

Burke, Thomas

October 1, [1898]

Telegram. Burke to James J. Hill.

Has received an authoritative report that the Americans who are negotiating the American boundary matter in Quebec are about to concede an Alaska boundary line placing Skagway and Dyea on British soil. Asks Hill to do everything in his power to prevent such "an unwarranted and disastrous concession."

General correspondence by date