TASHER DESH
A musical dance drama

by

Rabindra Nath Tagore

Tasher Desh was written by Rabindra Nath Tagore in 1933-34. It was based on a short story he had written much earlier, entitled "Ekti Ashare Galpo", and contained in his short story collection "Galpoguccha".

Composed in four scenes, it depicts an imaginary land of cards that is governed by immutable laws, rules and traditions. The inhabitants of this land are recognized more by their class (suit) than by their selves. Laughter, adventure and for that matter, freedom and individuality, are foreign to this society. To this land arrives a prince from a distant nation, who is the embodiment of the free human spirit. He breaks the rules and ridicules the institutions that the cards have built. The cards envy his spirit and liveliness and the consequences of this confrontation is the soul of this drama.

This highly symbolic composition is usually presented with colorful costumes, a lively score and some of Tagore's most memorable humor.
