" I warn gentlemen of the Senate of the consequences that must result from maintaining the right of uneducated foreigners to vote in the formation of State constitutions. No Union of the Territories of this Union are rapidly filling up with foreigners. No part of the Union are opposed to slavery. Much may be said of you or it, another State State will never be formed out of the Territories of this Union, they are enemies of the South and of the institutions."

SCHEDULE.

Foster, ch'n. folloewd Wis. first 8 secs.

Dem no model. Provided for submission of two constitutions.

Conf. com. followed repb. drft 8 secs. Remainder new and selected. Election commissioner scheme of rpbs. out.

N.B. The nos. of articles above do not correspond to those of the constitution until the 9th. Art. 2/ Name and... Was omitted. Also 3 on distribution of powers. Later, nos. corrected.

The rpb. schedule provided for 20 districts with 26 senators and 64 representatives.

The dem. schedule, for 26 dists. 37 senators and 80 representatives.

The dem. apportionment was adopted with Unimportant changes; 2 reps. added, 2 subtracted. No change in aggregate.

N.B.'s.

Repbs. generally folloed Wisconsin on the important articles.

Folloed Mich on others.

Dems. followed Wis. on suffrage and finance. On leg. Ia.

On other articles drew from N.J., N.Y., O., Mich.,. Much wider reading shown by the dems. Dems. more intent on the framing of the document: repbs, on schemes of reform.

Both wasted more time on apologies for their separate organizations than up the constitution.

The coms. on revision do not seem to have made notable changes in phraseology or arrangement.,

Memorandum:

Nov. 17 1907: Judge Lochren told me, (not for publication,)

In the fall of 1857 John M. Chase of ? St. Anthony, had business at Pembina and had a temporary residence there. It was arranged between him and Joe Rolette that the latter should have the senatorship and Chase the seat in the lower house of the first state legislature.

Chase brought down the returns. When opened they showed the places reversed: Chase was down for the senate and Rolettes for the House. Word was got to Roletter, who at once came down. He raised such a commotion that Chase had to consent to the adjustment of the returns according to the original agreement. And that was done.

Judge Lochren personally knew of this.

Re, Change of time of election of delegate in 1852.

Section 1 of article 5 of chapter 4 of R.S. 1851 provided for the election of a delegate in 1852, to serve after the term of the "present" delegate shall have expired, and every two years thereafter. P.42

An act of March 6 1852, chapter 19 G.L.'52. provides for the election of a delegate in 1853 and every two years thereafter. Also repeals foregoing statute , and sec.3 art.5 chapter 4 so far as relating to election of delegate. This is now straight.

Query ? What politics, if any , caused this change. Was Mr. Sibley still too strong for Mr. Rice ?

About imprisonment for debt in Minnesota Territory.

Chapter 6 laws of 1849 passed Nov. 1 '49(p.20) Provided, that when a debt was founded on contract and creditor could prove that the debtor had property free from execution sufficient to pay the debt, and would not turn it over, a Justice of the Peace might issue execution against the person of the debtor.

Williams in Hist. of St. Paul, p. 335 says, "The marshalsea in which debtors were confined was the miserable little log jail, about fit for a pig pen." Norecord of committals but asserted that there were some. A Frenchman, Bougange is said to have died in jail.

Chapter 90 R.S. 1851 provided for a poor debtors oath in such cases. " I do solemnly swera that I have not any estate, real or personal, to the amount of twenty dollars, except such as is by law exempted from being taken in execution, and that I have not conveyed or concealed or in any way disposed of with design to secure the same to my use or to degraud my creditors; so help me &c."

Election of delegates set for 1st Monday in June

= June 1. Short notice for election.

Some notes from Smalley's History of the Repub. Party. 4°

1844, 16,000 votes for Birney in N.Y. lost Clay the state.

1848, Whigs dodged the slavery question.

Ante admission of California, 15 free and 15 slave states.

Fillmore and Webster went over to the South.

1852 killed the Whig party.

Know-nothings culminated in 1855; Fillmore nominated in 1856.

Dred Scott decision held back till after election.

At Mich. state convention June 1855 title republican first used by a state organization. At a local gathering at Ripon Wis. in 1854 had been used. H.G. said to have suggested name to member of Mich. convention.

1856, Feb. 22 1st nat. repub. convention at Pittsburg.

Douglass had been up in Minn/ and the guest of Sibley before 1849.

1853, Rice 2,149; Wilkin, 697.

"moccasin Democracy" in use in early territorial times.

Gorman positive and peculiar, a thoro partisan, , an active and adroit politician. Born in Ky. A pro-slavery democrat. Col. at end of Mexican war/ Twice M. C. from Ind.

Newson says of him, "a very decided, emphatic man, of undaunted courage, a good lawyer, an excellent stump speaker, and an honest executive officer". well-proportioned, straight, and commanding, good appearance, and a natural leader. Joined "anti-Nebraska" men 1855 and backed D. Olmsted against Rice.

Gorman had an interest in St. Peter and instigated the movement for removal of the capital.

1855, Mar. 29-30, St. Anthony convention. Marshall and North originated. 200 attended. C.G. Ames got up address, Apr. 11.

RESOLUTIONS.

To abolish slavery in D.C. and territories.

To repeal the fugitive slave law.

No new slave states.

Repeal of Mo. compromise an outrage.

Prohibitory liquor law.

Free land.

Lower postage.

Seward's speech of Feb. 23 1855 made great impression.

Row in Kansas stirred up Republicans

Call for Territorial Convention by Marshall, Chute, McLean, Bristol, &c. Met St. Paul, July 28 '56:

Ramsay declined nomination. Still got 36 votes; Marshall 452.

R. had been slow to leave the Whigs.

Platform:

Mn. on side of freedom;

Slavery a curse;

Repeal of Mo. Compromise Perfidious;

River and harbor improvement, O. K.

Fugitive slave law to be repealed;

Prohibition O.K.

The prohibition plank disgusted the Germans. But for this Marshall could have been elected.

Rice supported the Kansas-Nebraska bill and was friendly with pro-slavery men in congress.

Ramsay was for Fremont in '56: was on com. on res. Phila. conv. Donnelly came in '56. was an eloquent speaker on Rep. side?

St. Anthony Fremont club strong. Marshall most active man. But ? was Marshall in St. A. that year?

1856 Mn repub. except in frontier cos. Had maj. in Leg.

Repubs. determined that the new const. should make no concessions to slavery. Both side hot.

Neither side was over-scrupulous about means of electing delegates. As all public officials were Dems that party had an advantage

Neither party pleased with the result of the election. The repub b had the most votes, but many were not cast. Light vote, generally. Some of the delegates elected by the repubs were fearful of trouble. Dems aware that they could not safely have their own way.

The nos. of accredited delegates were nearly equal. Each party desired the initiative, do as to control the organization, appt. of committees.

Repubs proposed that both parties keep out of the hall till the time set for the meeting. Dems would not agree; would remain out till the usual hour. Dem officers were in custody of the hall.

Repubs had a caucus on Sat. night. They decided to hold the fort. Relays of men held possession over Sunday and until the time for convening. North and Chase called to order simultaneously. (Does not ^{say} that Chase put Gorman's motion to adjourn.)

Dems withdrew; repubs proceeded to business.

Many wanted the E. & W. line; tho't St.P. would dominate; Dems could hold the Indian vote.

2nd day Dems met in council chamber. Many tho't this folly.

IN repub end much debate on boundary; T. Wilson favored E & W. line.
Vote 16 to 38. Questioned re-opened several times. N. part of state tho't to be of little value.
