SUMMER ACTIVITIES

The success of an organizer depends largely upon her adaptability, her understanding of those with whom she must work, her patience and perseverance. She should have before her always the vision of what her work means and allow no amount of indifference and apathy to discourage her, remembering that these are always the bitterest foes of progress.

To be given by organizers to D. Assoc.

PLAN OF WORK FOR SUFFRAGE DISTRICT ASSOCIATION

REMEMBER that the object of all suffrage organization is to create favorable sentiment for woman suffrage to the end that our legislature may pass suffrage legislation and that we may ultimately win in a suffrage campaign. Let every activity of your association look toward this.

HOLD QUARTERLY MEETINGS FOR THE DISTRICT. 1) Prepare interesting programs and see that they are thoroughly advertised. (See "How to Advertise a Meeting".) 2) Study your constitution and live up to its provision. 3) Have your executive committee meet frequently to discuss work and make reports. ~~KNOW~~

Committees can be created as the organization grows and the president finds that she needs them.

DUTIES OF COMMITTEES

ORGANIZATION

It shall be the duty of this Committee to organize ~~xxxxxxx~~ a section of the district association in every township in the district; where it is found impossible to form a section secure a chairman to do the necessary work.

EACH TOWNSHIP SECTION should be a small edition of the district association, having its own officers, and taking care of the township in the same way that the district association takes care of the district. The chairman of organization should supply every township chairman with a list of the voters in her township and urge that she have a each family interviewed as to its standing on woman suffrage, carefully listing the names not only of those who are favorable but of those who are indifferent or opposed and their reason for so being. This report should be turned over to the literature committee in order that suitable literature may be supplied them. A county polling list can be secured from the court house.

Each Township section should hold a meeting at least once a month. They should not be affiliated with any other organization because they must appeal equally to every class and creed. The organization chairman should ask for reports from the township chairman at least once a month.

EXTENSION

It shall be the duty of this Committee to push suffrage propaganda wherever it is possible. Know how all ministers stand on suffrage and get them to preach suffrage ser - mons; get speakers before churches, aid societies, women's clubs, farmers organizations or any kind of possible audience. In working for ready made audiences one gets a suffrage speech to people who from lack of interest would never come to a suffrage meeting

FARMERS' CLUBS are extremely important. We depend on the rural vote to win our campaigns.

COUNTY FAIRS. Make a special effort for a demonstration at your County Fair. Secure a booth, decorate with bunting, pennants, posters, etc., and arrange for a speaker where possible. (Decorations and speakers will be furnished from headquarters upon request.)

Work in co-operation with the Literature and Membership Committees. The Distribution of suitable literature and the taking of enrollments are the important features of all demonstrations.

Chautauquas. Secure permission for a suffrage speaker at your chautauqua. If that is impossible, at least use your influence to see that someone already on the program makes a plea for suffrage. Suffrage buttons and pennants ought to be much in evidence on such occasions and literature freely distributed.

Automobile trips There is no better way to extend suffrage work than by automobile trips through your county. Get as many suffragists as possible to furnish their automobiles, decorate them, and take with you a speaker and several helpers who will distribute literature, take enrollments, take the collection, etc. Advertise that you will be in certain towns at certain hours of a given day, and when you arrive hold street meetings. You should be able to cover four towns at least, in a day. This is most profitable because the machines passing through the county create an interest in suffrage where none has been felt before. It is also pleasant and ought to be easy of accomplishment.

LITERATURE COMMITTEE

The Chairman of the Literature Committee must work in close co-operation with the chairman of Organization, and Extension Committees, in order that she may know the kinds of literature that they find desirable for use in their work. She must see that the supply is on hand for their use, must know how much is distributed and arrange for distribution at all public demonstrations, meetings, etc. It is important that every one shall have as much literature as is necessary of the right kind and that no supplies shall be wasted.

MEMBERSHIP COMMITTEE

It shall be the duty of this important committee to devise ways of increasing membership, circulating enrollment blanks at all public meetings, places of public demonstration, arranging house to house canvasses, etc. Its reports must consist of a comparison of numbers each month in order that the increase in membership may be noted.

FINANCE COMMITTEE

FINANCE COMMITTEE

As nothing worth doing can be accomplished without money, this is perhaps the most vital and important of any committee. The duty of this committee is to devise ways or means for financing suffrage work for the district association. The chairman should understand the plan which has been worked out by the state suffrage association and should know what the apportionment of her district is. She should be conscientious and earnest in her determination to raise that amount and to send the district's full share to the state treasury. A systematic plan of giving should be worked out--each member should be reminded that the association is not dues paying and ~~ea~~ should be asked for a voluntary contribution. This is perhaps, when systematically carried out, the very best plan for raising money. There are, however, other methods which have not only the value of getting funds, but also promote propaganda. Subscriptions to the Woman's Journal should be taken and sent in to State Headquarters. On each subscription at $1.00 a year, your association will receive 30%. Suggestions for money raising have been compiled and will be supplied the chairman of the Finance Committee.

PRESS COMMITTEE:

It should be the duty of the Press Chairman to find out how each editor in her district stands on suffrage. This may be done by sending out post-cards, asking for an expression of sentiment by a personal interview or in any way that suggests itself. If he opposes suffrage, know why, and see that suitable literature is sent to him.

Get suffrage propaganda stories into the papers whenever it is possible. Get notices of every bit of suffrage news into all the papers. Send clippings from the district papers to Mrs. Walter Thorp, state press chairman, 403 Essex Bldg. Minneapolis, for filing.

The Press work is one of the most important things that is done by suffragists as through the newspapers we speak to our largest audiences, and it is the newspapers which create ~~suffragexsentimentx~~ public sentiment. Take news from the Woman's Journal and get it inserted in the district papers. Never miss sending a good story to the papers, no matter how often they fail to use them. One never knows when something may be printed.

It may prove desirable to have other committees as the work grows, but from ~~your~~ new organization the above are all that are essential. Each committee should work with all the others, and the township sections should be as closely in touch with the district association as they can be made. Remember that numbers are what count when we attempt to bring pressure upon our legislature, or when a suffrage bill is voted upon at the polls, and so work to enlarge your membership. A big enrollment is the best answer to the argument that women do not want to vote,

Addition to EXTENSION COMMITTEE

Do not neglect your "Home-Coming" Days and "Harvest Picnics". Have a suffrage speech at every one if possible. They are next in importance to your County Fair.

Notice should also be sent Section Chairmen of meetings of the Executive Committee.

HOW TO ADVERTISE A MEETING

1. Secure non-partisan place such as court house or hall to which people are in the habit of going.
2. Decorate with suffrage banners, slogans, etc.
3. Get most prominent man in town to introduce the speaker, generally the mayor.
4. Get two or three popular and prominent men to make five minute speeches on "Why I Am A Suffragist."
5. Have as many influential people sit on platform with the speakers as possible; it gives prestige to the meeting.
6. Have several attractive girls act as ushers wearing suffrage ribbon badges.
7. Use your newspapers, have long interesting stories about the speaker with her picture. Announce the local people who are to speak or who have any part in the meeting.
8. Get the best music obtainable, the local band or orchestra when there is one, or the High School Glee Club, or any good local talent.
9. Get the picture shows to run slides announcing the meeting.
10. Put in country calls on the long distance telephone.
11. Do endless chain telephoning to people in town.
12. Paint the announcement on side-walks (Get powdered chalk and wet it with water and use small brush; very easily done.)
13. Get the ministers to announce the meeting in church and to say a word for the cause of suffrage at the same time.
14. Have announcements made at all club meetings, aid societies, or any other kind of gathering and urge people to attend.
15. Put up posters of meeting in windows all over business part of town.
16. Distribute hand bills liberally.
17. Do much personal work, talk to your friends and praise your speaker, tell all the good things you know about her.
18. Decorated autos driven about town with an announcement on them make good publicity; one auto carrying a megaphone will do wonders.
19. Meet your speaker at the train to make her arrival as much of an event as possible (and incidentally it helps her wonderfully). This will create interest in her personality and will help the meeting.
20. Have announcement made in schools when possible; the teachers will often write it on the board and have pupils copy it to take home to parents.
21. These things will assure a good attendance at meetings and will help your suffrage work more than you imagine.

SUGGESTIONS FOR SUFFRAGE WORK

1. Secure polling list and be prepared to address envelopes for circularizing. We will circularize the state in February and March and will need your help
2. Canvass voters on polling list to see how each one stands on suffrage.
3. Borrow a window or space in one, and decorate it. Put in big suffrage map, suffrage slogans, or pieces of suffrage literature so that passers-by can read it; change decorations often.
4. Use the paper pennants in every window possible, business and residence.
5. Use your newspapers. Have as many good suffrage stories as possible.
6. Get the ministers to preach suffrage sermons.
7. Have an evening at the picture show; this is excellent both as a money maker and for propaganda. Managers will secure films. "Your Girl and Mine" or "The Ruling Power." are best. Suffragists usually decorate the theatre - advertise the evening - ~~xxx~~ sell tickets and have a share of the profits. There is also usually time given for a short speech.
8. Keep your railroad station supplied with literature.
9. Have an auto trip thru the country if possible. Decorate machines, stop at every house, have literature, get signatures of all if they will sign enrollment slips, find out man's position on question of suffrage.
10. Appoint finance committee of which the treasurer is a part to consider ways and means of raising money. This is most important not only because we need money for the work but because it makes men especially realize we are in earnest. A canvass for money from every one who believes in suffrage is urged. Suffrage teas, cooked food sales etc., are all good methods to use. We must do everything we can to help in even a small way, to raise the million dollar fund.
11. Try to see that a meeting is held and at least a small group of women is working in every town in your county or district.
12. Committees should be appointed for this work. No one person can even approximate doing it all---and besides, the more people who are working, the more general will the interest be.

Plan of Organizing the Minnesota Woman Suffrage Association by Legislative Districts

PROGRAM OF WORK.

1st STEP.—The appointment of an Organizer or an Organizing Committee for each Legislative District. These appointments may be made from the existing suffrage clubs and need not be of residents of the district.

2nd STEP.—The provision of a large amount of "Rainbow Literature," and of enrollment blanks. The money for this purpose may be supplied by the State Association or existing clubs.

3rd STEP.—The calling by each Organizer, or the Organizing Committee of a local convention in the District which she is organizing composed of all the known suffragists, both men and women, who reside in her District. For this purpose, the boundary lines of the District must be studied and all names set into the proper District according to residence. Do not hesitate to call the convention even if not more than a few persons are known to be suffragists. The object is only to make a start. At this convention a District Leader must be chosen who must reside in the District and who will be known as the Leader for the District. Also, an attempt must be made to secure as many persons as possible who will act as Chairmen of the Election Precincts, serving under the Leader.

4th STEP.—As soon as possible, the District Leader should call her chairmen together to consult as to the best way in which to proceed to cover the work in hand. This is to enroll every man and woman in the District as a member of the association by signing of an enrollment blank. She should tell them the exact boundaries of their Precincts, give them a full supply of "Rainbow Literature," enrollment blanks, and if possible, lists of names of residents, voters' lists, church lists, etc., to aid them in their work. She should fill them with enthusiasm, suggesting various methods of getting the registration, such as house-to-house canvass, small parlor meetings, big public assemblages, sociables, suffrage teas, dissemination of literature by hand or by mail, persuasive argument, outdoor speaking, debates, automobile trips, etc. Upon the enthusiasm of the Leader and the diligent work of the Chairman depends everything.

5th STEP.—The District Leader may form a District Club, with dues, composed of all those who are willing to pay dues and direct the activities of the District work. The Leader may or may not be the President. The Chairmen may well belong to this Club, as well as anyone who is desirous of taking a more active part than that of an enrolled member merely. The financial burden of the work must be solved by the Club, and it should be the center of activity for the District. There should be a Secretary and Treasurer, officers to be elected annually. Clubs joining the State Association pay dues at the rate of ten cents each member. The Club should meet at least once a month.

6th STEP.—The extension of this plan over the entire State, conventions of Leaders being called to elect a County Committee (if there is more than one District in the County) and a State Committee. These conventions are to be called once a year, with duly elected delegates; and the procedure should follow as closely as possible the political organizations of the men.

7th STEP.—Put the full force of your membership behind your Representative in the Legislature, and compel him to favor the Woman Suffrage Bill. Do the same thing in regard to your Senator.

Remarks.—In those districts in which there are no organizations one woman may volunteer as a Precinct Chairman, or a group of women may form themselves into a volunteer band of organizers, and follow the same general line of procedure. Maps showing boundaries of Districts and Precincts may usually be secured from the headquarters of the political parties. Each Election Precinct Chairman should keep a copy of the signatures she gets, but should send the enrollments themselves to her Leader. As soon as possible a County Headquarters should be established, and full lists of the enrolled membership kept there.

ENROLLMENT BLANK.

I, _____ of _____ Street _____
City, believing that women as well as men should vote, hereby join the MINNESOTA WOMAN SUFFRAGE ASSOCIATION, on a non-dues paying basis and with the understanding that it is non-partisan in character.

Legislative District _____

PLAN FOR CITY ORGANIZING

Must give
In planning to organize a city for Suffrage, ~~one~~ ~~must bear in mind that one must work almost entirely with~~ untrained, volunteer workers, most of whom have home and other duties. This necessitates subdividing the work until it will not be a hardship upon anyone. At the same time, it should be made so thorough and democratic that everyone will have a part in it.

Bear in mind that the best results are gotten by definite attention to detail; give definite instructions as to what is expected from those who promise to work; then supply them with unlimited impetus from the central office; engender enthusiasm by continual demand for service and repeated expressions of appreciation.

Because a legislative district is the political unit from which a state senator and representatives are elected, a legislative district suffrage association can be logically used to influence the votes of senators and representatives in the legislature, therefore the legislative district has been adopted as the unit for suffrage organization. (The size of a legislative district is based upon population. In Minnesota a senator cannot represent less than 5,000 inhabitants; a representative not less than 2,000. There are, therefore, usually several legislative districts in cities, while in rural communities a legislative district often takes in the whole county and sometimes several counties. In Minneapolis there are nine legislative districts, in St. Paul there are six.)

Using the legislative district as a unit of organization :-

Appoint or elect district leaders. ~~As a basis upon~~ ~~which to work, supply each leader with a list of all enrolled~~ suffragists who live in her district; a list of those who have signed "I believe" cards, and of those women who voted at the last school election; a list of women's clubs and churches in her district; a map of her district showing wards and precincts, and any other information available concerning local conditions. Tell her that an average of one half day (four hours) each week, conscientiously devoted to work in her district will be enough to organize it in a few months.

A district leader's duties ~~would naturally be~~ to
(1) divide her district into wards, find a chairman for each ward and have the ward chairman work with the precincts, but since a large majority of the districts comprise only one ward, it would be as well to drop the ward division and have the district leader work directly with the precinct.

The precinct is the voting unit.

With the leader's equipment for work, send her instructions as follows:-

INSTRUCTIONS

Give a definite amount of time each week to your district work. Think of your district as a collection of precincts. Begin work in the one nearest your home by calling upon any suffragist whom you feel has the qualifications of a precinct chairman. When you have found one who will accept the office, appoint her and at once telephone her name to the headquarters that she may be officially notified of her appointment.

Furnish her promptly with the same equipment for her precinct that you have received for your district, namely :-

1 A map of her precinct, 2 her lists, 3 etc., with definite instructions as to methods of work. Make your instructions clear and definite, remember how hard it would have been for you to have gone to work without directions. Be sure also to show interest in and appreciation of her efforts. Tell her to divide her precinct into at least ten sections, finding a chairman for each section, and instructing her chairmen ~~to do the same work~~ as to her duties. Continue until every precinct has a chairman. It will then be your province to see that the precinct chairman organize their sections as you have done the precincts.

Have monthly meetings of all officers in your district and insist upon definite reports. Tell them that you must report at your Board Meeting and must make your report from theirs. Insist that they find section chairmen so that their work is divided. Remember that no one can do everything and do it well. Two hours a week of earnest work from a precinct chairmen should organize a precinct easily within a few months.

Keep in touch with the headquarters constantly. Above all remember that district work is the most fundamental work attempted by suffragists, therefore the most honorable. To organize a district is definitely to advance the coming of woman suffrage because it is building up a machine for efficient service, and will be of value to women not only in obtaining the vote but as a civic organization afterwards.

Do not be discouraged by apathy or indifference or even active opposition. Nothing worth doing is done without persistent effort. Call upon the organization committee at the headquarters at all times for help and suggestions.

(These instructions can either be printed or multigraphed for distribution)

SECTION CHAIRMEN

The duties of a section chairman are to know how every individual in her section stands on the suffrage question; 2 To distribute literature that would meet their needs of the particular objections that she hears expressed. ⁽³⁾ To arrange for meetings when possible, or to get a speaker before any group of people; ⁽⁴⁾ to increase the enrollment in her section, and ⁽⁵⁾ to notify her precinct chairmen of changes in the addresses of members, as it is the duty of the precinct chairman to do these same things in her precinct.

The Organizer should see that the district leader does not neglect to furnish her precinct chairmen with the necessary equipment. In addition to this it is a good thing to send an official appointment card to her with a letter of welcome from the headquarters. The same method should be followed by the section chairman.

It is well to keep a chart at headquarters for each district showing the name of the leader, and the names, addresses and telephone numbers of all precinct and section chairmen. This inspires competition as anyone can see at a glance how nearly complete is the organization in any district and it is easy to make comparison.

The organizer should spend much time and thought in devising methods of keeping in touch with every worker in the field. Monthly letters should be sent out asking for reports and giving inspiration and encouragement. A list of newly enrolled members should be sent monthly to every district leader, who in turn should pass each precinct chairman hers, with the request that these new members be called upon or communicated with by telephone, made welcome and asked what they would like to do for suffrage. Also a certificate of membership should be sent to each new member from headquarters.

The organizer should hold quarterly conferences of district officers and establish a training class for precinct workers. A training class for speakers creates much interest, is a means of education and a great help, when the precincts begin to hold monthly meetings, as the demand for speakers will then increase greatly. It is necessary to plan many kinds of work, a kind to fit every sort of taste and ability because every suffragist should be kept aware ~~of~~ ^{that} ~~their~~ that there is plenty for everyone to do.

Organization work is difficult at best, and in a big city where often the population of a district is largely ~~foreign~~ foreign, it is so discouraging as many times to seem hopeless. To overcome this, the organization committee should make a strenuous effort to establish a close relationship between all workers and the headquarters. The workers should be made to feel that there they can always find help and encouragement and that their difficulties are understood and their services appreciated. No information of any sort which might help a field worker should come into headquarters without being immediately passed on to her. These things and asking for a definite amount of time and definite accomplishment are sure to bring success.

By these methods amplified as the work progresses, suffragists can build up a wonderful machine to be used not only to acquire the ballot, but for all civic work thereafter, and for the development of those characteristics which make for the finest type of womanhood.

Place - Palace Theatre

Presiding - Rev. Hitchcock

Entertainment by Mrs. D.S. Cummings

Mail window cards and literature to Mrs.
D.S. Cummings

Music by Community Chorus

This is the only way we could work her in at Waseca to advantage. They want her bad enough to pay her fare back from wherever she speaks Saturday evening, and return. I just called up Mrs. Andrews at Mankato and they will take her one evening, so will have her there either Friday or Saturday. I'll let them have their choice and the other night left over I'll have her speak at Lake Crystal. That is right close and she can make train connections very nicely. Then the Redwood Falls meeting will come on Monday the 14th instead of the 12th, and all other meetings will be a day later, until I can arrange to have her catch up by speaking on Sunday somewhere. Just as soon as you get those window cards and stencils, please send me a good supply as I can carry them in my bag now after I left those things at headquarters. I am enclosing my schedule for this week.

As Friday will be a pretty strenuous day, with three speeches, and there is nowhere I can send her Saturday evening where she won't have to stay up almost all of Saturday night in order to get to Waseca for Sunday's meeting, I am letting her have one night off. It is the only way I can arrange it without having her lose almost a whole night's sleep. I will plan better when I get up where I am well acquainted.

Cummings at Waseca when she will arrive as Mrs. Cummings is to entertain Dr. Jones. Dr. Jones can wire her. The last train out of Waseca to connect with the Redwood Falls train on Monday leaves Waseca at 11:30 A.M.

Letting Dr. Jones rest on Saturday night gives me a few more days in advance of her. I simply did not have time to hunt a place for her. I have letters of introduction to prominent Granite Falls people from people here so I expect to fare rather well there. I leave at 7:30 A.M. tomorrow for Granite Falls. It's now 11:45 P.M. the ladies have just left after planning Monday's meeting. Good night.

going to bait people to come for an organizing performance of some kind.

Jones has any luck here at all I will be very much surprised.

The check received for which I am very thankful. But there won't be anything to squander for candy, etc., as meals are 65 and 75 cents where they used to be only 50cents, almost everywhere. It's fierce
I have not used up all of the first $50.00 but when time is so valuable I do not want to risk being short and having to wait for a check to reach me. I also noted that ym they do not want Dr. Jones until the 1st of June at Alexandria. That suits me fine as I can't work her in this month. She is needed so much more at other places where I am taki ing her.

N.B.DR. Jones can talk on suffrage at ST.
Cloud. I made arrangements accordingly. Be sure to tell her.

Dear Mrs Meland:

[1917]

Mrs Forestal told me that one always has a dissatisfied feeling concerning organizing work, and I certainly have tonight so far as results are concerned, tho I feel that I have worked like a Trojan and perhaps have done as much as any one could. This county is in the middle ages so far as suffrage is concerned. German Catholic. Miss J. Lapham was fine and gave me many names, but is doing actual farm work every day, and is harvesting now, and wouldn't undertake as much as I hoped she would. At Etzgen & Birmingham the women decided they were suffragists after talking to me (!) so we can't expect much of a petition, but I think the giving out of literature will be good. Miss Bunge is a fine woman. That really was the best I could do there. Caledonia is horribly benighted too.

but I really got three fine women to working. I talked to the women at a Presbyterian Aid, and not a person would offer to help. Mrs. Zehlebeck is first going to circulate the town & then ^{send her plenty of literature} ~~circulate~~. She is a fine woman, mother of the nicest girls in town.

I went to see Sen. Dufferin, but he was out of town. I mentioned to the office girl that Hopp was for us. Everybody says the election will be close and lots of people say Hopp will get it.

I will finish this county tomorrow morning making $1\frac{1}{2}$ days here.

I want to do a good bit of work in Fillmore, so I do not believe I will get to Spring Valley before Saturday.
Probably I will get into Morro Co for part of Saturday - There was no place to write, so am using pencil. My morale is good for the bed & food is good and I have met some pleasant people. ^{5 family} Met H. Guise.

The oldest and most conservative locality of Minn. — The Forty-third Legislative District comprising Washington County — has been successfully organized for suffrage.

When, in January, Mrs. Rebecca Stevens came from Syracuse, N.Y. to take up organization work in the Minnesota field she was sent to Stillwater, metropolis of the 43rd Dist., with the advice that it was probably the most difficult spot in the state being the home of Senator Sullivan (opposed) who asserted upon the floor of the senate a year ago that there was no sentiment for woman suffrage in his district. It would seem that the Senator's statement was exaggerated. At any rate, Mrs. Stevens found the receptive minds of Stillwater and Washington Co. a fertile soil for the growing of suffrage sentiment. She was hospitably received by the women's Days not mentioned in report above, were taken up with house to house canvassing, doing the advertising necessary for meetings--such as giving out hand bills, mailing out cards, etc.--taking care of all organization correspondence, securing subscriptions to Woman's Journal.

13 subscriptions to Journal have been sent in by Mrs. Stevens during her work in Minnesota; 9 of these are from Washington Co. and 4 from Albert Lea taken during the conference.

At all times, organizer circulates freely at church and prayer meetings, etc.

LATER: The Woman's Journal is now sending regularly five Journals into Washington Co. applied on the credit due us from Mrs. Stevens' 13 subscriptions, which totals $3.90. Two of these go to Stillwater, one to Forest Lake, Marine Mills and Cottage Grove, each.

I took the County petition back to Mrs. Y. A. Brown, as it was not large enough, and she will do some more work on it.

Mrs. Theo. Cook will help Mrs. Brown in securing men's signatures.

Miss Judkin will secure the names of men and women teachers and other friends.

Miss Marian Crosby took petitions.

I sent petitions for the Red Cross workers to signs — to Miss Frances Boynton.

Miss Stevens may help Mrs. Brown with doctor's and nurses names.

I wrote Miss Josephine Schaller, who was out of town, and Miss Gardner will speak to her about helping Mrs. Brown.

Petitions received from Mrs. Brown. Of the names on Miss Saunders' foregoing list, only Mrs. Cook and Miss Jenkins assisted Mrs. Brown.

Notes on Red King.

The older women are quite hopeless. Mrs. Peter A. Nelson (cousin of Mrs. Lawther, Pres. of Iowa W. S. C.) who promised to work on the committee returned the material to me today and said she could not do it on account of her health. I have an unfounded suspicion that her husband, whose chief business is the malting industry, would not allow her to do it.

Mrs. Sheldon, Mrs. Edmund Brooks' friend, is visiting in Minneapolis. No one knows how she stands on suffrage.

Mrs. Carl Betcher, to whom Mrs. Hornestal wrote that I was coming, could not see me at all because of Red Cross work. She said over the telephone that all her friends were antis and she learned that way.

The only hope of reaching the right people seemed to be thru the younger college women, so I left it in their hands. Miss Johnson is very bright and popular and of the highest social standing (over)

I tried to get Mrs Stageberge by phone but she was out. I will write to her and tell her what I have done, and asked her to try especially to get ~~petition~~ resolutions passed. I am sure she will be glad to have some one else do the petition work.

[1918] 1

Went to arrange meeting for Thursday
Oct. 17th - Saw Mrs. O. M. Harr - (wife of Prof)
She has done some suffrage work there - notably, sent petition to Nelson and Kellogg, and neglected to report it to State office - a member of N.E.W.A., which organization is under a cloud on account of the President, Mrs.
Stagbarg, being in favor of Non-Partisan League. (The latter was out of town, so I did not see her, this was fortunate, as it enabled me to take suffrage work out of her hands) - I must add, Mrs Stagbarg has a certain following - Mrs Harr complained of being very busy, so I put arrangements for

The latter's husband is now Major a member of the State Legislature

The last time I saw her - she was decidedly non-committal - now she has invited you to be her guest, if you arrive in time for lunch on Thursday - Will^{you} please notify her.

Then there is Mrs Sheldon, I suppose she is the grand lady of the town - 457-7 E St. I saw her and she regretted her absence from may be home, if so - would be so pleased

I see you - she is this - Mrs. C. P. Noyes^{III}

Consequently nearly all the Suff. The N.C.T.U. has a Suff. Com. with Mrs Stagberg as Chairman, and the other women are loath to usurp her prerogative. - Prof Stagberg is a candidate for Governor on New National Party

Aitken, Sank Center, Abley, Wadis, Park Rapids.

Mrs. Atwood says that as Mr. Knutson has been interesting himself in securing an appointment for her son in the arctic corps, he has been at their home for dinner, and the families are very friendly at present. He voted for the Suffrage Committee, and says that as long as he is for Prohibition, he might as well be openly for suffrage as that would bring him no new enemies; so she will try to secure a pledge to the deputation.

Mr. Knutson is a friend of Mrs. Fuller, the editor in Morrison County, and she has persuaded him the Women's Party are justified in picketing.

Sank Rapids has a large Polish and German population, which have their own schools and do not speak English - the men work in the Great Northern Shops.

Organized Committee to work up Benton County petition
 Mrs. Joseph Coates, Chairman
 Mrs. J. P. McHowell,
 Miss Persis Linsdale
 Miss Agnes Foley (for Foley and surrounding country)

Mrs. Joseph Coates is the chairman of Benton County work - a very efficient woman who has been active in Liberty Loan, Red Cross and Food Conservation work.

Mrs. J. P. McHowell, the leading Federation woman, who is Worthy Matron of the Eastern Star Chapter will take charge of the women's petitions.

Miss Persis Linsdale, a university graduate, who is in the Sank Rapids Bank will help Mrs. Coates.

Miss Agnes Burns, county Superintendent of schools, will take charge of the petitions in Foley, the County seat. The priest, who is at the head of the County Red Cross will probably sign

[See Bertha Moller's letter of
Aug. 3, 1917] [undated]

No work on petitions had been done here. Sentiment had been injured by accounts of picketing and feeling was prevalent that women should perform war service and not work for suffrage.

Rev. E. G. McCrear agreed to speak in favor of the Federal Suffrage Amendment at the Union Thanksgiving service, and to ask the congregations to sign the petitions. Representative E. J. Orth signed the men's petition to give it a good start. Mrs. Frank Ellingworth and Mrs. Ellis circulated the petitions at the meeting.

Mrs. Frank Whitney and Mrs. Matthews will secure further signatures.

Mrs. Harding is the wife of one of the bankers and is Mrs. Smith's right hand man, and will be a great help in extracting resolutions from organizations here. She and her husband belong to about all of them.

There is another good suffragist in this town, a Mrs. Kenfield, who is not at home just now so could not see her. Mrs. Smith says she would be a very valuable member on our committee, so I am delegating the power to Mrs. Smith to appoint her in case she will serve.

Friday I went to Chisholm and found three good suffragists. The women of the town have just started Red Cross work and are deep in surgical dressings. MRS. E. I. CASEY promised to get the petition signed. She is the wife of a prominent business man and very energetic. Mrs. PALMER the librarian is also a worker. There is also a MISS NELL PETERSON who keeps a hardware store, who is a suffragist, I was told. The town was having a holiday for some reason or other and all the stores were closed so I could not find Miss Peterson. The prospects for organizing there are rather dismal but I shall try to get some one in Hibbing who knows people there to go with me for a day, and see if we can get an organization started.

BIWABIK

Extract fo
(Extract from Miss Monahan's letter.)

Saturday I spent in Biwabik, somewhat smaller than Chisholm. Here I found a Miss Grace Weitzel who knew your daughters in High School. She and q Mrs Carl Schuster said they would take care of the petitions. Mrs. C Schuster's husband is a youngblawyer. His father however owns a brewery in Rochester so he may object to his wife's suffrage activities. Mrs. Bray, doctor's wife the leading woman of the town says she believes in suffrage and will boost it among her friends, but she had been sick for a year and can do no active work. Biwabik is a town with petty quarrels and gossip and I think getting an organization there is quite hopeless. I am going to suggest to the Eveleth women at our meeting this afternoon that they invite the Biwabik women to join their association. Biwabik is always flattered by attention from Eveleth women. These towns are all very near to each other and are connected by street cars and bus lines. Virginia is the most central town so I go back and forth from here.
