Dear Mayor:

We are writing to ask you to join us in an exercise in democracy.

The enclosed brochure explains this activity sponsored by the Education and Housing Equity Project and its partners in the Community Circle Collaborative.

You are being asked to commit a specific amount of time as a participant in a community circle as a citizen who happens to be a political leader. We are suggesting that you become an equal partner with other citizens in an urgent conversation about race, segregation, and the intersection of housing and public education. As equal partners, you and other citizens (who may or may not be your immediate constituents) will be struggling with the most difficult issues facing our metropolitan area.

No one person has the answers to issues so emotionally charged and so challenging to our sense of social justice. The Community Circle gives us a chance to face these issues, which are at times, seemingly impossible to talk about.

Each circle will have a facilitator. Conversation will be informed by the discussion guide, "Choices For Community" which is enclosed for your perusal. Participation will be a learning experience for all and a chance to mutually consider recommendations for action.

The fact that you are a political leader has a special significance. Many people are losing faith in elected leaders. The policy discussions you make affect people's lives. The quality of leadership that you bring to your task influences the principles upon which your community operates, and whether your constituents have cause to have faith in the political process. How you inform your responsibilities must be of concern to you.

Participating in a Community Circle will be of benefit to you as you go forward with your civic work.

Please let us know what you think about joining us. Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Dick Little
Executive Director

Join the Metropolitan Dialogue on Housing, Schools and Segregation

~~This fall~~ ^{winter and spring}, hundreds of citizens and public officials will join together in Community Circles to discuss:

- How we can make our communities more stable, livable and accessible through fair and affordable housing
- How we can create housing choices that better connect citizens who need jobs with employers who need workers
- How we can reshape our schools so that all children, regardless of race or economic status, can learn together and succeed.

Each Circle will be moderated by an experienced facilitator and supplied with a discussion guide. The discussions will culminate in a Citizens Summit that will highlight promising practices and connect citizens with action opportunities.

To learn how you can be involved, contact the Education and Housing Equity Project at ~~871-2519~~ or ~~ehep@metdial.org~~

Partnerships For Tomorrow (consortium of city, school district, chamber of commerce, community action council, YMCA, hospital, faith community and business leaders)

Conversations at the Crossroads of Education, Housing & Race

What: Conversations are conducted as Community Circle dialogues. Each conversation focuses on the perplexing issues of education, housing, race and segregation in the Twin cities metropolitan area.

Community Circles are composed of 8 to 15 citizens who are committed to meeting five times for two hours each. Each circle is moderated by an experienced facilitator. A discussion guide tailored to the Twin Cities is also used to promote communication.

Approximately 50 community-based conversations are expected to take place at locations throughout the seven county metropolitan area during February, March, and April 1999.

Why: Community Circles offer a vehicle for engaging a broad base of citizens in action-oriented discussions of important issues facing their communities. These multiple conversations help promote more concerted action on finding community-based solutions.

It is imperative that we find effective ways to bridge racial, cultural and economic differences to make our communities better places for everyone to live. Conversations at the Crossroads offer a creative response to this imperative.

Who is leading this important effort:

These solution-focused Conversations are sponsored by local churches, schools, civic and community organizations in the metropolitan area.

Key promoters include:

- The Education and Housing Equity Project
- The Metropolitan Interfaith Council on Affordable Housing
- The Minnesota Minority Education Partnership, Inc.
- The League of Human Rights Commissions
- The Wilder Foundation (Cities at Work)
- The Saint Paul Area Council of Churches
- The Society of Professionals in Dispute Resolution
- The Minnesota Facilitators Network
- The Study Circles Resource Center

The lead partner is the Education and Housing Equity Project. Its mission is to promote informed public dialogue about the relationship between school segregation and inequality and the broader issues of housing and community segregation, and about the prospects for building more inclusive communities and opportunities for integrated housing and education in the Twin Cities metropolitan area.

Since 1996, over 500 citizens have participated in Community Circle conversations addressing the challenges of education and housing segregation. (CONTINUED ON OTHER SIDE)

Cost: Conversations are free to circle participants.

When: The conversations will meet during February, March and April 1999. In May, a Citizens Summit will be held with the Minnesota Meeting and Minnesota Public Radio to highlight the results of the Community Circle dialogues. An Action Forum will also be held to connect citizens with action organizations and opportunities to implement recommendations flowing from the Circle conversations.

Where: Over 50 meeting sites in Minneapolis, St. Paul, and suburbs. Public libraries, schools, community centers, park and recreation buildings, police stations, city halls, churches and synagogues are providing meeting places/spaces.

See list of meeting places, dates and times of scheduled conversations on attached list or call 612-330-1505 for further information (press message box #1 to register for a circle).
