paul. Found a fine Road in High-wood.

October 1, Tuesday

A dark day, rained nearly all day, not so cold yet we started a fire in the furnace to day. The house seems so dark and chilly. Rachel busy to day trying to make jelly of poor plums, and unripe grapes – a difficult performance.

October 2, Wednesday

Walter and Ruth arrived from New York to day. Papa. Louis and Jim. returned from the Range this morning and Jim. left for New York this evening.

October 3, Thursday

Mike and Gertrude arrived from New York to night.

October 4, Friday

Maud and the children arrived in to town to day. Sorry to come I am sure. We are now having such fine afternoon weather. I spent to day on Mr. A. Guthries River Boat the Kabekona, we went about as far down as Hastings about fifty ladies at Mrs. Guthries invitation an ideal trip it was.

October 5, Saturday

The girls and I had a fine drive to day in the Auto out to Phalen Park, White Bear Lake, the Island. The foliage on the Island is in describably [sic] and gorgeously beautiful. On the way over to the Rice St. Road we saw the most glorious sunset imaginable. I went to see Monsignor Oster at St. Josephs Hospital to day, he is very ill.

October 6, Sunday

Such a delightful morning one seldom experiences. After mass I went to inquire for Monsignor Oster found him slightly more comfortable. We went out to North Oaks and returned for luncheon. Mr. Geo. Harris is staying with us.

October 7, Monday

Maud was operated on this morning at Rochester, Minn. by Dr. Mayo for gall stones and appendicitis - Successfully we are told.

October 8, Tuesday

I feel very busy and am doing little this week – so many interruptions occur. Life is not peaceful plan as one may. Good reports from Maud to day. Ottina Nigard operated on at St. Lukes Hospital to day. Monsignor Oster some better.

October 9, Wednesday

Charlotte gave a Tea to day for Gertrude and Ruth. We all attended. George came home last night from New York.

October 10, Thursday

I hear to day that Walter and Dorothy Barrows became engaged last evening. They seem very young even for their few years. Mike left us this evening for Memphis. Gertrude follows in a few days.

October 11, Friday

Warmer but changable [sic]. Charlotte and the girls went to call on Mrs. Barrows this evening. Two young English men dined with us this evening – A Mr. Wood and a Mr. Edgerton.

October 12, Saturday

I went to call on Mrs. Barrows this forenoon and Dorothy came back with me to luncheon. Later Walter gave her the engagement ring. They are happy children. May they always have reason to be happy.

October 13, Sunday

A fine day. Walter and Dorothy came in this forenoon to see Papa. Louis went back to Rochester this morning. I had a message from him to day telling me Maud is doing very well. Ruth left us this evening, on her way back to New York.

October 14, Monday

A delightful morning. Find Monsignor Oster much better to day. Ottina too looks improved. Katherine Abbott came over this morning to spend a few days.

October 15, Tuesday

We went with Mr. Joy in an 1908 Packard car to Fort Snelling - Katherine, Clara and I. It did run nicely. Gertrude went East this evening. Every seems interested and pleased with Walters engagement to Dorothy Barrows.

October 16, Wednesday

We went to the farm at North Oaks this forenoon. Katherine Rachel and I took luncheon there, Charlotte and the children were there. We came home in time to dress and go to Miss Jessie Greens coming out tea. Louis came up from Rochester to day, Maud is doing well.

October 17, Thursday

A perfect morning and so warm. Went to Louise Carys wedding reception in the afternoon and in the evening to Mrs. Schultze coming out party for her two daughters. Found Ottina much improved to day.

October 18, Friday

Cooler but delightful to day. Went to see Monsignor Oster this morning, found him sitting up and much better.

October 19, Saturday

This morning Lord and Lady Hindlip of Hindlip Hall Worcester [sic] {Worcestershire} England arrived to stay two days. We took them out to North Oaks this afternoon and returned too late to go to Mrs. Lindekes to greet Mr. and Mrs. F. Weyerhauser and congratulate them on their 50th anniversary.

October 20, Sunday

A fine day. Mr. Joy brought up his Packard (1908) after luncheon. The girls, Charlotte Lord and Lady Hindlip went with him through Fort Snelling to Minneapolis and around the Boulevards. Papa left with them at 5 p.m. for the Range.

October 21, Monday

This beautiful weather tempts us out and we spend most of the day in the Auto. We have been down to Cottage Grove though to me new Country all well cultivated very prosperous looking we passed Mrs. Severences place this afternoon.

October 22, Tuesday

Girls went for a long ride I remained at home this being Tuesday. Perfect day.

October, 23, Wednesday

The coming out of so many young ladies this week interferes with our outdoor plans. To day Charlotte Hardenbugh made her bow to 'Society' amidst a profusion of sweet blossoms. The Stock Exchanges are not enjoying Tea these days. I hope financial matters may soon seem more settled.

October 24, Thursday

This afternoon Catherine Abbott went with us out to Blooming Prairie. We went out via Mendota and on to Blooming Prairie and back via Fort Snelling. A beautiful ride. Later we went over to Mrs. Geo. R. Finchs to the coming out of the Misses Mathews.

October 25, Friday

Colder, but delightful. We had an early luncheon and then went over to West St. Paul and out the German Road to Rich Valley and home via Rosemont. A pleasant lovely ride. Then I went to Mrs. J. H. Sanders to assist at the coming out of Helen Sanders.

October 26, Saturday

Colder – cloudy and very dusty. Charlotte is laid up with a cold to day. Norman and Georgiana are better. Walter came back from the Range this morning. Papa leaves for New York this evening. As this is a time of great financial depression he will not have a pleasant time there.

November 9, Saturday

This week has been pretty well taken up with attending the Art Loan Exhibit at the Auditorium. It has been a great success. The book exhibit was remarkable – indeed all the exhibits were. The old Red River cart was as interesting as any thing. The first copy of the first paper published in St. Paul 'The Pioneer' April 28th. 1849 interested me.

November 10, Sunday

Quite a cold morning. The first few flakes of snow fell yesterday. I am reading Coopers 'Chainbraves' and find it of much interest. Wrote to Mamie and to Ruth also to Mary.

November 11, Monday

Quite a cold day. In the afternoon I went out to North Oaks to attend to some things. Mrs. McQuillan went with me.

November 12, Tuesday

22 above this morning – but bright. Busy seeing to sending jellies East and going to the Dentist.

November 13–16

November 20, Wednesday

Went out to Town and Country Club this afternoon to Mrs. Chas. A. F. Morris tea and a lecture given by Mrs. Porter on Queen Elizabeth.

November 21, Thursday

Rather a busy day girls getting ready to leave for New York this evening. Mr. and Mrs. Holms of Boston spent the evening with us on their way East having been out at Seattle. Walter and Dorothy went to the station with the girls to see them off.

November 22, Friday

I am nearly alone to day. Papa arrived back from Kansas City this morning. I took luncheon at Mrs. Walter Lanborns to meet Mrs. [VanSants?] {In Louis' handwriting on facing page: or Van Sants wife Northern security Case} and ten other ladies. The day has been ideal like a fine October day. {illegible notations on side and bottom by Louis regarding sending apples as thank you and Van Sants wife Northern Securities case?}

November 25, Monday

St. Paul. Left for New York with Papa this evening after a busy day.

November 26, Tuesday

Chicago. Found Mrs. Geo. B. Harris lives here at the Auditorium where I am putting in time until 3:45 p.m. when we leave on the Penn R.R. We arrived here on time this a.m. A perfect day. Took luncheon with Mrs. Harris.

November 27, Wednesday

New York. Arrived here on time this morning, a beautiful day find that Ruth is ill in her room and has been a week of a head trouble from cold. Her new house is certainly fine. We are going to the opera to night although my trunk is not here yet.

November 28, Thursday

Went to see Gertrudes new home. Mike and she have a very complete fresh bright little house 117 E. 65th. St. every thing looks most comfortable and cheery.

November 29, Friday

Jim., Mike and Gertrude took dinner with us yesterday. Papa and I dined with Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Thorne this evening.

November 30, Saturday

Gertrude has gone to a little sanitarium for some treatment so we spend most of our time between her and Ruths.

December 1, Sunday

New York. We see in paper that Dr. Schrady is dead near here at 512 5th. Ave.

December 2, Monday

December 22, Sunday

Papa and I returned home to night at ten oclock coming directly from New York, we left there at 3 p.m. yesterday. We left Rachel ill of grip. Clara stayed with her. I am glad to be home although weary and not strong.

December 23, Monday

Was too fatigued to sleep last night managed to get the tree trimmed this afternoon. Maud does not look well.

December 24, Tuesday

St. Paul. We had our tree this evening as usual and the little ones had supper here. Papa and I are alone for the evening so we went over to Louis for a short time.

December 25, Wednesday

A most perfect day. Snow enough fell yesterday to cover all defects and to day while colder is glorious. I went to St. Marys to high Mass, Charlotte went with me; Louis and Little Louis attended also. We shall take luncheon at Louis and all Dorothy included will dine with us this evening.

December 26, Thursday

I feel better each day stronger and my head troubles me less. Maud is in her room to day. Jerome is not well. Charlotte has her tree to day. I called on Mrs. Eaton and Mrs. Gotzian on my way to Charlottes.

December 27, Friday

Some colder, yet pleasant. After leaving Papa down town I went out to the Good Shepherd Sisters. Charlotte took luncheon with me. As Maudie was ill on Christmas eve I had her and all the children come over we lit the tree then dismantled it and the children bade it good bye.
