Work in organization of local clubs.

Mrs. Concheta Lutz has recently organized several new suffrage clubs. One in Redwood Falls, one in Pine City and Duluth. She finds the press almost universally in favor of the movement, and the thinking people glad of its progress.

The Editor of the Duluth News Tribune Mr. Burnell, assured her that the battle was practically won in Minnesota.

Abigail Scott Duniway of Portland, Oregon, who for fifteen years was Editor of "The New Northwest" was to the west what Miss Susan B. Anthony was to the east. She laid the foundation for women suffrage in all those western states where she is considered to be the best known and the best loved woman of the Pacific Northwest.

Ella Knowles Haskel, who for years was State Sup't. of Education was a noted lawyer of Helena, Montana, was appointed assistant Attorney General by the man who defeated her in the election, but whose admiration for her crystallized into love, and soon after the election married her and appointed her his assistant.

Miss Estelle Reel of Cheyenne, Wyoming, was for years State Sup't. of schools and was appointed by President McKinley to the very important position of School Land Commissioner, a very responsible position which included the oversight of Indian Reservations.

CONFERENCES AND CONVENTIONS HELD IN 1916.

The Mississippi Valley Conference convened in Minneapolis May 7, 8, 9 and 10. At this notable gathering, representatives were present from twenty-six states, while the speakers were not only from all parts of the United States, but from Canada. The program throughout was practical, instructive and inspiring and was graced by such brilliant speakers as the National President, Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, Mrs. Nellie McClung of Alberta, Canada, Mrs. Harriet Taylor Upton, Mrs. Ella S. Stewart, Mrs. Catharine Waugh McCulloch, Anne Martin, Marion Drake and Dr. Effie McCullom Jones.

The Annual State Convention.

The Annual Meeting of the State Association was held at the Radisson Hotel, Minneapolis, Monday and Tuesday, Dec. 4 and 5. There were two hundred delegates present and many interested, active suffragists attended each session.

The results of the election may be noted on pages one and two of this booklet.

The chief speakers at the great meeting at the First Baptist Church on the opening night were Mrs. Nellie McClung of Alberta and Hon. W. I. Norton of Minneapolis. A most successful luncheon was given on the second day, when Mrs. McClung and Mrs. Charles G. Arms of Boston spoke. At the close, Mrs. H. G. Harrison took charge of the pledge raising, securing $8,300 for the year's work.

Quarterly Conferences.

Two interesting and successful conferences have been held outside the Twin Cities. The first was held at Albert Lea January 27 and 28. Besides all day business sessions there was a mass meeting held in the Library and presided over by Senator C. L. Swenson; this meeting was addressed by Senator J. W. Andrews of Mankato, Mrs. Andreas Ueland and Mrs. Charles P. Noyes. A banquet was given in the Presbyterian Church Friday evening, Mrs. Gertrude Kingsland was toastmistress and toasts were responded to by Mr. F. A. Day, Representative Claude Southwick, Representative George P. Lattin and others.

$300 was raised for the Iowa campaign.

Pipestone Conference.

The second conference was held at Pipestone August 3 and 4. The Twin City suffragists crossed the state by automobile, were met by other suffragists in automobiles and escorted from town to town. Street meetings were held in the towns on the way, and in Shakopee, Mankato, Lake Crystal, Madelia, St. James and Windom the local suffragists had arranged meetings on the main street, on the Court House grounds or in the Town Park. In several places luncheons or dinners had been planned.

In Pipestone the conference was opened by a very large meeting on the Court House grounds with Mr. F. M. Payne, Mayor W. C. Briggs and Senator O. A. Lende among the speakers. At the banquet held Friday evening in the K. C. Hall, Mrs. Hayden R. Upton was toastmistress.
