

Max M. Kampelman Papers

Copyright Notice:

This material may be protected by copyright law (U.S. Code, Title 17). Researchers are liable for any infringement. For more information, visit www.mnhs.org/copyright.

CHARLES BLITZER, DIRECTOR

September 16, 1994

The Honorable Max M. Kampelman
3154 Highland Place, NW
Washington, DC 20037

Dear Max:

By now you have received an invitation to the dinner on October 11 honoring Bill Baroody. I very much hope that you and Maggie will be able to attend.

During the evening we plan to have a series of tributes to Bill from various people who have worked closely with him during his years as Chairman of the Board. Obviously you are at the top of our list, as someone who was not only Bill's predecessor and colleague, but who was also Chairman in the period between Bill and his father. Would you be willing to speak informally, perhaps in the form of a toast, for about five minutes?

Given the fact that we expect a number of new members of the Board and Council to attend, this will be a fine opportunity to imbue them with a sense of the Center's history. Of course, hearing from you would also mean a lot to Bill.

I do hope you will be able to do this. Please feel free to call me, or Moira Egan at 357-4335, if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script, appearing to read 'Charles Blitzer'.

Charles Blitzer

Dinner Honoring William J. Baroody, Jr.

October 11, 1994

Welcome

Joseph H. Flom

Charles Blitzer

Toasts

Theodore Barreaux

Gertrude Himmelfarb

Lynne Cheney

James Billington

Max Kampelman

Presentations

Charles Blitzer

Joseph H. Flom

(F)

WILLIAM J. BAROODY, JR.

October 15, 1994

Dear Mat,

Just a brief note to tell you how very much I appreciated your generous remarks the other night at the Wilson Center.
Like my father and Hubert Humphrey before him, you provided an impeccable model for those of us who followed.

Last Tuesday evening, obviously, was a major highlight of my life and I shall always remember and treasure the central role you played in making it so special.

Best Regards,

Bill

THE WOODROW WILSON CENTER

EXTERNAL AFFAIRS

External Affairs Office
Fax Cover SheetDate: 10/7/94To: Sharon Dardeen Facsimile Number: ~~202-357-6397~~ 639-7003Location: Max Kampelman's office Number of Pages: Cover + 2From: Moira Egan Phone: 202/357-4335

As we discussed. Call me at 357-4335 if you have questions.

Moira Egan

PROGRAM FOR DINNER HONORING BILL BAROODY
11 October 1994

Cocktails begin at 7:00

Seating begins at 7:45

After everyone is seated at dinner: (no later than 8:00)

Welcome, Joe Flom and Charles Blitzer

After dessert and champagne are served: (around 9:15)

Toast, Ted Barreaux (reads Ford letter)

Toast, Gertrude Himmelfarb (reads Reagan letter)

Toast, Lynne Cheney (reads Bush letter)

Toast, Jim Billington

Toast, Max Kampelman

Presentations:

Paperweight, Charles Blitzer

Resolution, Joseph Flom

In order to keep the program moving, toasters will not be individually introduced. A program at each place will let our guests know who is speaking, so you can simply go to the podium after the speaker who precedes you.

William J. Baroody, Jr.

Born November 5, 1937 in Manchester, N.H., son of William J. Baroody, Sr. and Naabeeha Baroody.

Graduate of Holy Cross College, Worcester, MA. in 1959. Pursued graduate work in political science at Georgetown University.

Served as an officer in the U. S. Navy from 1959 to 1961.

Worked on the staff of Congressman Melvin Laird of Wisconsin from 1961 to 1968, then became Research Director of the House Republican Conference.

From 1969 to 1973 he was at the Department of Defense, as Assistant to the Secretary, with responsibility for long-range planning. He received the highest civilian award that can be given by the Secretary of Defense, the Defense Distinguished Civilian Public Service Award, in 1973.

He was a member of the White House Staff, as Assistant to the President of the United States, from 1973-1977. In this capacity, he organized and was the first Director of the Office of Public Liaison.

He became President of the American Enterprise Institute in 1978, where he served until 1986.

He holds honorary degrees from Seattle University, Marist College, Assumption College and St. Mary of the Woods College.

In March, 1981 President Reagan appointed him to fill the remainder of his father's unexpired term on the Woodrow Wilson Center's Board of Trustees. He was appointed Chairman of the Board in January, 1982, and was reappointed to a second full term expiring October 23, 1994.