CONSIGNMENT AND EXHIBITION AGREEMENT
KRAMER GALLERIES

THIS AGREEMENT made between Francis Meisch (hereinafter called Consignor) and Kramer Galleries (hereinafter called Kramer) this 14th day of November, 1966

1. Consignor has delivered to Kramer the following described items or objects upon the following terms and conditions:

See Attached Schedule

- a. Title to such items or objects shall remain in Consignor. Title to said items or objects shall pass directly from Consignor to such person or persons to whom said items or objects shall be sold in the manner and upon the terms herein contained.
- b. Consignor agrees to keep such items or objects fully insured for full value for loss from fire, theft, negligence on the part of Kramer, or any other loss of each and every kind.
- c. Consignor further releases Kramer from any liability for loss or damage to said items or objects of Consignor except fraud and want of good faith on the part of Kramer.
- d. In the event of a claim of any kind by Consignor against Kramer for loss or damage to said items or objects, said claim shall not be made in excess of $ 1245.00.*
- e. Kramer agrees to list for sale said items or objects on behalf of Consignor. The minimum price for which the foregoing items or objects shall be sold is as follows:

See Attached Schedule

- f. Kramer shall receive as its compensation for services rendered under this agreement 33 1/3% of said sale. Kramer agrees to sell said items and objects to such persons as they judge to be of good credit and business standing, and to collect for and on account of Consignor said amounts, and to deliver to the Consignor the net sum due Consignor after deducting Kramer's compensation from the sale price, all as is set forth herein. It is agreed by and between the parties hereto that Kramer is not obligated to pay said sums to Consignor until after Kramer has been paid by purchaser. It is also agreed and understood that Kramer will have a reasonable period of time to enter said accounts on its books, prepare any required documents to complete the sale transaction and to complete its own bookkeeping entries. In no event will this period of time exceed 10 days.

- g. This agreement shall continue for a period of 6 months unless extended by mutual agreement of the parties hereto, or cancelled by either party hereto by giving two weeks written notice of said termination to the other party.
- h. Consignor hereby agrees to execute any and all other documents which Kramer may deem advisable in order to carry out this agreement, including bills of sales for the items or objects sold.

2. In the event Consignor has delivered said items to Kramer for display and exhibition and not for sale, Kramer shall not be responsible for the safekeeping of said articles entrusted to it for exhibition, other than the exercise of such precautions as are now in effect, or may hereinafter be put in effect, for the safekeeping of similar property of Kramer itself.

- s. Consignor (exhibitor) agrees to keep such items or objects fully insured for full value for loss from fire, theft, negligence of Kramer or any other loss or damage of each and every kind.
- b. Consignor (exhibitor) further releases Kramer from any liability for loss or damage to said items or objects of Consignor except fraud and want of good faith on the part of Kramer.
- c. In the event of a claim of any kind by Consignor (exhibitor) against Kramer for loss or damage to said items or objects, said claim shall not be made in excess of $.*

Dear Mr. Meisch,

The establishment of a commercial gallery, equal in enthusiastic support and promotional policies to the quality and vitality of the arts in this area, has long been the desire of those truly interested in the developing cultural activity of the state.

Mr. Paul Kramer, along with many of his contemporaries has long recognized this desire and urgent necessity to involve area artists in the main streams of current thought and contribution in the art world. A gallery with national and international scope could not but encourage a more vital awareness of the fine caliber of area art and at the same time foster a broader recognition in the art world itself of the importance of resident artists.

KRAMER GALLERIES, established with as broad and flexible a base as professional and public interest will encourage, has developed a continuing program to meet this vital challenge. In the coming months, this program of national and international involvement will promote the professional artists of the state and give Minnesota an organization of national importance on the cultural level. As the director of Kramer Galleries it is an honor for me to invite you to participate in the Premiere Exhibition.

Sincerely,

Otto Theuer
Director

Dear Mr. Meisch:

At this time we are making selections of work to be shown in the Gallery for the coming year.

Would it be possible for you to bring in a group of your works which can be placed on exhibition for sale in the Galleries.

At that time, perhaps you may wish to pick up the unsold portion of your work which we have had for the past season.

- a. Title to such items or objects shall remain in Consignor. Title to said items or objects shall pass directly from Consignor to such person or persons to whom said items or objects shall be sold in the manner and upon the terms herein contained.
- b. Consignor agrees to keep such items or objects fully insured for full value for loss from fire, theft, negligence on the part of Kramer, or any other loss of each and every kind.
- c. Consignor further releases Kramer from any liability for loss or damage to said items or objects of Consignor except fraud and want of good faith on the part of Kramer.
- d. In the event of a claim of any kind by Consignor against Kramer for loss or damage to said items or objects, said claim shall not be made in excess of $ 925.00.*
- e. Kramer agrees to list for sale said items or objects on behalf of Consignor. The minimum price for which the foregoing items or objects shall be sold is as follows:

SEE ATTACHED SCHEDULE A

Kramer shall receive as its compensation for services rendered under this agreement 33 1/3 % of said sale. Kramer agrees to sell said items and objects to such persons as they judge to be of good credit and business standing, and to collect for and on account of Consignor said amounts, and to immediately upon said collection deliver said sum to the Consignor less the agreed upon consideration set forth herein.

- f. This agreement shall continue for a period of until October 22, 1965 unless extended by mutual agreement of the parties hereto, or cancelled by either party hereto by giving two weeks written notice of said termination to the other party.

- g. Consignor hereby agrees to execute any and all other documents which Kramer may deem advisable in order to carry out this agreement, including bills of sales for the items or objects sold.

2. In the event Consignor has delivered said items to Kramer for display and exhibition and not for sale, Kramer shall not be responsible for the safekeeping of said articles entrusted to it for exhibition, other than the exercise of such precautions as are now in effect, or may hereinafter be put in effect, for the safekeeping of similar property of Kramer itself.

- a. Consignor (exhibitor) agrees to keep such items or objects fully insured for full value for loss from fire, theft, negligence of Kramer or any other loss or damage of each and every kind.
- b. Consignor (exhibitor) further releases Kramer from any liability for loss or damage to said items or objects of Consignor except fraud and want of good faith on the part of Kramer.
