My dear Sir :

I thank you for what you say as to my letter of acceptance; and I am also very much obliged for sending your suggestions as to the relief for Banks.

Yours very truly,

BRITISH EMBASSY,

WASHINGTON,

December 12, 1911.

My dear Sir,

Thank you very much for the copy of your address upon the Rev. Jonas Clark, which I shall read with very great interest. I am glad to hear of the special work which you Society are doing in connection with American history.

It would be a pleasure to me to address the members of your Society, but I am sorry to say that my duties here are so urgent and heavy that I cannot venture to make any promise to come in March 1912; indeed, I have refused every invitation for the months of February and March because my time here is so much taken up that it is really impossible for me to make any engagements in advance.

Thank you for the invitation and regretting the circumstances which make it impossible for me to accept it,

I am,

Very truly yours,

James Bryce

My dear Mrs. Gilman,

I shall be in Chicago in May and will be very glad indeed to talk over your plans with you.
We shall be glad to have you stay at Hull House if that fits in with your other arrangements.

I have just returned from a six weeks journey and am writing rather hastily.

Faithfully yours,
