Dear Sir:

Thank you very much for your list of books submitted for sale.

Although we are not especially interested in any certain books, we would be interested in the collection as a whole. Should you be interested we will be glad to have you quote us your lowest price for the lot (f.o.b.
Minneapolis.)

We are herewith returning your list and should you desire to make a price on the lot, we would be glad to have you return this list with its valuation.

Very truly yours,

Yours of the 18th with list received.

I regret that I have retired from handling these later books. This is a good list, but not quite in my line.

I immediately called up Mr. Stager of the Cadmus Book Shop, who I consider the best here for such a lot. He told me that you had sent him a copy of the list and that he had written to you.

I return the list herewith.
