Dear Mr. Meisch:

It was indeed a privilege for the Oak Ridge Country Club to exhibit your works in the recent art exhibition. We believe it was successful and hope that it will become an annual affair. Fourteen of the sixty-six paintings and sculptures that were for sale were sold to date. Your cooperation made this exhibition an outstanding one, and we want to take this opportunity to thank you.

You may pick up any of your unsold work at the S & L Store, Fourth and Central Southeast, August 13 or thereafter.

I hope we will have the privilege of exhibiting your works again in the near future.

Sincerely,

Dear Miss Meisch:

It gives me a great deal of pleasure to advise you that your painting, Southpaw, on exhibit at the Oak Ridge Club was sold to Mr. Carson Jamieson.

We will bill Mr. Jamieson and as soon as I receive his remittance I will forward it to you less the commission due to the Women's Auxiliary. As you know the commission is used to purchase other works of art that were exhibited. These pieces are then retained at the Club.

Sincerely,

Samuel H. Bloom
