Jan'y 22-1897

Dear Colonel

Yours of the 19th inst received this morning - I enclose herewith that which you are at liberty to use as you may deem proper. I have not used many words but I have feared that many words do not add to the strength of a paper of this kind. Of course you will have all matters of detail carefully attended to as no one is better able to supply them than yourself. I wish to say to you "Beware of false Gods" - There are plenty of them about - Secure your Senators and Representatives and as many other strong men as possible. Try to get all new England Congressmen of both houses. You should have a very strong support from new England unless Weston has weakened you by engaging them on his side.

Try it anyhow. If you will permit me to advise you and not get angry I would say to you do not print and circulate the opinions of others and especially not those of your juniors - Schafusel can do you good by a strong letter written to fit this occasion.

I do not know that Miles would be on your side. I am inclined to think he will support Shafter - Make yourself strong with the strong. I do not know of your connections in that direction and can only speak generally.

You can depend on me to help you all I can. I will give you a letter to Quator Quay if you propose going to Washington. If you do not see him yourself it would be scarcely worth while giving it. He will be guided, very much, by his own impressions.

Of course Wheaton is doing all he can to pass above me. He will see about it after the affair is over.

Mr Brooke gives me in kindest remembrances to all your family. I want to be remembered to the girl who caught it on the fly. Wm. R. Brooke
