Captain Rideout,
Fort Snelling, Minn.

My Dear Sir:--Your letter addressed to Alfred T. Field, a member of the Third Regiment, has been forwarded to me here from Amherst, Ohio.

My dear captain, we haven't the remotest idea where he may be found. He left home about three years ago after a girl had come from Camp Taylor and charged him with being the father of her baby boy. He just dropped off the map apparently. Then I located him in this city one evening but before I could get in touch with him he had disappeared from here. I understand he married a girl from Marion Ohio and that they were there, so I went to Marion, desperately anxious to get the whole mess cleared up honorably in some manner or other. There I found a marriage license and located some of the girl's relatives who advised me that on the death of their parents, Al and the wife sought to get hold of property belonging to a minor sister and when they failed they up and left the town.

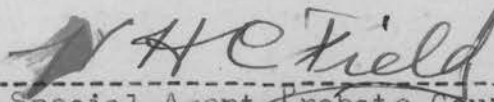

Some months later I was advised that he had written from some Iowa city, I think Davenport, asking for his birth certificate to file a claim for Ohio bonus. At that time I tried again to locate him but was unable to do so. In March 1922 my father died and I was placed in charge of the estate and naturally I made every effort to locate him. After six months effort netting only failure I proceeded to adjust affairs as though he were dead. However, I have since been making every effort to locate him. Mother grieves continually because he was the baby son. Mother is now 73 and feeble and spends night after night grieving and crying for him--just to know where he is and if he is all right. It rather grinds all of us to see her grieve but as far as I can tell I have done everything in my power to find him.

If you should hear any word of him during this reunion, I would deem it a great favor if you will advise me. Have written to war department, also Ohio bonus bureau, but they have no record following his discharge at Camp Taylor. At least that is what they tell me.

It is my hope that you will see the delicacy of the matter and if there is any way you can assist us in locating him, that kindness will be deeply appreciated.

Very truly

My Dear Fellow-Worker:-

The 3d Battalion, 3d U. S. Infantry, comprised of 10 officers and approximately 320 Enlisted Men, under command of Major George A. Sanford, left here this date on march to Fort Des Moines, Iowa, for duty at the Summer Training Camps for a period of about four months.

I am inclosing an itinerary of their march with check mark at date of arrival in your town. A roster of officers and men has been sent to postmasters, and also exact information concerning the organizations comprising the battalion. Any favorable publicity which you may give as to date and facts concerning the arrival in your town, or any courtesy which you and others may be able to extend to them while they are encamped there, will be appreciated not only as a sincere courtesy in itself, but also as a genuine expression of the patriotic impulse upon the part of your entire community.

These soldier boys will undoubtedly be tired upon their arrival in your town, and you might encourage the civilian authorities to allow them camping space within the city limits, with as good provisions for as much privacy as is possible, with good water supply and good cooking facilities. If you and some other public-spirited persons can combine your efforts in arranging with the local Y. M.C.A., K.C., or the Public School authorities for use by the men of swimming pool, shower baths and gymnasium privileges, it will be genuinely appreciated, and it will likewise reflect credit upon yourselves as a community.

A fairly good baseball team can easily be mustered from among our soldiers, and you might encourage your local team to provide a match game. It might also be well for you to encourage the opening of only such amusement and recreation establishments as are surely provided with accredited chaperons and properly supervised. You might easily arrange with your local picture houses to provide an early hour entertainment as a compliment from the town or at a nominal price, especially in such places where the battalion will spend the second night.

You might reasonably ask the town authorities to be especially vigilant in keeping check upon the local rowdy element and law violators. Our soldiers will unquestionably behave themselves in a creditable manner if the citizens of your town will likewise do all in their power to keep undue temptations away from these young fellows who are away from the natural restraints of their own homes. It has been my observation as an Army Chaplain that whenever a soldier is tempted to do wrong, usually some civilian has tempted him. In case anything is done in a collective way for the troops, it may be well for a selected person or committee to call upon Major Sanford for his consideration and approval before making your final arrangements. You will find the Major to be a thorough gentleman, well-trained, courteous, and having been reared in the home of a clergyman, now deceased, he is just as loyal to the Church and the Kingdom as he is to his country.

RE: Charles E. Whitehead.

Mr. Millington Whitehead,
609 South 8th Street,
St. Joseph, Missouri.

My dear Mr. Whitehead:

We are pleased to inform you that your son, the above named, enlisted in the Army Jan. 26, 1926, and has been assigned to the Third Infantry, Fort Snelling, Minnesota.

We feel sure that you will appreciate knowing that we have talked with him and have given him such advice and encouragement as is possible at this time. You can rest assured that we are his friends and will assist him in every way possible. Of course, you know that letters and remembrances are always welcomed by those who are away from friends and relatives and we would therefore urge you to communicate with him frequently. These letters should be cheerful and encouraging.

The officers in charge have the comfort and welfare of the soldiers in mind and will help them in their efforts for advancement.

The immediate interests and needs of the enlisted man are all given attention. For their entertainment and recreation there is the Service Club and Rest Room where they may go for reading, dancing, music, and may meet and entertain their friends. Religious services and picture shows are provided as well as all forms of high-class athletics. The Recreational Branch of the Army encourages all men to take advantage of these opportunities. Every effort is made to develop the highest type of manhood.

It is our aim to be of assistance to the soldier and his family so do not hesitate to write us at any time and we will be glad to render any service possible.

Yours very truly,

Field Director.

Memo: To Chaplain Rideout.

Re-Whitehead, Charles E. (Enl.)

I have this date interviewed Private Whitehead. He states that he enlisted at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas on January 26, 1926 for assignment to the Third Infantry. States that he has no prior service. Is 31 years of age, having been born in Marysville, Iowa October 22, 1894. Worked as street car conductor during the war in St. Joseph, Missouri. Father was dependent on him for support and was exempted from draft. State of dependency has ceased to exist. When he enlisted he gave his father's address as 609 South 8th Street, St. Joseph, Missouri. States that he last saw his father a short time before Christmas, 1925. and that father was at that time employed at address given. Address is that of the Hotel Columbia. Has received no information since then that would lead him to believe that his father had located elsewhere. Father and mother are separated and does not know of his mothers present abode. Soldier shows hesitancy to answer questions regarding himself and requires study when crossed before an answer is forthcoming. Believe that he has for some unknown reason given wrong name and address purposely to either cover his identity or to keep relatives from knowing where he is located.

Chief Clerk.

INSTRUCTIONS.

1. This form will be used for all physical examinations preliminary to service in the Army of the United States, whether for the Regular Army (other than for commissioned officers), the Organized Militia in the Federal Service, or the Volunteers. It will also be used in the examinations required by paragraph II (d) of section 24, Mustering Regulations for the Organized Militia.

In all cases, the standard of examination will be that prescribed for the Regular Army.

2. The greatest care will be taken that the name of the applicant is correctly shown and that it corresponds with the name on his enlistment paper and descriptive and assignment card. The Christian name must not be abbreviated, but if it consists of more than one name, only the first will be written and signed in full.

3. Under the heading "Remarks" on pages 4 and 7 will be noted any authorized special assignment or waiver of defects, the nature of the authority being stated.

4. The physical examination will conform strictly to the provisions of the rules for the examination of recruits.

5. When the applicant is enlisted the completed physical examination report will be forwarded, with the identification record, directly to The Adjutant General of the Army without delay.
