

Arnold E. Kahnert Papers

Copyright Notice:

This material may be protected by copyright law (U.S. Code, Title 17). Researchers are liable for any infringement. For more information, visit www.mnhs.org/copyright.

201 1/2 CURRAN, Wilford N.

3 July 1945

Mrs. Norma B. Curran,
Blue Earth,
Minnesota.

Dear Mrs. Curran:

The War Department has informed me that your husband, Private First Class Wilford N. Curran, has given his life in the performance of his duty.

It is therefore with deep sympathy that I address you on behalf of this Command and extend every possible comfort and assistance.

You will find a Personal Affairs Officer in your vicinity who is not only willing but eager to help you. The Personal Affairs Officer located nearest you is Lt. Colonel Harold W. Schaub, Shattuck School, Faribault, Minnesota. Should you need the service or assistance which Personal Affairs has available please feel most free to use it. If you have any particular problems or questions and do not find it convenient to contact Colonel Schaub, the nearest chapter of the American Red Cross is also available to provide counsel and assistance, or if you like, do not hesitate to address this Service Command, Attn: Personal Affairs Officer.

I hope that the passing days will bring you comfort and a consoling pride that your husband gave up his life to set men free. His name will be an honored one among all who were privileged to know him.

Most sincerely yours,

C. H. DANIELSON,
Major General, U. S. Army,
Commanding.

CC: Personal Affairs Officer,
Shattuck School,
Faribault, Minnesota.

(Date of death 13 May 45, Okinawa)

201 - Nelson, Orien W.

23 July 1945

Mrs. Inez E. Nelson,
30 7th Avenue North,
Hopkins, Minnesota.

Dear Mrs. Nelson:

The War Department has informed me that your son, Private Orien W. Nelson, has given his life in the performance of his duty.

It is therefore with deep sympathy that I address you on behalf of this Command and extend every possible comfort and assistance.

You will find a Personal Affairs Officer in your vicinity who is not only willing but eager to help you. The Personal Affairs Officer located nearest you is Captain William P. Berzak, Fort Snelling, Minnesota. Should you need the service or assistance which Personal Affairs has available please feel most free to use it. If you have any particular problems or questions and do not find it convenient to contact Captain Berzak, the nearest chapter of the American Red Cross is also available to provide counsel and assistance, or if you like, do not hesitate to address this Service Command, Attn: Personal Affairs Officer.

I hope that the passing days will bring you comfort and a consoling pride that your son gave up his life to set men free. His name will be an honored one among all who were privileged to know him.

Most sincerely yours,

C. H. DANIELSON,
Major General, U. S. Army,
Commanding.

CC: Personal Affairs Officer
Fort Snelling, Minnesota

(Date of death, 18 Jun. 45, Mindanao)

201 - MORGAN, Joseph A.

3 July 1945

Mrs. Ruth Morgan,
1804 17th Ave., South,
Minneapolis, Minnesota.

Dear Mrs. Morgan:

The War Department has informed me that your husband, Private First Class Joseph A. Morgan, has given his life in the performance of his duty.

It is therefore with deep sympathy that I address you on behalf of this Command and extend every possible comfort and assistance.

You will find a Personal Affairs Officer in your vicinity who is not only willing but eager to help you. The Personal Affairs Officer located nearest you is Captain William P. Berzak, Fort Snelling, Minnesota. Should you need the service or assistance which Personal Affairs has available please feel most free to use it. If you have any particular problems or questions and do not find it convenient to contact Captain Berzak, the nearest chapter of the American Red Cross is also available to provide counsel and assistance, or if you like, do not hesitate to address this Service Command, Attn: Personal Affairs Officer.

I hope that the passing days will bring you comfort and a consoling pride that your husband gave up his life to set men free. His name will be an honored one among all who were privileged to know him.

Most sincerely yours,

C. H. DANIELSON,
Major General, U. S. Army,
Commanding.

CC: Personal Affairs Officer,
Fort Snelling, Minnesota.

(Date of death - 3 May 45, Okinawa)

201 - Green, Wallace S.

5 August 1945

Mrs. Anna L. Green
292 Saint Anthony Avenue
St. Paul, Minnesota

Dear Mrs. Green:

The War Department has informed me that your son, Private First Class Wallace S. Green, has given his life in the performance of his duty.

It is therefore with deep sympathy that I address you on behalf of this Command and extend every possible comfort and assistance.

You will find a Personal Affairs Officer in your vicinity who is not only willing but eager to help you. The Personal Affairs Officer located nearest you is 1st Lieutenant Richard C. Meagher, Fort Snelling, Minnesota. Should you need the service or assistance which Personal Affairs has available please feel most free to use it. If you have any particular problems or questions and do not find it convenient to contact 1st Lieutenant Meagher, the nearest chapter of the American Red Cross is also available to provide counsel and assistance, or if you like, do not hesitate to address this Service Command, Attn: Personal Affairs Officer.

I hope that the passing days will bring you comfort and a consoling pride that your son gave up his life to set men free. His name will be an honored one among all who were privileged to know him.

Most sincerely yours,

C. H. DANIELSON,
Major General, U. S. Army,
Commanding

CC: Personal Affairs Officer
Fort Snelling, Minnesota

(Date of death, 10 June 45, ETO)

201-Jenson, Henry

29 October 1945

Mrs. William L. Blagsvedt
Route Number One
Dennison, Minnesota

Dear Mrs. Blagsvedt:

The War Department has informed me that your brother, Private First Class Henry Jenson, has given his life in the performance of his duty.

It is therefore with deep sympathy that I address you on behalf of this Command and extend every possible comfort and assistance.

You will find a Personal Affairs Officer in your vicinity who is not only willing but eager to help you. The Personal Affairs Officer located nearest you is Lieutenant Colonel Harold W. Schaub, Shattuck School, Faribault, Minnesota. Should you need the service or assistance which Personal Affairs has available please feel most free to use it. If you have any particular problems or questions and do not find it convenient to contact Lieutenant Colonel Schaub, the nearest chapter of the American Red Cross is also available to provide counsel and assistance, or if you like, do not hesitate to address this Service Command, Attn: Personal Affairs Officer.

I hope that the passing days will bring you comfort and a consoling pride that your brother gave up his life to set men free. His name will be an honored one among all who were privileged to know him.

Most sincerely yours,

LOUIS A. CRAIG
Major General, USA
Commanding

CC: Personal Affairs Officer
Shattuck School
Faribault, Minnesota

battle

(Date of death, 18 Oct 45, Germany)

201- Kilby, Lawrence J.

23 October 1945

Mr. Edward Kilby
Route #4, Box 366-D
Duluth, Minnesota

Dear Mr. Kilby:

The War Department has informed me that your son, Private Lawrence J. Kilby, has given his life in the performance of his duty.

It is therefore with deep sympathy that I address you on behalf of this Command and extend every possible comfort and assistance.

You will find a Personal Affairs Officer in your vicinity who is not only willing but eager to help you. The Personal Affairs Officer located nearest you is Colonel Schenk H. Griffin, U. S. Engineer Office, Duluth, Minnesota. Should you need the service or assistance which Personal Affairs has available please feel most free to use it. If you have any particular problems or questions and do not find it convenient to contact Colonel Griffin, the nearest chapter of the American Red Cross is also available to provide counsel and assistance, or if you like, do not hesitate to address this Service Command, Attn: Personal Affairs Officer.

I hope that the passing days will bring you comfort and a consoling pride that your son gave up his life to set men free. His name will be an honored one among all who were privileged to know him.

Most sincerely yours,

LOUIS A. CRAIG
Major General, USA
Commanding

CC Personal Affairs Officer
U.S. Engineer Office
Duluth, Minn.

Date of death 10 Oct 45
battle

201- Rassier, Victor J

23 October 1945

Mrs. Lavenia Rassier
General Delivery
Bemidji, Minnesota

Dear Mrs. Rassier:

The War Department has informed me that your son, Technician Fourth Grade Victor J. Rassier, has given his life in the performance of his duty.

It is therefore with deep sympathy that I address you on behalf of this Command and extend every possible comfort and assistance.

You will find a Personal Affairs Officer in your vicinity who is not only willing but eager to help you. The Personal Affairs Officer located nearest you is Colonel Schenk H. Griffin, U. S. Engineer Office, Duluth, Minnesota. Should you need the service or assistance which Personal Affairs has available please feel most free to use it. If you have any particular problems or questions and do not find it convenient to contact Colonel Griffin, the nearest chapter of the American Red Cross is also available to provide counsel and assistance, or if you like do not hesitate to address this Service Command, Attn: Personal Affairs Officer.

I hope that the passing days will bring you comfort and a consoling pride that your son gave up his life to set men free. His name will be an honored one among all who were privileged to know him.

Most sincerely yours,

CC Personal Affairs Officer
U. S. Engineer Office
Duluth, Minn

LOUIS A. CRAIG
Major General, USA
Commanding

Date of death 9 Oct 45
battle

201- Payne, Duane W.

23 October 1945

Mrs. Lorna A. Payne
814 9th Avenue, NE
Brainerd, Minnesota

Dear Mrs. Payne:

The War Department has informed me that your husband, Private Duane W. Payne, has given his life in the performance of his duty.

It is therefore with deep sympathy that I address you on behalf of this Command and extend every possible comfort and assistance.

You will find a Personal Affairs Officer in your vicinity who is not only willing but eager to help you. The Personal Affairs Officer located nearest you is Colonel Schenk H. Griffin, U. S. Engineer Office, Duluth, Minnesota. Should you need the service or assistance which Personal Affairs has available please feel most free to use it. If you have any particular problems or questions and do not find it convenient to contact Colonel Griffin, the nearest chapter of the American Red Cross is also available to provide counsel and assistance, or if you like, do not hesitate to address this Service Command, Attn: Personal Affairs Officer.

I hope that the passing days will bring you comfort and a consoling pride that your husband gave up his life to set men free. His name will be an honored one among all who were privileged to know him.

Most sincerely yours,

CC Personal Affairs Officer
US engineer office
Duluth, Minn

LOUIS A. CRAIG
Major General, USA
Commanding

Date of death 9 Oct 45

battle

201-Oleskow, Joseph
O-3007238

23 July 1945

Mrs. Betty L. Oleskow
c/o R. S. Williams
Box 504
Minnewauken, North Dakota

Dear Mrs. Oleskow:

The War Department has informed me that your husband, Second Lieutenant Joseph H. Oleskow, has given his life in the performance of his duty.

It is therefore with deep sympathy that I address you on behalf of this Command and extend every possible comfort and assistance.

You will find a Personal Affairs Officer in your vicinity who is not only willing but eager to help you. The Personal Affairs Officer located nearest you is Captain Roy B. Mefferd, Jr., University of North Dakota, Grand Forks, North Dakota. Should you need the service or assistance which Personal Affairs has available please feel most free to use it. If you have any particular problems or questions and do not find it convenient to contact Captain Mefferd, the nearest chapter of the American Red Cross is also available to provide counsel and assistance, or if you likely do not hesitate to address this Service Command, Attn: Personal Affairs Officer.

I hope that the passing days will bring you comfort and a consoling pride that your husband gave up his life to set men free. His name will be an honored one among all who were privileged to know him.

Most sincerely yours,

C. H. DANIELSON,
Major General, U. S. Army,
Commanding.

CC: Personal Affairs Officer
University of North Dakota
Grand Forks, North Dakota

(Date of death, 17 May 45, Okinawa)

201-Alexander, Robert L.

28 July 1945

Mrs. Fannie Alexander Route Number Two Tolley, North Dakota

Dear Mrs. Alexander:

The War Department has informed me that your husband, Private First Class Robert L. Alexander, has given his life in the performance of his duty.

It is therefore with deep sympathy that I address you on behalf of this Command and extend every possible comfort and assistance.

You will find a Personal Affairs Officer in your vicinity who is not only willing but eager to help you. The Personal Affairs Officer located nearest you is Captain Roy B. Mefferd, Jr., University of North Dakota, Grand Forks, North Dakota. Should you need the service or assistance which Personal Affairs has available please feel most free to use it. If you have any particular problems or questions and do not find it convenient to contact Captain Mefferd, the nearest chapter of the American Red Cross is also available to provide counsel and assistance, or if you like, do not hesitate to address this Service Command, Attn: Personal Affairs Officer.

I hope that the passing days will bring you comfort and a consoling pride that your husband gave up his life to set men free. His name will be an honored one among all who were privileged to know him.

Most sincerely yours,

C. H. DANIELSON,
Major General, U. S. Army,
Commanding.

CC Personal Affairs Officer
University of North Dakota
Grand Forks, North Dakota

(Date of death, 8 Jul 45, Central Pacific)

201-Stein, Allen G.

28 July 1945

Mr. Edward F. Stein
Box 531
Hankinson, North Dakota

Dear Mr. Stein:

The War Department has informed me that your son, Private Allen G. Stein, has given his life in the performance of his duty.

It is therefore with deep sympathy that I address you on behalf of this Command and extend every possible comfort and assistance.

You will find a Personal Affairs Officer in your vicinity who is not only willing but eager to help you. The Personal Affairs Officer located nearest you is First Lieutenant Irving L. Smith, North Dakota Agricultural College, Fargo, North Dakota. Should you need the service or assistance which Personal Affairs has available please feel most free to use it. If you have any particular problems or questions and do not find it convenient to contact Lieutenant Smith, the nearest chapter of the American Red Cross is also available to provide counsel and assistance, or if you like, do not hesitate to address this Service Command, Attn: Personal Affairs Officer.

I hope that the passing days will bring you comfort and a consoling pride that your son gave up his life to set men free. His name will be an honored one among all who were privileged to know him.

Most sincerely yours,

C. E. DANIELSON,
Major General, U. S. Army,
Commanding.

CC: Personal Affairs Officer
North Dakota Agricultural College
Fargo, North Dakota

(Date of death, 15 Jun 45, Okinawa)

201-Erickson, Lester A.

28 July 1945

Mrs. Mary E. Erickson
Des Lacs, North Dakota

Dear Mrs. Erickson:

The War Department has informed me that your son, Private First Class Lester A. Erickson, has given his life in the performance of his duty.

It is therefore with deep sympathy that I address you on behalf of this Command and extend every possible comfort and assistance.

You will find a Personal Affairs Officer in your vicinity who is not only willing but eager to help you. The Personal Affairs Officer located nearest you is Captain Roy B. Mefford, Jr., University of North Dakota, Grand Forks, North Dakota. Should you need the service or assistance which Personal Affairs has available please feel most free to use it. If you have any particular problems or questions and do not find it convenient to contact Captain Mefford, the nearest chapter of the American Red Cross is also available to provide counsel and assistance, or if you like, do not hesitate to address this Service Command, Attn: Personal Affairs Officer.

I hope that the passing days will bring you comfort and a consoling pride that your son gave up his life to set men free. His name will be an honored one among all who were privileged to know him.

Most sincerely yours,

C. H. DANIELSON,
Major General, U. S. Army,
Commanding.

CC: Personal Affairs Officer
University of North Dakota
Grand Forks, North Dakota

(Date of death, 24 Jun 45, Hindanece)

201-Jue, Leslie C

28 July 1945

Mrs. Beatrice E. Fue
Box 60
Rugby, North Dakota

Dear Mrs. Fue:

The War Department has informed me that your husband, Private Leslie C. Fue, has given his life in the performance of his duty.

It is therefore with deep sympathy that I address you on behalf of this Command and extend every possible comfort and assistance.

You will find a Personal Affairs Officer in your vicinity who is not only willing but eager to help you. The Personal Affairs Officer located nearest you is Captain Roy E. Mefford, Jr., University of North Dakota, Grand Forks, North Dakota. Should you need the service or assistance which Personal Affairs has available please feel most free to use it. If you have any particular problems or questions and do not find it convenient to contact Captain Mefford, the nearest chapter of the American Red Cross is also available to provide counsel and assistance, or if you like, do not hesitate to address this Service Command, Attn: Personal Affairs Officer.

I hope that the passing days will bring you comfort and a consoling pride that your husband gave up his life to set men free. His name will be an honored one among all who were privileged to know him.

Most sincerely yours,

C. H. DANIELSON,
Major General, U. S. Army,
Commanding.

CC: Personal Affairs Officer
University of North Dakota
Grand Forks, North Dakota

(Date of death, 23 Jun 45, Okinawa)

201-Wadena, Charles V.

27 July 1945

Mrs. Elizabeth Roy Naytahwaush, Minnesota

Dear Mrs. Roy:

It was with sorrow and deep regret that this Command learned of the death of your son, Private Charles V. Wadena, from The Adjutant General of the Army, and desires to add its own expression of sympathy to those you have already received.

You will find a Personal Affairs Officer in your vicinity who is not only willing but eager to help you. The Personal Affairs Officer located nearest you is Captain Roy B. Mefferd, Jr., University of North Dakota, Grand Forks, North Dakota. Should you need the service or assistance which Personal Affairs has available please feel most free to use it. If you have any particular problems or questions and do not find it convenient to contact Captain Mefferd, the nearest chapter of the American Red Cross is also available to provide counsel and assistance, or if you like, do not hesitate to address this Service Command, Attn: Personal Affairs Officer.

Most sincerely yours,

C. H. DANIELSON,
Major General, U. S. Army,
Commanding.

CC: Personal Affairs Officer
University of North Dakota
Grand Forks, North Dakota

(Date of death, 18 June 45, Ft. Gibson, Okla)

201-Lorentzen, John A.

28 July 1945

Mrs. Tilda Lorentzen
Box 124, General Delivery
Mallock, Minnesota

Dear Mrs. Lorentzen:

It was with sorrow and deep regret that this Command learned of the death of your son, Technician Fourth Grade John A. Lorentzen, from The Adjutant General of the Army, and desires to add its own expression of sympathy to those you have already received.

You will find a Personal Affairs Officer in your vicinity who is not only willing but eager to help you. The Personal Affairs Officer located nearest you is Captain Roy B. Mefferd, Jr., University of North Dakota, Grand Forks, North Dakota. Should you need the service or assistance which Personal Affairs has available please feel most free to use it. If you have any particular problems or questions and do not find it convenient to contact Captain Mefferd, the nearest chapter of the American Red Cross is also available to provide counsel and assistance, or if you like, do not hesitate to address this Service Command, Attn: Personal Affairs Officer.

Most sincerely yours,

C. H. DANIELSON,
Major General, U. S. Army,
Commanding.

CC: Personal Affairs Officer
Univ. of North Dakota
Grand Forks, North Dakota

(Date of death, 28 June 45, Belgium)

201-Sayers, Fabian P.

28 July 1945

Mrs. Mary Sayers
Red Lake, Minnesota

Dear Mrs. Sayers:

It was with sorrow and deep regret that this Command learned of the death of your son, Private First Class Fabian P. Sayers, from The Adjutant General of the Army, and desires to add its own expression of sympathy to those you have already received.

You will find a Personal Affairs Officer in your vicinity who is not only willing but eager to help you. The Personal Affairs Officer located nearest you is First Lieutenant Irving L. Smith, North Dakota Agricultural College, Fargo, North Dakota. Should you need the service or assistance which Personal Affairs has available please feel most free to use it. If you have any particular problems or questions and do not find it convenient to contact Lieutenant Smith, the nearest chapter of the American Red Cross is also available to provide counsel and assistance, or if you like, do not hesitate to address this Service Command, Attn: Personal Affairs Officer.

Most sincerely yours,

C. H. DANIELSON,
Major General, U. S. Army,
Commanding.

CC: Personal Affairs Officer
N.D. Agricultural College
Fargo, North Dakota

(Date of death, 21 June 45, France)

201-Gilberg, Roy W.

15 August 1945

Mrs. Beda Gilberg
3971 Reservoir Boulevard Northeast
Columbia Heights, Minnesota

Dear Mrs. Gilberg:

It was with sorrow and deep regret that this Command learned of the death of your son, Technician Fourth Grade Roy W. Gilberg, from The Adjutant General of the Army, and desires to add its own expression of sympathy to those you have already received.

You will find a Personal Affairs Officer in your vicinity who is not only willing but eager to help you. The Personal Affairs Officer located nearest you is Lieutenant Colonel Harold W. Schaub, Shattuck School, Faribault, Minnesota. Should you need the service or assistance which Personal Affairs has available please feel most free to use it. If you have any particular problems or questions and do not find it convenient to contact Colonel Schaub, the nearest chapter of the American Red Cross is also available to provide counsel and assistance, or if you like, do not hesitate to address this Service Command, Attn: Personal Affairs Officer.

Most sincerely yours,

P. X. ENGLISH
Brigadier General
Commanding

CC: Personal Affairs Officer
Shattuck School
Faribault, Minnesota

(Date of death, 30 July 45, Germany)

201-Sarff, Dale B.

15 August 1945

Dora Sarff
Box Number Seven Wilkinson, Minnesota

Dear Dora Sarff:

It was with sorrow and deep regret that this Command learned of the death of Private First Class Dale B. Sarff, from The Adjutant General of the Army, and desires to add its own expression of sympathy to those you have already received.

You will find a Personal Affairs Officer in your vicinity who is not only willing but eager to help you. The Personal Affairs Officer located nearest you is Colonel Schenk H. Griffin, U. S. Engineer Office, Duluth, Minnesota. Should you need the service or assistance which Personal Affairs has available please feel most free to use it. If you have any particular problems or questions and do not find it convenient to contact Colonel Griffin, the nearest chapter of the American Red Cross is also available to provide counsel and assistance, or if you like, do not hesitate to address this Service Command, Attn: Personal Affairs Officer.

Most sincerely yours,

P. X. ENGLISH
Brigadier General
Commanding

CC: Personal Affairs Officer
U.S. Engineer Office
Duluth, Minnesota

(Date of death, 30 June 45)

201-Carpeneter, Earl H.

15 August 1945

Mrs. Bettie J. Carpenter
519 12th Street, North
Willmar, Minnesota

Dear Mrs. Carpenter:

It was with sorrow and deep regret that this Command learned of the death of your husband, Private First Class Earl H. Carpenter, from The Adjutant General of the Army, and desires to add its own expression of sympathy to those you have already received.

You will find a Personal Affairs Officer in your vicinity who is not only willing but eager to help you. The Personal Affairs Officer located nearest you is First Lieutenant Richard C. Meagher, Fort Snelling, Minnesota. Should you need the service or assistance which Personal Affairs has available please feel most free to use it. If you have any particular problems or questions and do not find it convenient to contact Lieutenant Meagher, the nearest chapter of the American Red Cross is also available to provide counsel and assistance, or if you like, do not hesitate to address this Service Command, Attn: Personal Affairs Officer.

Most sincerely yours,

P. X. ENGLISH
Brigadier General, GSC
Commanding

CC: Personal Affairs Officer
Ft. Snell, Minn.

(Date of death, 20 July 45, Germany)

2014-Smith, Eli

16 August 1945

Mrs. Wilma I. Smith
668 East Broadway
Winona, Minnesota

Dear Mrs. Smith:

The War Department has informed me that your husband, Technical Sergeant Eli Smith, has given his life in the performance of his duty.

It is therefore with deep sympathy that I address you on behalf of this Command and extend every possible comfort and assistance.

You will find a Personal Affairs Officer in your vicinity who is not only willing but eager to help you. The Personal Affairs Officer located nearest you is First Lieutenant Richard C. Meagher, Fort Snelling, Minnesota. Should you need the service or assistance which Personal Affairs has available please feel most free to use it. If you have any particular problems or questions and do not find it convenient to contact Lieutenant Meagher, the nearest chapter of the American Red Cross is also available to provide counsel and assistance, or if you like, do not hesitate to address this Service Command, Attn: Personal Affairs Officer.

I hope that the passing days will bring you comfort and a consoling pride that your husband gave up his life to set men free. His name will be an honored one among all who were privileged to know him.

Most sincerely yours,

CC: Personal Affairs Officer P. X. ENGLISH
Fort Snelling, Minnesota Brigadier General, GSC
Commanding
(Date of death, 18 Dec 44, Belgium)

201-Peterson, Chester R.

16 August 1945

Mr. Charles A. Peterson,
Route #3,
Dassel, Minnesota.

Dear Mr. Peterson:

It was with sorrow and deep regret that this Command learned of the death of your nephew, Technical Sergeant Chester R. Peterson, from The Adjutant General of the Army, and desires to add its own expression of sympathy to those you have already received.

You will find a Personal Affairs Officer in your vicinity who is not only willing but eager to help you. The Personal Affairs Officer located nearest you is First Lieutenant Richard C. Meagher, Fort Snelling, Minnesota. Should you need the service or assistance which Personal Affairs has available, please feel most free to use it. If you have any particular problems or questions and do not find it convenient to contact Lieutenant Meagher, the nearest chapter of the American Red Cross is also available to provide counsel and assistance, or if you like, do not hesitate to address this Service Command, Attn: Personal Affairs Officer.

Most sincerely yours,

P. X. ENGLISH,
Brigadier General, GSC,
Commanding.

cc: Personal Affairs Officer,
Fort Snelling, Minnesota.

(Date of death, 25 August 43, Philippine Islands)

201-Mabbutt, Bud F.

16 August 1945

Mrs. Elizabeth Mabbutt, 1218 Southeast 6th Street,
Minneapolis, Minnesota.

Dear Mrs. Mabbutt:

It was with sorrow and deep regret that this Command learned of the death of your son, Private First Class Bud F. Mabbutt, from The Adjutant General of the Army, and desires to add its own expression of sympathy to those you have already received.

You will find a Personal Affairs Officer in your vicinity who is not only willing but eager to help you. The Personal Affairs Officer located nearest you is First Lieutenant Richard C. Meagher, Fort Snelling, Minnesota. Should you need the service or assistance which Personal Affairs has available, please feel most free to use it. If you have any particular problems or questions and do not find it convenient to contact Lieutenant Meagher, the nearest chapter of the American Red Cross is also available to provide counsel and assistance, or if you like, do not hesitate to address this Service Command, Attn: Personal Affairs Officer.

Most sincerely yours,

P. X. ENGLISH,
Brigadier General, GSC,
Commanding.

cc: Personal Affairs Ofcr,
Fort Snelling, Minnesota.

(Date of death, 11 July 45, ETO)

201-Thyen, Walter J.

11 August 1945

Mrs. Anna Thyen
Rural Free Delivery Number One, Box 151
Richmond, Minnesota

Dear Mrs. Thyen:

The War Department has informed me that your son, Private First Class Walter J. Thyen, has given his life in the performance of his duty.

It is therefore with deep sympathy that I address you on behalf of this Command and extend every possible comfort and assistance.

You will find a Personal Affairs Officer in your vicinity who is not only willing but eager to help you. The Personal Affairs Officer located nearest you is First Lieutenant Richard C. Meagher, Fort Snelling, Minnesota. Should you need the service or assistance which Personal Affairs has available please feel most free to use it. If you have any particular problems or questions and do not find it convenient to contact Lieutenant Meagher, the nearest chapter of the American Red Cross is also available to provide counsel and assistance, or if you like, do not hesitate to address this Service Command, Attn: Personal Affairs Officer.

I hope that the passing days will bring you comfort and a consoling pride that your son gave up his life to set men free. His name will be an honored one among all who were privileged to know him.

Most sincerely yours,

C. H. DANIELSON,
Major General, U. S. Army,
Commanding.

CC: Personal Affairs Officer
Fort Snelling, Minnesota

(Date of death, 9 June 45, Okinawa)

201-Eckert, James R.

12 August 1945

Mr. Frank R. Eckert
3612 39th Avenue
Minneapolis, Minnesota

Dear Mr. Eckert:

It was with sorrow and deep regret that this Command learned of the death of your brother, Technician Fifth Grade James R. Eckert, from The Adjutant General of the Army, and desires to add its own expression of sympathy to those you have already received.

You will find a Personal Affairs Officer in your vicinity who is not only willing but eager to help you. The Personal Affairs Officer located nearest you is First Lieutenant Richard C. Meagher, Fort Snelling, Minnesota. Should you need the service or assistance which Personal Affairs has available please feel most free to use it. If you have any particular problems or questions and do not find it convenient to contact Lieutenant Meagher, the nearest chapter of the American Red Cross is also available to provide counsel and assistance, or if you like, do not hesitate to address this Service Command, Attn: Personal Affairs Officer.

Most sincerely yours,

C. H. DANIELSON,
Major General, U. S. Army,
Commanding.

CC: Personal Affairs Officer
Fort Snelling, Minnesota

(Date of death, 27 July 45, France)

201-Smith, Milton E.

12 August 1945

Mrs. Myrtle I. Smith
4205 2nd Avenue South
Minneapolis, Minnesota

Dear Mrs. Smith:

It was with sorrow and deep regret that this Command learned of the death of your son, Private First Class Milton E. Smith, from The Adjutant General of the Army, and desires to add its own expression of sympathy to those you have already received.

You will find a Personal Affairs Officer in your vicinity who is not only willing but eager to help you. The Personal Affairs Officer located nearest you is First Lieutenant Richard C. Meagher, Fort Snelling, Minnesota. Should you need the service or assistance which Personal Affairs has available please feel most free to use it. If you have any particular problems or questions and do not find it convenient to contact Lieutenant Meagher, the nearest chapter of the American Red Cross is also available to provide counsel and assistance, or if you like, do not hesitate to address this Service Command, Attn: Personal Affairs Officer.

Most sincerely yours,

C. H. DANIELSON,
Major General, U. S. Army,
Commanding.

OG: Personal Affairs Officer
Fort Snelling, Minnesota

(Date of death, 3 May 45, Germany)

201-Horgan, Emmet T.

12 August 1945

Mrs. Margaret Horgan
121 North 16th Avenue
Duluth, Minnesota

Dear Mrs. Horgan:

It was with sorrow and deep regret that this Command learned of the death of your son, Technician Fifth Grade Emmet T. Horgan, from The Adjutant General of the Army, and desires to add its own expression of sympathy to those you have already received.

You will find a Personal Affairs Officer in your vicinity who is not only willing but eager to help you. The Personal Affairs Officer located nearest you is Colonel Schenk H. Griffin, U. S. Engineer Office, Duluth, Minnesota. Should you need the service or assistance which Personal Affairs has available please feel most free to use it. If you have any particular problems or questions and do not find it convenient to contact Colonel Griffin, the nearest chapter of the American Red Cross is also available to provide counsel and assistance, or if you like, do not hesitate to address this Service Command, Attn: Personal Affairs Officer.

Most sincerely yours,

C. H. DANIELSON,
Major General, U. S. Army,
Commanding.

CC: Personal Affairs Officer
U. S. Engineer Office
Duluth, Minnesota

(Date of death, 13 July 45, Lake Cullen near Brainerd, Minnesota)

201-Kempf, Wayne A.

12 August 1945

Mr. Leroy S. Kempf
444 5th Avenue South
Saint Paul, Minnesota

Dear Mr. Kempf:

It was with sorrow and deep regret that this Command learned of the death of your son, Private First Class Wayne A. Kempf, from The Adjutant General of the Army, and desires to add its own expression of sympathy to those you have already received.

You will find a Personal Affairs Officer in your vicinity who is not only willing but eager to help you. The Personal Affairs Officer located nearest you is First Lieutenant Richard C. Meagher, Fort Snelling, Minnesota. Should you need the service or assistance which Personal Affairs has available please feel most free to use it. If you have any particular problems or questions and do not find it convenient to contact Lieutenant Meagher, the nearest chapter of the American Red Cross is also available to provide counsel and assistance, or if you like, do not hesitate to address this Service Command, Attn: Personal Affairs Officer.

Most sincerely yours,

C. H. DANIELSON,
Major General, U. S. Army,
Commanding.

CC: Personal Affairs Officer
Fort Snelling, Minnesota

(Date of death, 21 May 45, Germany)

Major
201-Nelson, Robert V.
ASN 020480, DC

11 August 1945

Mr. Robert A. Nelson
3952 12th Avenue South
Minneapolis, Minnesota

Dear Mr. Nelson:

The War Department has informed me that your son, Major Robert Virgil Nelson, has given his life in the performance of his duty.

It is therefore with deep sympathy that I address you on behalf of this Command and extend every possible comfort and assistance.

You will find a Personal Affairs Officer in your vicinity who is not only willing but eager to help you. The Personal Affairs Officer located nearest you is First Lieutenant Richard C. Meagher, Fort Snelling, Minnesota. Should you need the service or assistance which Personal Affairs has available please feel most free to use it. If you have any particular problems or questions and do not find it convenient to contact Lieutenant Meagher, the nearest chapter of the American Red Cross is also available to provide counsel and assistance, or if you like, do not hesitate to address this Service Command, Attn: Personal Affairs Officer.

I hope that the passing days will bring you comfort and a consoling pride that your son gave up his life to set men free. His name will be an honored one among all who were privileged to know him.

Most sincerely yours,

C. H. DANIELSON,
Major General, U. S. Army,
Commanding.

CC: Personal Affairs Officer
Ft. Snell, Minnesota

(Date of death, 15 Dec 44, Pacific Area)

201-Thomas, Kenneth G.

12 August 1945

Mrs. Mary A. Rekitzke
1712 Palace Avenue
St. Paul, Minnesota

Dear Mrs. Rekitzke:

It was with sorrow and deep regret that this Command learned of the death of your son, Corporal Kenneth G. Thomas, from The Adjutant General of the Army, and desires to add its own expression of sympathy to those you have already received.

You will find a Personal Affairs Officer in your vicinity who is not only willing but eager to help you. The Personal Affairs Officer located nearest you is First Lieutenant Richard C. Neagher, Fort Snelling, Minnesota. Should you need the service or assistance which Personal Affairs has available please feel most free to use it. If you have any particular problems or questions and do not find it convenient to contact Lieutenant Neagher, the nearest chapter of the American Red Cross is also available to provide counsel and assistance, or if you like, do not hesitate to address this Service Command, Attn: Personal Affairs Officer.

Most sincerely yours,

G. H. DANIELSON,
Major General, U. S. Army,
Commanding.

CG: Personal Affairs Officer
Fort Snelling, Minnesota

(Date of death, 14 July 43, Philippine Islands)

201-Adamson, Kermit T.

14 August 1945

Mrs. Lorraine L. Adamson
771 Bryant Avenue, North
Minneapolis, Minnesota

Dear Mrs. Adamson:

It was with sorrow and deep regret that this Command learned of the death of your husband, Technician Fourth Grade Kermit T. Adamson, from The Adjutant General of the Army, and desires to add its own expression of sympathy to those you have already received.

You will find a Personal Affairs Officer in your vicinity who is not only willing but eager to help you. The Personal Affairs Officer located nearest you is First Lieutenant Richard C. Meagher, Fort Snelling, Minnesota. Should you need the service or assistance which Personal Affairs has available please feel most free to use it. If you have any particular problems or questions and do not find it convenient to contact Lieutenant Meagher, the nearest chapter of the American Red Cross is also available to provide counsel and assistance, or if you like, do not hesitate to address this Service Command, Attn: Personal Affairs Officer.

Most sincerely yours,

C. H. DANIELSON,
Major General, U. S. Army,
Commanding.

CC: Personal Affairs Officer
Ft. Snelling, Minnesota

(Date of death, 5 Jul 45-PAC)

201-Osterberg, George A.

13 August 1945

Mrs. Anna M. Osterberg
208 Sherburne,
Saint Paul, Minnesota

Dear Mrs. Osterberg:

It was with sorrow and deep regret that this Command learned of the death of your son, Private First Class George A. Osterberg, from The Adjutant General of the Army, and desires to add its own expression of sympathy to those you have already received.

You will find a Personal Affairs Officer in your vicinity who is not only willing but eager to help you. The Personal Affairs Officer located nearest you is First Lieutenant Richard C. Meagher, Fort Snelling, Minnesota. Should you need the service or assistance which Personal Affairs has available please feel most free to use it. If you have any particular problems or questions and do not find it convenient to contact Lieutenant Meagher, the nearest chapter of the American Red Cross is also available to provide counsel and assistance, or if you like, do not hesitate to address this Service Command, Attn: Personal Affairs Officer.

Most sincerely yours,

C. H. DANIELSON,
Major General, U. S. Army,
Commanding.

CC: Personal Affairs Officer
Fort Snelling, Minnesota

(Date of death, 26 July 45, Leyte Island)

201- Dodge, Howard R.

14 August 1945

Mrs. Flora Dodge
Buffalo Lake, Minnesota

Dear Mrs. Dodge:

It was with sorrow and deep regret that this Command learned of the death of your son, Private First Class Howard R. Dodge, from The Adjutant General of the Army, and desires to add its own expression of sympathy to those you have already received.

You will find a Personal Affairs Officer in your vicinity who is not only willing but eager to help you. The Personal Affairs Officer located nearest you is First Lieutenant Richard C. Meagher, Fort Snelling, Minnesota. Should you need the service or assistance which Personal Affairs has available please feel most free to use it. If you have any particular problems or questions and do not find it convenient to contact Lieutenant Meagher, the nearest chapter of the American Red Cross is also available to provide counsel and assistance, or if you like, do not hesitate to address this Service Command, Attn: Personal Affairs Officer.

Most sincerely yours,

G. H. DANIELSON,
Major General, U. S. Army,
Commanding.

CC: Personal Affairs Officer
Fort Snelling, Minnesota

((Date of death, 21 May 45 HRO))

201-Gerdin, Warren W.

14 August 1945

Mrs. Marie Gerdin
2844 16th Avenue, South
Minneapolis, Minnesota

Dear Mrs. Gerdin:

It was with sorrow and deep regret that this Command learned of the death of your son, Staff Sergeant Warren W. Gerdin, from The Adjutant General of the Army, and desires to add its own expression of sympathy to those you have already received.

You will find a Personal Affairs Officer in your vicinity who is not only willing but eager to help you. The Personal Affairs Officer located nearest you is First Lieutenant Richard G. Meagher, Fort Snelling, Minnesota. Should you need the service or assistance which Personal Affairs has available please feel most free to use it. If you have any particular problems or questions and do not find it convenient to contact Lieutenant Meagher, the nearest chapter of the American Red Cross is also available to provide counsel and assistance, or if you like, do not hesitate to address this Service Command, Attn: Personal Affairs Officer.

Most sincerely yours,

C. H. DANIELSON,
Major General, U. S. Army,
Commanding.

CG: Personal Affairs Officer
Fort Snelling, Minnesota

(Date of death, 2 Feb 45, HRO)

201-Baugh, Joseph H.

14 August 1945

Mrs. Harriet A. Baugh
899 23rd Avenue, SE
Minneapolis, Minnesota

Dear Mrs. Baugh:

It was with sorrow and deep regret that this Command learned of the death of your husband, Private First Class Joseph H. Baugh, from The Adjutant General of the Army, and desires to add its own expression of sympathy to those you have already received.

You will find a Personal Affairs Officer in your vicinity who is not only willing but eager to help you. The Personal Affairs Officer located nearest you is First Lieutenant Richard C. Neagher, Fort Snelling, Minnesota. Should you need the service or assistance which Personal Affairs has available please feel most free to use it. If you have any particular problems or questions and do not find it convenient to contact Lieutenant Neagher, the nearest chapter of the American Red Cross is also available to provide counsel and assistance, or if you like, do not hesitate to address this Service Command, Attn: Personal Affairs Officer.

Most sincerely yours,

C. H. DANIELSON,
Major General, U. S. Army,
Commanding.

CC: Personal Affairs Officer
Fort Snelling, Minnesota

(Date of death, 4 July 45, ETO)

201-Wahlgren, Wesley C.

14 August 1945

Mrs. Carrie J. Wahlgren
418 Sixth Avenue
Two Harbors, Minnesota

Dear Mrs. Wahlgren:

It was with sorrow and deep regret that this Command learned of the death of your husband, Staff Sergeant Wesley C. Wahlgren, from The Adjutant General of the Army, and desires to add its own expression of sympathy to those you have already received.

You will find a Personal Affairs Officer in your vicinity who is not only willing but eager to help you. The Personal Affairs Officer located nearest you is Colonel Schenk M. Griffin, U. S. Engineer Office, Duluth, Minnesota. Should you need the service or assistance which Personal Affairs has available please feel most free to use it. If you have any particular problems or questions and do not find it convenient to contact Colonel Griffin, the nearest chapter of the American Red Cross is also available to provide counsel and assistance, or if you like, do not hesitate to address this Service Command, Attn: Personal Affairs Officer.

Most sincerely yours,

C. H. DANIELSON,
Major General, U. S. Army,
Commanding.

CC: Personal Affairs Officer
U. S. Engineer Office
Duluth, Minnesota

(Date of death, 12 May 45,--)

201-Johnson, Clifford E.

14 August 1945

Mr. Martin E. Johnson
119 West Second Street
Duluth, Minnesota

Dear Mr. Johnson:

It was with sorrow and deep regret that this Command learned of the death of your son, Private Clifford E. Johnson, from The Adjutant General of the Army, and desires to add its own expression of sympathy to those you have already received.

You will find a Personal Affairs Officer in your vicinity who is not only willing but eager to help you. The Personal Affairs Officer located nearest you is Colonel Schenk H. Griffin, U. S. Engineer Office, Duluth, Minnesota. Should you need the service or assistance which Personal Affairs has available please feel most free to use it. If you have any particular problems or questions and do not find it convenient to contact Colonel Griffin, the nearest chapter of the American Red Cross is also available to provide counsel and assistance, or if you like, do not hesitate to address this Service Command, Attn: Personal Affairs Officer.

Most sincerely yours,

C. H. DANIELSON,
Major General, U. S. Army,
Commanding.

CC: Personal Affairs Officer
U.S. Engineer Office
Duluth, Minnesota

(Date of death, 17 Dec 44, Belgium)

201-Berg, Harold L.
O-1017696

14 August 1945

Mr. Aaron B. Berg
General Delivery
International Falls, Minnesota

Dear Mr. Berg:

It was with sorrow and deep regret that this Command learned of the death of your brother, Second Lieutenant Harold L. Berg, from The Adjutant General of the Army, and desires to add its own expression of sympathy to those you have already received.

You will find a Personal Affairs Officer in your vicinity who is not only willing but eager to help you. The Personal Affairs Officer located nearest you is Colonel Schenk H. Griffin, U. S. Engineer Office, Duluth, Minnesota. Should you need the service or assistance which Personal Affairs has available please feel most free to use it. If you have any particular problems or questions and do not find it convenient to contact Colonel Griffin, the nearest chapter of the American Red Cross is also available to provide counsel and assistance, or if you like, do not hesitate to address this Service Command, Attn: Personal Affairs Officer.

Most sincerely yours,

G. H. DANIELSON,
Major General, U.S. Army,
Commanding.

CC: Personal Affairs Officer
U. S. Engineer Office
Duluth, Minnesota

(Date of death, 18 Dec 44, Burma)

201-Knaeble, Charles R.

14 August 1945

Mr. & Mrs. Charles H. Knaeble
4113 Quail Avenue
Robbinsdale 12, Minnesota

Dear Mr. & Mrs. Knaeble:

The War Department has informed me that your son, Technician Fourth Grade Charles R. Knaeble, has given his life in the performance of his duty.

It is therefore with deep sympathy that I address you on behalf of this Command and extend every possible comfort and assistance.

You will find a Personal Affairs Officer in your vicinity who is not only willing but eager to help you. The Personal Affairs Officer located nearest you is First Lieutenant Richard C. Meagher, Fort Snelling, Minnesota. Should you need the service or assistance which Personal Affairs has available please feel most free to use it. If you have any particular problems or questions and do not find it convenient to contact Lieutenant Meagher, the nearest chapter of the American Red Cross is also available to provide counsel and assistance, or if you like, do not hesitate to address this Service Command, Attn: Personal Affairs Officer.

I hope that the passing days will bring you comfort and a consoling pride that your son gave up his life to set men free. His name will be an honored one among all who were privileged to know him.

Most sincerely yours,

C. H. DANIELSON,
Major General, U. S. Army,
Commanding.

CC: Personal Affairs Officer
Fort Snelling, Minnesota

(Date of death, 3 August 45)

201-Shafsky, Francis T.

13 August 1945

Mr. John Birosh
1208 University Avenue
Minneapolis, Minnesota

Dear Mr. Birosh:

It was with sorrow and deep regret that this Command learned of the death of your nephew, Sergeant Francis T. Shafsky, from The Adjutant General of the Army, and desires to add its own expression of sympathy to those you have already received.

You will find a Personal Affairs Officer in your vicinity who is not only willing but eager to help you. The Personal Affairs Officer located nearest you is First Lieutenant Richard C. Meagher, Fort Snelling, Minnesota. Should you need the service or assistance which Personal Affairs has available please feel most free to use it. If you have any particular problems or questions and do not find it convenient to contact Lieutenant Meagher, the nearest chapter of the American Red Cross is also available to provide counsel and assistance, or if you like, do not hesitate to address this Service Command, Attn: Personal Affairs Officer.

Most sincerely yours,

C. H. DANIELSON,
Major General, U. S. Army,
Commanding.

CC: Personal Affairs Officer
Ft. Snelling, Minnesota

(Date of death, 1 August 42, Philippine Islands)

201-Rudolph Theodore A.

14 August 1945

Mrs. Martha Rudolph
Route Number One
Brainerd, Minnesota

Dear Mrs. Rudolph:

The War Department has informed me that your son, Private First Class Theodore A. Rudolph, has given his life in the performance of his duty.

It is therefore with deep sympathy that I address you on behalf of this Command and extend every possible comfort and assistance.

You will find a Personal Affairs Officer in your vicinity who is not only willing but eager to help you. The Personal Affairs Officer located nearest you is Colonel Schenk H. Griffin, U. S. Engineer Office, Duluth, Minnesota. Should you need the service or assistance which Personal Affairs has available please feel most free to use it. If you have any particular problems or questions and do not find it convenient to contact Colonel Griffin, the nearest chapter of the American Red Cross is also available to provide counsel and assistance, or if you like, do not hesitate to address this Service Command, Attn: Personal Affairs Officer.

I hope that the passing days will bring you comfort and a consoling pride that your son gave up his life to set men free. His name will be an honored one among all who were privileged to know him.

Most sincerely yours,

C. H. DANIELSON,
Major General, U. S. Army,
Commanding.

CC: Personal Affairs Officer
U. S. Engineer Office
Duluth, Minnesota

(Date of death, 11 May 45, Okinawa)

201 - Baker, Leslie R.

3 July 1945

Mrs. Marie A. Baker
891 Ablemarie Street
St. Paul 3, Minnesota

Dear Mrs. Baker:

The War Department has informed me that your husband, Private First Class Leslie R. Baker, has given his life in the performance of his duty.

It is therefore with deep sympathy that I address you on behalf of this Command and extend every possible comfort and assistance.

You will find a Personal Affairs Officer in your vicinity who is not only willing but eager to help you. The Personal Affairs Officer located nearest you is Captain William P. Berzak, Fort Snelling, Minnesota. Should you need the service or assistance which Personal Affairs has available please feel most free to use it. If you have any particular problems, or questions and do not find it convenient to contact Captain Berzak, the nearest chapter of the American Red Cross is also available to provide counsel and assistance, or if you like, do not hesitate to address this Service Command, Attn: Personal Affairs Officer.

I hope that the passing days will bring you comfort and a consoling pride that your husband gave up his life to set men free. His name will be an honored one among all who were privileged to know him.

Most sincerely yours,

C. H. DANIELSON,
Major General, U. S. Army,
Commanding.

CC: Personal Affairs Officer
Fort Snell. Minn.

(Date of death, 20 June 1945, European)

201 - Welch, Leon A.

3 July 1945

Mr. Frank D. Welch
Route #2
Mabel, Minnesota

Dear Mr. Welch:

The War Department has informed me that your son, Private First Class, Leon A. Welch, has given his life in the performance of his duty.

It is therefore with deep sympathy that I address you on behalf of this Command and extend every possible comfort and assistance.

You will find a Personal Affairs Officer in your vicinity who is not only willing but eager to help you. The Personal Affairs Officer located nearest you is Lt. Colonel Harold W. Schaub, Shattuck School, Faribault, Minnesota. Should you need the service or assistance which Personal Affairs has available please feel most free to use it. If you have any particular problems, or questions and do not find it convenient to contact Colonel Schaub, the nearest chapter of the American Red Cross is also available to provide counsel and assistance, or if you like, do not hesitate to address this Service Command, Attn: Personal Affairs Officer.

I hope that the passing days will bring you comfort and a consoling pride that your son gave up his life to set men free. His name will be an honored one among all who were privileged to know him.

Most sincerely yours,

C. H. DANIELSON,
Major General, U. S. Army,
Commanding.

GCS Personal Affairs Officer
Shattuck School
Faribault, Minn.

(Date of death, 10 May 45, Mindanao)

201 - Borchardt, Marlen H.

3 July 1945

Mrs. John Borchardt
214 West 10th Street
Fairmont, Minnesota

Dear Mrs. Borchardt:

The War Department has informed me that Private Marlen H. Borchardt, has given his life in the performance of his duty.

It is therefore with deep sympathy that I address you on behalf of this Command and extend every possible comfort and assistance.

You will find a Personal Affairs Officer in your vicinity who is not only willing but eager to help you. The Personal Affairs Officer located nearest you is Captain William P. Bergak, Fort Snelling, Minnesota. Should you need the service or assistance which Personal Affairs has available please feel most free to use it. If you have any particular problems or questions and do not find it convenient to contact Captain, Bergak, the nearest chapter of the American Red Cross is also available to provide counsel and assistance, or if you like, do not hesitate to address this Service Command, Attn: Personal Affairs Officer.

I hope that the passing days will bring you comfort and a consoling pride that Private Borchardt gave up his life to set men free. His name will be an honored one among all who were privileged to know him.

Most sincerely yours,

C. H. DANIELSON,
Major General, U. S. Army,
Commanding.

CC: Personal Affairs Officer
Fort Snelling, Minnesota
(Date of death, 17 Apr. 45, France.)

201 - Mickelsen, Henry E.
1st Lt. - 035480. CAC

3 July 1945

Mr. Peder Mickelsen
4390 Coolidge Avenue
Minneapolis, Minnesota

Dear Mr. Peder Mickelsen:

The War Department has informed me that your son, First Lieutenant Henry E. Mickelsen, has given his life in the performance of his duty.

It is therefore with deep sympathy that I address you on behalf of this Command and extend every possible comfort and assistance.

You will find a Personal Affairs Officer in your vicinity who is not only willing but eager to help you. The Personal Affairs Officer located nearest you is Captain William P. Berzak, Fort Snelling, Minnesota. Should you need the service or assistance which Personal Affairs has available please feel most free to use it. If you have any particular problems, or questions and do not find it convenient to contact Captain Berzak, the nearest chapter of the American Red Cross is also available to provide counsel and assistance, or if you like, do not hesitate to address this Service Command, Attn: Personal Affairs Officer.

I hope that the passing days will bring you comfort and a consoling pride that your son gave up his life to set men free. His name will be an honored one among all who were privileged to know him.

Sincerely,

G. H. DANIELSON,
Major General, U. S. Army,
Commanding.

CC: Personal Affairs Officer
Fort Snelling, Minn.

(Date of death, 28 Mar. 42, Phillippine Island)

201 - Barrett, Harry L.

3 July 1945

Mrs. Ethel M. Barrett
670 Ashland Avenue
St. Paul, Minnesota

Dear Mrs. Barrett:

The War Department has informed me that your son, Private First Class Harry L. Barrett, has given his life in the performance of his duty.

It is therefore with deep sympathy that I address you on behalf of this Command and extend every possible comfort and assistance.

You will find a Personal Affairs Officer in your vicinity who is not only willing but eager to help you. The Personal Affairs Officer located nearest you is Captain William P. Berzak, Fort Snelling, Minnesota. Should you need the service or assistance which Personal Affairs has available please feel most free to use it. If you have any particular problems, or questions and do not find it convenient to contact Captain Berzak, the nearest chapter of the American Red Cross is also available to provide counsel and assistance, or if you like, do not hesitate to address this Service Command, Attn: Personal Affairs Officer.

I hope that the passing days will bring you comfort and a consoling pride that your son gave up his life to set men free. His name will be an honored one among all who were privileged to know him.

Most sincerely yours,

C. H. DANIELSON,
Major General, U. S. Army,
Commanding.

CC: Personal Affairs Officer
Fort Snelling, Minn.

(Date of death, 21 Apr. 45, Okinawa)

201 - Sherin, Loyal F.

3 July 1945

Mrs. Ida Sherin
Box 230
Osakis, Minnesota

Dear Mrs. Sherin:

The War Department has informed me that your son, Private First Class Loyal F. Sherin, has given his life in the performance of his duty.

It is therefore with deep sympathy that I address you on behalf of this Command and extend every possible comfort and assistance.

You will find a Personal Affairs Officer in your vicinity who is not only willing but eager to help you. The Personal Affairs officer located nearest you is Captain William P. Bersak, Fort Snelling, Minnesota. Should you need the service or assistance which Personal Affairs has available please feel most free to use it. If you have any particular problems, or questions and do not find it convenient to contact Captain Bersak, the nearest chapter of the American Red Cross is also available to provide counsel and assistance, or if you like, do not hesitate to address this Service Command, Attn: Personal Affairs Officer.

I hope that the passing days will bring you comfort and a consoling pride that your son gave up his life to set men free. His name will be an honored one among all who were privileged to know him.

Most sincerely yours,

C. H. DANIELSON,
Major General, U. S. Army,
Commanding.

CC: Personal Affairs Officer
Fort Snelling, Minn.

(Date of death, 23 May 45, Negro)

201 - Wilkie Leonard

3 July 1945

Mrs. Josephine K. Wilkie
3220 26th Avenue, South
Minneapolis, Minnesota

Dear Mrs. Wilkie:

The War Department has informed me that your husband, Private First Class Leonard Wilkie, has given his life in the performance of his duty.

It is therefore with deep sympathy that I address you on behalf of this Command and extend every possible comfort and assistance.

You will find a Personal Affairs Officer in your vicinity who is not only willing but eager to help you. The Personal Affairs Officer located nearest you is Captain William P. Berzak, Fort Snelling, Minnesota. Should you need the service or assistance which Personal Affairs has available please feel most free to use it. If you have any particular problems, or questions and do not find it convenient to contact Captain Berzak, the nearest chapter of the American Red Cross is also available to provide counsel and assistance, or if you like, do not hesitate to address this Service Command, Attn: Personal Affairs Officer.

I hope that the passing days will bring you comfort and a consoling pride that your husband gave up his life to set men free. His name will be an honored one among all who were privileged to know him.

Most sincerely yours,

C. H. DANIELSON,
Major General, U. S. Army,
Commanding.

CC: Personal Affairs Officer
Fort Snelling, Minn.

(Date of death 9 Nov. 44, Germany)

201 - McBride, Isaac M.

3 July 1945

Mrs. F. G. Bayard
6350 Unity Avenue
Robbinsdale, Minnesota

Dear Mrs. Bayard:

The War Department has informed me that your brother, Private Isaac M. McBride, has given his life in the performance of his duty.

It is therefore with deep sympathy that I address you on behalf of this Command and extend every possible comfort and assistance.

You will find a Personal Affairs Officer in your vicinity who is not only willing but eager to help you. The Personal Affairs Officer located nearest you is Captain William P. Bersak, Fort Snelling, Minnesota. Should you need the service or assistance which Personal Affairs has available please feel most free to use it. If you have any particular problems, or questions and do not find it convenient to contact Captain Bersak, the nearest chapter of the American Red Cross is also available to provide counsel and assistance, or if you like, do not hesitate to address this Service Command, Attn: Personal Affairs Officer.

I hope that the passing days will bring you comfort and a consoling pride that your brother gave up his life to set men free. His name will be an honored one among all who were privileged to know him.

Most sincerely yours,

C. H. DANIELSON,
Major General, U. S. Army,
Commanding.

CC: Personal Affairs Officer
Fort Snelling, Minn.

(Date of death 24 Oct. 44, South China Sea)

201 - Palmer, Dewey E.

3 July 1945

Mrs. Miriam A. Palmer
Rural Free Delivery Number One
Ceylon, Minnesota

Dear Mrs. Palmer:

The War Department has informed me that your son, Private First Class Dewey E. Palmer, has given his life in the performance of his duty.

It is therefore with deep sympathy that I address you on behalf of this Command and extend every possible comfort and assistance.

You will find a Personal Affairs Officer in your vicinity who is not only willing but eager to help you. The Personal Affairs Officer located nearest you is Lt. Colonel Harold W. Schaub, Shattuck School, Faribault, Minnesota. Should you need the service or assistance which Personal Affairs has available please feel most free to use it. If you have any particular problems or questions and do not find it convenient to contact Colonel Schaub, the nearest chapter of the American Red Cross is also available to provide counsel and assistance, or if you like, do not hesitate to address this Service Command, Attn: Personal Affairs Officer.

I hope that the passing days will bring you comfort and a consoling pride that your son gave up his life to set men free. His name will be an honored one among all who were privileged to know him.

Most sincerely yours,

C. H. DANIELSON,
Major General, U. S. Army,
Commanding.

CC: Personal Affairs Division
Shattuck School
Faribault, Minnesota

(Date of death 14 May 45, Okinawa)

201 - Betlach, Gerald B.

6 July 1945

Mrs. Eleanor W. Betlach,
Route 2,
Ogilvie, Minnesota.

Dear Mrs. Betlach:

The War Department has informed me that your son, Private First Class Gerald B. Betlach, has given his life in the performance of his duty.

It is therefore with deep sympathy that I address you on behalf of this Command and extend every possible comfort and assistance.

You will find a Personal Affairs Officer in your vicinity who is not only willing but eager to help you. The Personal Affairs Officer located nearest you is Captain William P. Berzak, Fort Snelling, Minnesota. Should you need the service or assistance which Personal Affairs has available please feel most free to use it. If you have any particular problems or questions and do not find it convenient to contact Captain Berzak, the nearest chapter of the American Red Cross is also available to provide counsel and assistance, or if you like, do not hesitate to address this Service Command, Attn: Personal Affairs Officer.

I hope that the passing days will bring you comfort and a consoling pride that your son gave up his life to set men free. His name will be an honored one among all who were privileged to know him.

Most sincerely yours,

C. H. DANIELSON,
Major General, U. S. Army,
Commanding.

CC: Personal Affairs Officer
Fort Snelling, Minnesota

(Date of death, 14 May 45, Okinawa)

201 - Smith, Clinton R.

6 July 1945

Mrs. Betty A. Smith,
315 1/2 Minnesota Avenue,
Bemidji, Minnesota.

Dear Mrs. Smith:

The War Department has informed me that your husband, Private First Class Clinton R. Smith, has given his life in the performance of his duty.

It is therefore with deep sympathy that I address you on behalf of this Command and extend every possible comfort and assistance.

You will find a Personal Affairs Officer in your vicinity who is not only willing but eager to help you. The Personal Affairs Officer located nearest you is Colonel Schenk H. Griffin, U. S. Engineer Office, Duluth, Minnesota. Should you need the service or assistance which Personal Affairs has available please feel most free to use it. If you have any particular problems or questions and do not find it convenient to contact Colonel Griffin, the nearest chapter of the American Red Cross is also available to provide counsel and assistance, or if you like, do not hesitate to address this Service Command, Attn: Personal Affairs Officer.

I hope that the passing days will bring you comfort and a consoling pride that your husband gave up his life to set men free. His name will be an honored one among all who were privileged to know him.

Most sincerely yours,

C. H. DANIELSON,
Major General, U. S. Army,
Commanding.

CC: Personal Affairs Officer
U. S. Engineer Office
Duluth, Minnesota

(Date of death, 21 May 45, Okinawa)

201 - Demulling, Adolph H.

6 July 1945

Mrs. Cecelia F. Demulling, 1312 Fourth Avenue, South, Stillwater, Minnesota.

Dear Mrs. Demulling:

The War Department has informed me that your son, Private First Class Adolph H. Demulling, has given his life in the performance of his duty.

It is therefore with deep sympathy that I address you on behalf of this Command and extend every possible comfort and assistance.

You will find a Personal Affairs Officer in your vicinity who is not only willing but eager to help you. The Personal Affairs Officer located nearest you is Captain William P. Bersak, Fort Snelling, Minnesota. Should you need the service or assistance which Personal Affairs has available please feel most free to use it. If you have any particular problems or questions and do not find it convenient to contact Captain Bersak, the nearest chapter of the American Red Cross is also available to provide counsel and assistance, or if you like, do not hesitate to address this Service Command, Attn: Personal Affairs Officer.

I hope that the passing days will bring you comfort and a consoling pride that your son gave up his life to set men free. His name will be an honored one among all who were privileged to know him.

Most sincerely yours,

C. H. DANIELSON,
Major General, U. S. Army,
Commanding.

CC: Personal Affairs Officer
Fort Snelling, Minnesota

(Date of death 22 May 45, Okinawa)

201 - Pirkel, Gerald L.

6 July 1945

Mrs. Mary L. Pirkel,
Route 2,
Meadowlands, Minnesota.

Dear Mrs. Pirkel:

The War Department has informed me that your son, Private First Class Gerald L. Pirkel, has given his life in the performance of his duty.

It is therefore with deep sympathy that I address you on behalf of this Command and extend every possible comfort and assistance.

You will find a Personal Affairs Officer in your vicinity who is not only willing but eager to help you. The Personal Affairs Officer located nearest you is Colonel Schenk H. Griffin, U. S. Engineer Office, Duluth, Minnesota. Should you need the service or assistance which Personal Affairs has available please feel most free to use it. If you have any particular problems or questions and do not find it convenient to contact Colonel Griffin, the nearest chapter of the American Red Cross is also available to provide counsel and assistance, or if you like, do not hesitate to address this Service Command, Attn: Personal Affairs Officer.

I hope that the passing days will bring you comfort and a consoling pride that your son gave up his life to set men free. His name will be an honored one among all who were privileged to know him.

Most sincerely yours,

C. H. DANIELSON,
Major General, U. S. Army,
Commanding.

CG: Personal Affairs Officer
U. S. Engineer Office
Duluth, Minnesota

(Date of death, 24 May 45, Okinawa)

7 July 1945

Mrs. Minnie Nelson
Groningen, Minnesota

Dear Mrs. Nelson:

The War Department has informed me that your son, Private George C. Nelson, has given his life in the performance of his duty.

It is therefore with deep sympathy that I address you on behalf of this Command and extend every possible comfort and assistance.

You will find a Personal Affairs Officer in your vicinity who is not only willing but eager to help you. The Personal Affairs Officer located nearest you is Colonel Schenk H. Griffin, U. S. Engineer Office, Duluth, Minnesota. Should you need the service or assistance which Personal Affairs has available please feel most free to use it. If you have any particular problems or questions and do not find it convenient to contact Colonel Griffin, the nearest chapter of the American Red Cross is also available to provide counsel and assistance, or if you like, do not hesitate to address this Service Command, Attn: Personal Affairs Officer.

I hope that the passing days will bring you comfort and a consoling pride that your son gave up his life to set men free. His name will be an honored one among all who were privileged to know him.

Most sincerely yours,

C. H. DANIELSON
Major General, U. S. Army,
Commanding.

7 July 1945

Mrs. Mary J. Schmit
Franklin, Minnesota

Dear Mrs. Schmit:

The War Department has informed me that your husband, Private Herbert J. Schmit, has given his life in the performance of his duty.

It is therefore with deep sympathy that I address you on behalf of this Command and extend every possible comfort and assistance.

You will find a Personal Affairs Officer in your vicinity who is not only willing but eager to help you. The Personal Affairs Officer located nearest you is Colonel Schenk H. Griffin, U. S. Engineer Office, Duluth, Minnesota. Should you need the service or assistance which Personal Affairs has available please feel most free to use it. If you have any particular problems or questions and do not find it convenient to contact Colonel Griffin, the nearest chapter of the American Red Cross is also available to provide counsel and assistance, or if you like, do not hesitate to address this Service Command, Attn: Personal Affairs Officer.

I hope that the passing days will bring you comfort and a consoling pride that your husband gave up his life to set men free. His name will be an honored one among all who were privileged to know him.

Most sincerely yours,

G. H. DANIELSON,
Major General, U. S. Army,
Commanding.

CC: Personal Affairs Officer
U. S. Engineer Office
Duluth, Minnesota

(Date of death, 4 June 45, Luzon)

7 July 1945

Mrs. Dina Mayberg
1114 Irving Avenue North
Minneapolis, Minnesota

Dear Mrs. Mayberg:

The War Department has informed me that your son, Private Samuel J. Mayberg, has given his life in the performance of his duty.

It is therefore with deep sympathy that I address you on behalf of this Command and extend every possible comfort and assistance.

You will find a Personal Affairs Officer in your vicinity who is not only willing but eager to help you. The Personal Affairs Officer located nearest you is Captain William P. Berzak, Fort Snelling, Minnesota. Should you need the service or assistance which Personal Affairs has available please feel most free to use it. If you have any particular problems or questions and do not find it convenient to contact Captain Berzak, the nearest chapter of the American Red Cross is also available to provide counsel and assistance, or if you like, do not hesitate to address this Service Command, Attn: Personal Affairs Officer.

I hope that the passing days will bring you comfort and a consoling pride that your son gave up his life to set men free. His name will be an honored one among all who were privileged to know him.

Most sincerely yours,

C. H. DANIELSON,
Major General, U. S. Army,
Commanding

CC: Personal Affairs Officer
Fort Snelling, Minnesota

(Date of death, 16 Dec. 44, Germany)

201-Clevenger, Pearlle L.

8 July 1945

Mrs. Pearl Clevenger
613 Charles Street
Saint Paul, Minnesota

Dear Mrs. Clevenger:

It was with sorrow and deep regret that this Command learned of the death of your husband, Staff Sergeant Pearlle L. Clevenger, from The Adjutant General of the Army, and desires to add its own expression of sympathy to those you have already received.

You will find a Personal Affairs Officer in your vicinity who is not only willing but eager to help you. The Personal Affairs Officer located nearest you is Captain William P. Berzak, Fort Snelling, Minnesota. Should you need the service or assistance which Personal Affairs has available please feel most free to use it. If you have any particular problems or questions and do not find it convenient to contact Captain Berzak, the nearest chapter of the American Red Cross is also available to provide counsel and assistance, or if you like, do not hesitate to address this Service Command, Attn: Personal Affairs Officer.

Most sincerely yours,

C. H. DANIELSON,
Major General, U. S. Army,
Commanding.

CC: Personal Affairs Officer
Ft. Snell, Minn.

(Date of death, 10 July 42, Philippine Is)

201- Martin, James H.

8 July 1945

Mrs. Betty Martin, Route Three,
George Hammerbeck,
Little Falls, Minnesota.

Dear Mrs. Martin:

The War Department has informed me that your husband, Private First Class James H. Martin, has given his life in the performance of his duty.

It is therefore with deep sympathy that I address you on behalf of this Command and extend every possible comfort and assistance.

You will find a Personal Affairs Officer in your vicinity who is not only willing but eager to help you. The Personal Affairs Officer located nearest you is Captain William F. Berzak, Fort Snelling, Minnesota. Should you need the service or assistance which Personal Affairs has available please feel most free to use it. If you have any particular problems or questions and do not find it convenient to contact Captain Berzak, the nearest chapter of the American Red Cross is also available to provide counsel and assistance, or if you like, do not hesitate to address this Service Command, Attn: Personal Affairs Officer.

I hope that the passing days will bring you comfort and a consoling pride that your husband gave up his life to set men free. His name will be an honored one among all who were privileged to know him.

Most sincerely yours,

C. H. DANIELSON,
Major General, U. S. Army,
Commanding.

CC: Personal Affairs Officer
Fort Snelling, Minnesota

(Date of death, 31 May 45, Okinawa)

201- Hoyt, Nell F.
O-701313 QMC

8 July 1945

Mrs. Margaret M. Hoyt,
401 5th Avenue South,
Saint Cloud, Minnesota.

Dear Mrs. Hoyt:

The War Department has informed me that your son, First Lieutenant Nell F. Hoyt, has given his life in the performance of his duty.

It is therefore with deep sympathy that I address you on behalf of this Command and extend every possible comfort and assistance.

You will find a Personal Affairs Officer in your vicinity who is not only willing but eager to help you. The Personal Affairs Officer located nearest you is Captain William P. Bersak, Fort Snelling, Minnesota. Should you need the service or assistance which Personal Affairs has available please feel most free to use it. If you have any particular problems or questions and do not find it convenient to contact Captain Bersak, the nearest chapter of the American Red Cross is also available to provide counsel and assistance, or if you like, do not hesitate to address this Service Command, Attn: Personal Affairs Officer.

I hope that the passing days will bring you comfort and a consoling pride that your son gave up his life to set men free. His name will be an honored one among all who were privileged to know him.

Most sincerely yours,

C. H. DANIELSON,
Major General, U. S. Army,
Commanding.

CC: Personal Affairs Officer
Fort Snelling, Minnesota

(Date of death, 24 Oct. 44, South China Sea)

201- Groshens, Donald K.

8 July 1945

Mrs. Dorothy E. Groshens, Grove City, Minnesota.

Dear Mrs. Groshens:

The War Department has informed me that your son, Private Donald K. Groshens, has given his life in the performance of his duty.

It is therefore with deep sympathy that I address you on behalf of this Command and extend every possible comfort and assistance.

You will find a Personal Affairs Officer in your vicinity who is not only willing but eager to help you. The Personal Affairs Officer located nearest you is Captain William P. Berzak, Fort Snelling. Should you need the service or assistance which Personal Affairs has available please feel most free to use it. If you have any particular problems or questions and do not find it convenient to contact Captain Berzak, the nearest chapter of the American Red Cross is also available to provide counsel and assistance, or if you like, do not hesitate to address this Service Command, Attn: Personal Affairs Officer.

I hope that the passing days will bring you comfort and a consoling pride that your son gave up his life to set men free. His name will be an honored one among all who were privileged to know him.

Most sincerely yours,

G. H. DANIELSON,
Major General, U. S. Army,
Commanding.

CC: Personal Affairs Officer
Fort Snelling, Minnesota

(Date of death, 21 Apr. 45, Ieshima)

201 - Leland, Earl H.

July 3, 1945

Mr. Helmer E. Leland, Fingal, North Dakota.

Dear Mr. Leland:

The War Department has informed me that your son, Sergeant Earl H. Leland, has given his life in the performance of his duty.

It is therefore with deep sympathy that I address you on behalf of this Command and extend every possible comfort and assistance.

You will find a Personal Affairs Officer in your vicinity who is not only willing but eager to help you. The Personal Affairs Officer located nearest you is First Lieutenant Irving L. Smith, North Dakota Agricultural College, Fargo, North Dakota. Should you need the service or assistance which Personal Affairs has available please feel most free to use it. If you have any particular problems or questions and do not find it convenient to contact Lieutenant Smith, the nearest chapter of the American Red Cross is also available to provide counsel and assistance, or if you like, do not hesitate to address this Service Command, Attn: Personal Affairs Officer.

I hope that the passing days will bring you comfort and a consoling pride that your son gave up his life to set men free. His name will be an honored one among all who were privileged to know him.

Most sincerely yours,

C. H. DANIELSON,
Major General, U.S. Army,
Commanding.

cc: Personal Affairs Officer
North Dakota Agricultural College
Fargo, North Dakota

(Date of Death, 5 April 45, Germany)

201 - Wulff, ~~Robert F.~~
Gilbert E.

July 3, 1945

Mr. Robert F. Wulff,
Hazen, North Dakota.

Dear Mr. Wulff:

The War Department has informed me that your son, Private First Class Gilbert E. Wulff, has given his life in the performance of his duty.

It is therefore with deep sympathy that I address you on behalf of this Command and extend every possible comfort and assistance.

You will find a Personal Affairs Officer in your vicinity who is not only willing but eager to help you. The Personal Affairs Officer located nearest you is First Lieutenant Irving L. Smith, North Dakota Agricultural College, Fargo, North Dakota. Should you need the service or assistance which Personal Affairs has available please feel most free to use it. If you have any particular problems or questions and do not find it convenient to contact Lieutenant Smith, the nearest chapter of the American Red Cross is also available to provide counsel and assistance, or if you like, do not hesitate to address this Service Command, Attn: Personal Affairs Officer.

I hope that the passing days will bring you comfort and a consoling pride that your son gave up his life to set men free. His name will be an honored one among all who were privileged to know him.

Most sincerely yours,

C. H. DANIELSON,
Major General, U.S. Army,
Commanding.

cc: Personal Affairs Officer
North Dakota Agricultural Colg
Fargo, North Dakota

(Date of Death, 22 April 45, Okinawa)

Send to Fort Snelling

14 May 1946

Mrs. Elizabeth N. Mulcahy
4217 28th Avenue, South
Minneapolis, Minnesota

Dear Mrs. Mulcahy:

The War Department has informed me that your son, Private First Class Frederick C. Mulcahy, has given his life in the performance of his duty.

It is therefore with deep sympathy that I address you on behalf of this Command and extend every possible comfort and assistance.

You will find a Personal Affairs Officer in your vicinity who is not only willing but eager to help you. The Personal Affairs Officer located nearest you is First Lieutenant William W. Drury, Fort Snelling, Minnesota. Should you need the service or assistance which Personal Affairs has available, please feel most free to use it. If you have any particular problems or questions and do not find it convenient to contact Lieutenant Drury, the nearest chapter of the American Red Cross is also available to provide counsel and assistance, or if you like, do not hesitate to address this Service Command, Attn: Personal Affairs Officer.

I hope that the passing days will bring you comfort and a consoling pride that your son gave up his life to set men free. His name will be an honored one among all who were privileged to know him.

Most sincerely yours,

WM. G. LIVESAY
Major General, U.S. Army
Commanding

CC: Personal Affairs Officer,
Fort Snelling, Minnesota.

(Died, Japan, 27 April 1946)

Send to Fort Snelling

14 May 1946

Mrs. Mildred Jones
654 West Central Avenue
St. Paul, Minnesota

Dear Mrs. Jones:

The War Department has informed me that your son, Corporal Robert L. Jones, has given his life in the performance of his duty.

It is therefore with deep sympathy that I address you on behalf of this Command and extend every possible comfort and assistance.

You will find a Personal Affairs Officer in your vicinity who is not only willing but eager to help you. The Personal Affairs Officer located nearest you is First Lieutenant William W. Drury, Fort Snelling, Minnesota. Should you need the service or assistance which Personal Affairs has available, please feel most free to use it. If you have any particular problems or questions and do not find it convenient to contact Lieutenant Drury, the nearest chapter of the American Red Cross is also available to provide counsel and assistance, or if you like, do not hesitate to address this Service Command, Attn: Personal Affairs Officer.

I hope that the passing days will bring you comfort and a consoling pride that your son gave up his life to set men free. His name will be an honored one among all who were privileged to know him.

Most sincerely yours,

WM. G. LIVESAY
Major General, U.S. Army
Commanding

CC: Personal Affairs Officer
Fort Snelling, Minnesota.

✓
Send to Fort Snelling

201 - HOLMQUIST, Kurtiss P. Pvt.

7 May 1946

Mr. Ludvig E. Holmquist
3326 38th Avenue, South
Minneapolis, Minnesota

Dear Mr. Holmquist:

The War Department has informed me that your son, Private Kurtiss P. Holmquist, has given his life in the performance of his duty.

It is therefore with deep sympathy that I address you on behalf of this Command and extend every possible comfort and assistance.

You will find a Personal Affairs Officer in your vicinity who is not only willing but eager to help you. The Personal Affairs Officer located nearest you is First Lieutenant William W. Drury, Fort Snelling, Minnesota. Should you need the service or assistance which Personal Affairs has available, please feel most free to use it. If you have any particular problems or questions and do not find it convenient to contact Lieutenant Drury, the nearest chapter of the American Red Cross is also available to provide counsel and assistance, or if you like, do not hesitate to address this Service Command, Attn: Personal Affairs Officer.

I hope that the passing days will bring you comfort and a consoling pride that your son gave up his life to set men free. His name will be an honored one among all who were privileged to know him.

Most sincerely yours,

cc: Personal Affairs Officer
Fort Snelling, Minnesota

WM. G. LIVESAY
Major General, U.S. Army
Commanding

Date of death 27 April 1946
Missing while on patrol near Havelberg, Germany

201-Mckoy, Riley F., Lieutenant Colonel
O-289530

29 October 1945

Mrs. Gladys L. Mckoy
2708 Lynn Avenue
Minneapolis, 16, Minnesota

Dear Mrs. Mckoy:

The War Department has informed me that your husband, Lieutenant Colonel Riley F. Mckoy, has given his life in the performance of his duty.

It is therefore with deep sympathy that I address you on behalf of this Command and extend every possible comfort and assistance.

You will find a Personal Affairs Officer in your vicinity who is not only willing but eager to help you. The Personal Affairs Officer located nearest you is First Lieutenant William W. Drury, Fort Snelling, Minnesota. Should you need the service or assistance which Personal Affairs has available please feel most free to use it. If you have any particular problems or questions and do not find it convenient to contact Lieutenant Drury, the nearest chapter of the American Red Cross is also available to provide counsel and assistance, or if you like, do not hesitate to address this Service Command, Attn: Personal Affairs Officer.

I hope that the passing days will bring you comfort and a consoling pride that your husband gave up his life to set men free. His name will be an honored one among all who were privileged to know him.

Most sincerely yours,

LOUIS A. CRAIG
Major General, USA
Commanding

CC: Personal Affairs Officer
Fort Snelling, Minnesota

(Date of death, 24 Sept 45, Station Hospital, Camp Ritchie, Md)
non battle

201-Super, Eugene J.

29 October 1945

Mr. John M. Super Flensburg, Minnesota

Dear Mr. Super:

The War Department has informed me that your son, Private Eugene J. Super, has given his life in the performance of his duty.

It is therefore with deep sympathy that I address you on behalf of this Command and extend every possible comfort and assistance.

You will find a Personal Affairs Officer in your vicinity who is not only willing but eager to help you. The Personal Affairs Officer located nearest you is First Lieutenant William W. Drury, Fort Snelling, Minnesota. Should you need the service or assistance which Personal Affairs has available please feel most free to use it. If you have any particular problems or questions and do not find it convenient to contact Lieutenant Drury, the nearest chapter of the American Red Cross is also available to provide counsel and assistance, or if you like, do not hesitate to address this Service Command, Attn: Personal Affairs Officer.

I hope that the passing days will bring you comfort and a consoling pride that your son gave up his life to set men free. His name will be an honored one among all who were privileged to know him.

Most sincerely yours,

LOUIS A. CRAIG
Major General, USA
Commanding

CC: Personal Affairs Officer
Fort Snelling, Minnesota

(Date of death, 26 Aug 45)
non battle

201-Engstrom, Eugene Edward

29 October 1945

Mr. Carl A. Engstrom
792 E Maryland Avenue
St. Paul, Minnesota

Dear Mr. Engstrom:

The War Department has informed me that your son, Private Eugene Edward Engstrom, has given his life in the performance of his duty.

It is therefore with deep sympathy that I address you on behalf of this Command and extend every possible comfort and assistance.

You will find a Personal Affairs Officer in your vicinity who is not only willing but eager to help you. The Personal Affairs Officer located nearest you is First Lieutenant William W. Drury, Fort Snelling, Minnesota. Should you need the service or assistance which Personal Affairs has available please feel most free to use it. If you have any particular problems or questions and do not find it convenient to contact Lieutenant Drury, the nearest chapter of the American Red Cross is also available to provide counsel and assistance, or if you like, do not hesitate to address this Service Command, Attn: Personal Affairs Officer.

I hope that the passing days will bring you comfort and a consoling pride that your son gave up his life to set men free. His name will be an honored one among all who were privileged to know him.

Most sincerely yours,

LOUIS A. CRAIG
Major General, USA
Commanding

CC: Personal Affairs Officer
Fort Snelling, Minnesota

(Date of death, 25 Sept 45, Ft. Lawton Sta. Hospital, Washington)
non battle

201Mertz, Henry T.

29 October 1945

Mr. Joseph R. Mertz
212 3rd Avenue, South
South St Paul, Minnesota

Dear Mr. Mertz:

The War Department has informed me that your brother, Technician Fifth Grade Henry T. Mertz, has given his life in the performance of his duty.

It is therefore with deep sympathy that I address you on behalf of this Command and extend every possible comfort and assistance.

You will find a Personal Affairs Officer in your vicinity who is not only willing but eager to help you. The Personal Affairs Officer located nearest you is First Lieutenant William W. Drury, Fort Snelling, Minnesota. Should you need the service or assistance which Personal Affairs has available please feel most free to use it. If you have any particular problems or questions and do not find it convenient to contact Lieutenant Drury, the nearest chapter of the American Red Cross is also available to provide counsel and assistance, or if you like, do not hesitate to address this Service Command, Attn: Personal Affairs Officer.

I hope that the passing days will bring you comfort and a consoling pride that your brother gave up his life to set men free. His name will be an honored one among all who were privileged to know him.

Most sincerely yours,

LOUIS A. CRAIG
Major General, USA
Commanding

CC: Personal Affairs Officer
Fort Snelling, Minnesota

(Date of death, 24 Aug 45)

non battle

201- Goffin, Joseph F

23 October 1945

Mr. Joseph F. Goffin
837 Fremont Avenue
St. Paul, Minnesota

Dear Mr. Goffin:

The War Department has informed me that your son, Staff Sergeant Joseph F. Goffin, has given his life in the performance of his duty.

It is therefore with deep sympathy that I address you on behalf of this Command and extend every possible comfort and assistance.

You will find a Personal Affairs Officer in your vicinity who is not only willing but eager to help you. The Personal Affairs Officer located nearest you is First Lieutenant William W. Drury, Ft. Snelling, Minnesota. Should you need the service or assistance which Personal Affairs has available please feel most free to use it. If you have any particular problems or questions and do not find it convenient to contact Lieutenant Drury, the nearest chapter of the American Red Cross is also available to provide counsel and assistance, or if you like, do not hesitate to address this Service Command, Attn: Personal Affairs Officer.

I hope that the passing days will bring you comfort and a consoling pride that your son gave up his life to set men free. His name will be an honored one among all who were privileged to know him.

Most sincerely yours,

LOUIS A. CRAIG
Major General, USA
Commanding

CC Personal Affairs Officer
Ft Snelling, Minn

Date of death 28 Aug 45
battle

To Fort Snelling

201 - Oliver, Robert E Sgt

14 February 1946

Mr. Oren E. Oliver
5872 Oakland Avenue
Minneapolis, 7, Minnesota

Dear Mr. Oliver:

The War Department has informed me that your son, Sergeant Robert E. Oliver, has given his life in the performance of his duty.

It is therefore with deep sympathy that I address you on behalf of this Command and extend every possible comfort and assistance.

You will find a Personal Affairs Officer in your vicinity who is not only willing but eager to help you. The Personal Affairs Officer located nearest you is First Lieutenant William W. Drury, Fort Snelling, Minnesota. Should you need the service or assistance which Personal Affairs has available, please feel most free to use it. If you have any particular problems or questions and do not find it convenient to contact Lieutenant Drury, the nearest chapter of the American Red Cross is also available to provide counsel and assistance, or if you like, do not hesitate to address this Service Command, Attn: Personal Affairs Officer.

I hope that the passing days will bring you comfort and a consoling pride that your son gave up his life to set men free. His name will be an honored one among all who were privileged to know him.

Most sincerely yours,

WM. G. LIVESAY
Major General, USA
Commanding

cc Personal Affairs Officer
Fort Snelling, Minn

/Date of death: 26 Jan 46
Missing-in plane between Peleliu Island and Leyte

To Fort Snelling

201 O Thornton, Roy M SGT

14 February 1946

Mrs. Matilda Thornton
4038 Nicollet Avenue, South
Minneapolis, Minnesota

Dear Mrs. Thornton:

The War Department has informed me that your husband, Master Sergeant Roy Thornton, has given his life in the performance of his duty.

It is therefore with deep sympathy that I address you on behalf of this Command and extend every possible comfort and assistance.

You will find a Personal Affairs Officer in your vicinity who is not only willing but eager to help you. The Personal Affairs Officer located nearest you is First Lieutenant William W. Drury, Fort Snelling, Minnesota. Should you need the service or assistance which Personal Affairs has available, please feel most free to use it. If you have any particular problems or questions and do not find it convenient to contact Lieutenant Drury, the nearest chapter of the American Red Cross is also available to provide counsel and assistance, or if you like, do not hesitate to address this Service Command, Attn: Personal Affairs Officer.

I hope that the passing days will bring you comfort and a consoling pride that your husband gave up his life to set men free. His name will be an honored one among all who were privileged to know him.

Most sincerely yours,

cc Personal Affairs officer
Fort Snelling, Minn

WM. G. LIVESAY
Major General, USA
Commanding
Date of death: 22 Jan 46
Ft Sheridan, Ill Thrombosis of right coronary artery

To Fort Snelling

201
Perron, Ronald F t/4

28 February 1946

Mrs. Charlotte M. Perron
334 4th Avenue
South St. Paul, Minnesota

Dear Mrs. Perron:

The War Department has informed me that your husband, Technician Fourth Grade Ronald F. Perron, has given his life in the performance of his duty.

It is therefore with deep sympathy that I address you on behalf of this Command and extend every possible comfort and assistance.

You will find a Personal Affairs Officer in your vicinity who is not only willing but eager to help you. The Personal Affairs Officer located nearest you is First Lieutenant William W. Drury, Fort Snelling, Minnesota. Should you need the service or assistance which Personal Affairs has available, please feel most free to use it. If you have any particular problems or questions and do not find it convenient to contact Lieutenant Drury, the nearest chapter of the American Red Cross is also available to provide counsel and assistance, or if you like, do not hesitate to address this Service Command, Attn: Personal Affairs Officer.

I hope that the passing days will bring you comfort and a consoling pride that your husband gave up his life to set men free. His name will be an honored one among all who were privileged to know him.

Most sincerely yours,

WM. G. LIVESAY
Major General, USA
Commanding

cc Personal Affairs Officer
Fort Snelling, Minn

Date of death: 4 Jan 46
Burns-explosion Sendai Japan

✓
Send to Fort Snelling

201 - Price, Leroy J. Capt.

26 March 1946

Mrs. Elizabeth A. Price
1220 27th Avenue N E
Minneapolis, Minnesota

Dear Mrs. Price:

The War Department has informed me that your son, Captain Leroy J. Price, has given his life in the performance of his duty.

It is therefore with deep sympathy that I address you on behalf of this Command and extend every possible comfort and assistance.

You will find a Personal Affairs Officer in your vicinity who is not only willing but eager to help you. The Personal Affairs Officer located nearest you is First Lieutenant William W. Drury, Fort Snelling, Minnesota. Should you need the service or assistance which Personal Affairs has available, please feel most free to use it. If you have any particular problems or questions and do not find it convenient to contact Lieutenant Drury, the nearest chapter of the American Red Cross is also available to provide counsel and assistance, or if you like, do not hesitate to address this Service Command, Attn: Personal Affairs Officer.

I hope that the passing days will bring you comfort and a consoling pride that your son gave up his life to set men free. His name will be an honored one among all who were privileged to know him.

Most sincerely yours,

cc Personal Affairs Officer
Fort Snelling, Minnesota

WM. G. LIVESAY
Major General, U.S. Army
Commanding

Date of death: 28 Jan 46
Diphtheria
Frankfurt

✓
Send to Fort Snelling.

201 - Larson, Edwin L.

26 March 1946

Mrs. Irene Larson
2240 Princeton Avenue
St. Paul, Minnesota

Dear Mrs. Larson:

The War Department has informed me that your son, Technician Fifth Grade Edwin L. Larson, has given his life in the performance of his duty.

It is therefore with deep sympathy that I address you on behalf of this Command and extend every possible comfort and assistance.

You will find a Personal Affairs Officer in your vicinity who is not only willing but eager to help you. The Personal Affairs Officer located nearest you is First Lieutenant William W. Drury, Fort Snelling, Minnesota. Should you need the service or assistance which Personal Affairs has available, please feel most free to use it. If you have any particular problems or questions and do not find it convenient to contact Lieutenant Drury, the nearest chapter of the American Red Cross is also available to provide counsel and assistance; or if you like, do not hesitate to address this Service Command, Attn: Personal Affairs Officer.

I hope that the passing days will bring you comfort and a consoling pride that your son gave up his life to set men free. His name will be an honored one among all who were privileged to know him.

Most sincerely yours,

WM. G. LIVESAY
Major General, U.S. Army
Commanding

cc Personal Affairs Officer
Fort Snelling, Minnesota

Date of death: 23 June 45
Killed in crash of Aircraft near Tingawajak Burma

Send to Fort Snelling

201 - McCarty, Burton E. S/Sgt.

26 March 1946

Mrs. Betty J. McCarty,
4643 Bryant Avenue
Minneapolis, Minnesota

Dear Mrs. McCarty:

The War Department has informed me that your husband, Staff Sergeant Burton E. McCarty, has given his life in the performance of his duty.

It is therefore with deep sympathy that I address you on behalf of this Command and extend every possible comfort and assistance.

You will find a Personal Affairs Officer in your vicinity who is not only willing but eager to help you. The Personal Affairs Officer located nearest you is First Lieutenant William W. Drury, Fort Snelling, Minnesota. Should you need the service or assistance which Personal Affairs has available, please feel most free to use it. If you have any particular problems or questions and do not find it convenient to contact Lieutenant Drury, the nearest chapter of the American Red Cross is also available to provide counsel and assistance, or if you like, do not hesitate to address this Service Command, Attn: Personal Affairs Officer.

I hope that the passing days will bring you comfort and a consoling pride that your son gave up his life to set men free. His name will be an honored one among all who were privileged to know him.

Most sincerely yours,

cc Personal Affairs Officer
Fort Snelling, Minnesota

WM. G. LIVESAY
Major General, U.S. Army
Commanding

Date of death: 1 Jan 46
Overcome by natural gas in sleeping quarters Austria

Send to Fort Snelling ✓

201 - Lenihan, Edward L. Capt

28 March 1946

Mrs. Alice Marie Lenihan
1785 St. Claire
St. Paul, Minnesota

Dear Mrs. Lenihan:

The War Department has informed me that your husband, Captain Edward L. Lenihan, has given his life in the performance of his duty.

It is therefore with deep sympathy that I address you on behalf of this Command and extend every possible comfort and assistance.

You will find a Personal Affairs Officer in your vicinity who is not only willing but eager to help you. The Personal Affairs Officer located nearest you is First Lieutenant William W. Drury, Fort Snelling, Minnesota. Should you need the service or assistance which Personal Affairs has available, please feel most free to use it. If you have any particular problems or questions and do not find it convenient to contact Lieutenant Drury, the nearest chapter of the American Red Cross is also available to provide counsel and assistance, or if you like, do not hesitate to address this Service Command, Attn: Personal Affairs Officer.

I hope that the passing days will bring you comfort and a consoling pride that your husband gave up his life to set men free. His name will be an honored one among all who were privileged to know him.

Most sincerely yours,

cc Personal Affairs Officer
Fort Snelling, Minnesota

WM. G. LIVESAY
Major General, U.S. Army
Commanding

Date of death: 2 Mar 46
Peripheral Vascular Failure
Bushnell Gen. Hosp, Brigham City, Utah