THE COMMUNITY CIRCLE COLLABORATIVE

SUMMARY

The Community Circle Collaborative is a metro-wide dialogue project being undertaken by a growing number of organizations and individuals throughout the Twin Cities area for early 1997. We envision a program in which at least 200 people from all walks of life join together - 5-15 at a time - in "community circles" held throughout the metro area to discuss the question: "How does racial and economic segregation of housing affect educational achievement and life opportunities?"

The partners that make up the Collaborative are coming together with a shared belief in the need for civil, informed dialogue and collective analysis - across all racial, economic, and political lines - about the trends and changes taking place in the communities and schools of the Twin Cities metro area today. It is our hope that bringing together such groups will both build understanding and produce practical recommendations for actions that organizations, policy makers, and individuals can take. Our inspiration comes from successful, large-scale programs already launched in a number of communities around the country.

Project Goals

1. To discuss how the community in which we live and our personal experiences as members of that community affect children's education.
2. To educate participants about other communities' perspectives and experiences.
3. To examine the challenges that housing segregation pose for our educational system.
4. To develop and implement strategies to overcome these challenges.

Community Circle Structure

Community circles are small, highly participatory discussion groups that engage people in controversial, political, thought-provoking topics. The community circles model combines the small-group discussion groups known as "study circles" with a model developed by the Minnesota Minority Education Partnership, which stresses providing information and research services to the groups, the cooperative development of strategies by the groups, and subsequent community forums organized by the groups.

A typical community circle will include 5-15 members. Each community circle will be as economically, ethnically, racially, and politically diverse as possible. Each group will meet for approximately 10 hours and be led by a trained facilitator. A common Discussion Guide that includes readings, presentations of a range of viewpoints, and discussion questions will be used by all the groups. Beyond these base materials, however, each group is encouraged to set the framework for subsequent circle discussion and request research on specific topics. The community circle approach provides a framework for dialogue that allows participants to address an issue, examine different views on both the problem and possible remedies, and pursue concerns and solutions that interest and motivate them toward action.

Levels of Organizational Involvement

Critical to the success of the project is the effective mobilization of the different organizations that make up the collaborative. To facilitate involvement, the collaborative has identified a specific process and structure. The structure identifies the roles and responsibilities of the project's partners as follows:

Project Coordinators will manage the project by providing the necessary staff support, fundraising, conducting research, and implementing the project evaluation. Organizations that agree to be Project Coordinators will sign a Pledge of Participation outlining their roles and responsibilities in the project.

Resource Partners will play an advisory role regarding project design, fundraising, future projects, information/research, in-kind contributions, and/or technical assistance. Resource partners will sign a Pledge of Participation outlining their roles and responsibilities.

Sponsors will sponsor community circles by recruiting community members, facilitating community circles, and providing a location for community circle meetings, child-care, and transportation. Sponsors will sign a Pledge of Participation outlining their roles and responsibilities in the project.

Timeline

The project intends to kick off in December, 1996 with a forum for potential sponsors. Facilitators will be trained in January 1997. The community circles themselves will begin shortly thereafter. A final conference for all participants - where community circles share their ideas and solutions - will take place in Spring, 1997.

Notes and Comments from Presenters & Participants

- Impact of having one communication / cultural style dominate others
- Talking about these issues and identifying them creates hope
- Melting pot vs. salad bowl metaphors
- Students of color not reflected in the curriculum
- Change of government's role in housing
- Impact / role of government spending and intervention (too much interference)
- Look at problems and solutions both from human and systems perspectives
- Decreased earnings in terms of buying power makes time for community building too scarce
- Dignity in housing important (sense of ownership, etc.)
- Lack of daycare
- Lack of transportation
- Impact of school-hopping on kids
- Not a matter of needing more time as much as one of values and priorities
- Importance of economics as the basis of other issues. Money determines options, possibilities
- Housing concerns make education difficult / impossible
- Loss of HOPE
- Jobs, education, housing not exclusive. Have to do them all simultaneously
- Availability of jobs
- Knowledge of life options – Role Models
- Transportation → Housing
- Lack of people "mixing" → Resources to do this
- Overcoming isolation
- Access to income
- Importance of role models
- Relationship between affluence and success in public schools
- Racist attitudes of students
- Personal Responsibility: Not using racism as "an excuse for a lack of achievement."
- Some whites feel that racism is a relatively minor contributor to school failure, etc. Bigger contributors are family breakdown, etc.
- Biggest part of IGNORANCE is that information is IGNORED.
- Doesn't see racial tension or problems in the schools
- Insidious vs. conscious racism
- Whites don't appreciate, acknowledge, understand people of color as they do other whites
- $ alone won't level the playing field → RACISM
- Teacher encountering problems related to poverty, unprepared – How do I communicate?
- Racist perceptions of students, parents, etc. Stereotypes are default
  - When we think of poverty, what color do we see?
  - Media perpetuates this
- Lack of safety in public schools (violence, -ism's, etc). Makes learning secondary.
- Teacher's awareness, sensitivity and prejudice
- Economic deterioration of inner city
- Schools & race: Fear is a primary ingredient

Impact on Kids & Families

PROBLEMS

- Unintended consequences
  - School change
  - Changes in Housing more important than other issues
- Re-enforcement of education, job & housing patterns →
- Minneapolis Public Schools 15% of staff are people of color. Less than this for teachers.
  - Learning styles
  - Teacher training / development
  - Engaging parents
- Insidious problems in school curriculum
  - “slaves” vs. “enslaved”
  - “settlers” vs. “invaders”
- Complaining about racism & nodding heads isn't productivity
- Demanding accountability isn't complaining. Taking responsibility vs. being victim
- Problems with education system are complicated. Blaming one element of that system (e.g. teachers) isn't productive.
- Need more cross-racial, -cultural, and -community discussion
- Myths of segregation (today)
- Power is still in the hands of an elite, who still determine priorities (access to jobs, housing, income, etc.)
- Not just a Black / White issues. Other prejudices, -isms. Other kinds of diversity
- Conversations about racism will stall. Need to focus on issues we can address.
- Importance of class issues
- Colonizing / missionary attitude may be at the base of all oppression
- What's happened to our families? How do we strengthen / promote the family?
- Deepening of the concentration of poverty and segregation
- Impact of development / expansion on this concentrated poverty
- Barriers to housing. Need to adopt comprehensive approach (e.g. Wilder School)
- Lost perspective over time.
- How question is posed affects / accentuates divisions

SOLUTIONS

- Not going to solve in one session
- We need to have more, informal conversations
- Racism is Black / White in U.S.
- Dialog can only minimize problems. Need $ to solve
- High rates of mobility de-stabilize kids (influenced by family, $)

Continuing the Conversation

- Keeping dialog between suburbs & city
- Market forces perpetuate poverty
- Integration as the solution
- Re: mobility / concentration of poverty group formed to address this
- Can't just speak to the choir
- Need to focus on fewer issues
- Need to look at commonality (& not differences). Respect for people PERIOD.
- Seeking homeownership as a basic need
- Desegregation being dismantled by community schools idea. Desegregation works.
- Solutions aren't “nice” or easy → very hard, nasty, ugly → Integration is the only thing that will work
