Alfred W. Anderson, Albert Archambeault, Joseph Bocksch, John DeMars, John B. Greata, Eugene R. Johnson, William B. Mason, George H. Stamm, Vernon V. Vaughn, Philip Verville.

Upon arrival the noncommissioned officers in charge will report their detachments to the proper commanding officers, and upon completion of this duty will return to this station.

The Quartermaster's Department will provide the necessary transportation, and the Subsistence Department travel rations, in the first case, for seventeen (17) men for four (4) days, and in the second case, for eleven (11) men for four (4) days, including funds in each case for the purchase of liquid coffee. The Subsistence Department will also furnish commutation of rations, in advance, for the return journey of Sergeants Pelton and Bell, at the prescribed rate for two (2) men for four (4) days, it being impracticable for these soldiers to carry rations of any kind.

The travel directed is necessary in the military service.

3 - In compliance with instructions from the Adjutant General, U. S. Army, dated Washington, D. C., April 27, 1907, the recruits named below are assigned to organizations as follows:

To the 28th Infantry,

Daniel G. Crossley, James T. Davis, and Jacob Klumb.

To the 4th Cavalry,

Victor Rossdale, and Frank Schmehr.

4 - Private George Benignus, Company A, 28th Infantry, is relieved from duty in the bakery, and will report to his company commander.

5 - Private Gordon Jones, Company C, 28th Infantry, detailed by paragraph 1, S. O. 75, c. s. Post, for instruction in the bakery, is hereby detailed on special duty therein.

6 - Corporal Stephen J. Lynch, Company I, 28th Infantry, is relieved from extra duty in the Quartermaster's Department, and will report to his company commander.

7 - Private Charles Humphrey, Company I, 28th Infantry, is hereby detailed on extra duty, as clerk, in the Quartermaster's Department, and will be sent to report to the Quartermaster.

8 - Corporals Jesse J. McIntosh, Company H, 28th Infantry, Alvin W. Reed, Troop E, and William Tussey, Troop H, 4th Cavalry, are hereby relieved from further duty with the recruit detachment, and will report to the commanding officers of their respective organizations.
