BY ORDER OF LIEUTENANT COLONEL PITCHER:

JENS BUGGE,
Captain and Adjutant, 28th Infantry,

HEADQUARTERS POST OF FORT SNELLING.

GENERAL ORDERS {
No. 12. Fort Snelling Minn., March 17, 1906.

The Commanding Officer has noticed a great diversity in uniforms worn by both officers and enlisted men of this post, in direct violation of all existing orders. Enlisted men have been seen wearing brown gloves; officers leave the post in civilian clothes wearing the service overcoat; Officers of the day report in dress uniform wearing the drab leather glove. The attention of all officers is invited to the provisions of General Order No. 197, War Department, series 1904. The tables of "occasions" in that order give the most minute details in regard to the articles that make each uniform complete in itself and it would seem that in view of such an order there would be no necessity for an officer to appear in any but the proper uniform on any occasion. Officers will conform to the provisions of that order and it is their duty to see that all enlisted men appear properly uniformed.

The wearing of any part of the uniform with civilian clothing will not be permitted. (See paragraph 3, General Order No. 197, War Department, series 1904.) Overcoats of the enlisted men will be equipped with the cape, clothing brushed, shoes polished and face shaven; no torn, patched or soiled clothing will be worn and at all times the officers and men of this garrison will present a smart military appearance.

Company, Troop and Battery Commanders will require this order to be read to their organizations as often as may be necessary to fully acquaint their officers and men with its provisions.

BY ORDER OF LIEUTENANT COLONEL PITCHER:

H. L. COOPER,
*1st Lieut. and Batt. Adj., 28th Inf.,

HEADQUARTERS POST OF FORT SNELLING.

GENERAL ORDERS }
No. 17. } Fort Snelling Minn., March 31, 1906.

1. On and after April 1, 1906, the provisions of General Orders No. 197, War Department, series 1904, will be strictly adhered to as regards uniform to be worn at this post. The tables of "occasions" in that order give the most minute details in regard to the articles which make each uniform complete in itself and it would seem that in view of such an order there would be no necessity for an officer to appear in any but the proper uniform on any occasion. Officers will conform to the provisions of that order and it is their duty to see that all enlisted men appear properly uniformed.

2. Pursuant to recent decision of the Chief of Staff, the service uniform is the proper uniform for officers when the enlisted men wear the old blue.

3. The drab leather glove is not available for issue to enlisted men. To secure uniformity white gloves will be worn in lieu of drab gloves by enlisted men with the blue uniform. When the overcoat is worn fur caps and gauntlets may be worn and the overcoat will always be worn with the cape, except when specially authorized from this office.

4. Marching shoes will be used for all practice marches, target practice and field exercises or manoeuvres. All troops will wear old blue uniform, service hat and leggins on all duties above specified. The Artillery and Cavalry will also wear the above for mounted drill, horse exercise and stables. Old blue uniform, with cap and white gloves, will be the uniform for the guard, unless otherwise ordered.

5. Dress uniform, with proper insignia, or civilian clothes, will be worn by enlisted men leaving the post on pass. The wearing of any part of the uniform with civilian clothes will not be permitted. Clothing will be brushed, shoes polished and face shaven. No torn, patched or soiled clothing will be worn and at all times the officers and men of this garrison will present a smart military appearance. All officers are enjoined to make it their special duty to see that soldiers are always properly uniformed and carry themselves in a military manner, both in and out of ranks. When in uniform caps tilted on the back of the head, hands in pockets and such other unmilitary practices will not be permitted. Officers must remember that they should be models for the soldiers to follow when it comes to matters of dress.

Dress uniform refers to either old or new.

All orders previously issued on the subject of uniform are hereby revoked.
