Dear Charlie.

Can't you make a few notes in this book, of the sights and scenes you see on the Expedition?

Nellie Peck arrived to day bringing some Black Hills who came in by Fort Pierre.

Report that Ward lost 18 head of cows going out.

Hunter Collins was shot through the leg. One man killed and one other wounded by party that Slave was in.

Report Black Hills, a Swindle, cus. Dakota and everybody in it and are going to the centennial or some where else.

May 17 1876

Left Fort Lincoln

Traveled west over a high rolling prairie 12 miles and camped on Heart River. found that a stream about 18 inches deep, water clear.

May 18 crossed the Heart and followed the divide between that stream & the Sweet Brier. (a tributary of the former) about 5 miles; then turned to the right and went about 4 miles down to the Sweet Brier. Traveled nine miles & gained pine only in the direction were going.

 roads very bad
 from late rains.
 Had quite a shower
 today.

May 19

made about 14 miles camped 4 miles east of a branch of the Muddy killed an antelope today, game scarce
 had a heavy rain storm accompanied by hail today

May 20

Crossed a small creek running into the muddy. Camped on the middle fork of that stream. Course

west by northwest
made about 9 miles

May 21 followed the divide around the head of the ravines running into the muddy
made about 13 miles
camped on dry ravine found water in holes timber plenty

May 22
crossed the head of the west fork of muddy about 3 miles from last night's camp
reached head of big Knife River making 14
miles wood & water plenty

May 23 went 7
miles camped 1 mile

west of young mens butte stopped near a spring of cold water plenty of oak timber Six elk were seen
here

May 24

18 miles
stopped on north fork of heart River water plenty + timber
enough for camping
purposes

May 25

climbed the high bluffs between the forks; traveled 19
miles + camped on a small creek running into the south fork of heart

River 2 miles north of the latter plenty of water but very little timber.

May 26

Crossed a branch of Heart River 5 miles from camp (wood & water,) followed up the south side 6 miles ~~and~~ stopped on the same stream water but no wood.

May 27

went south west to head of Parrish Creek 7 miles but by mistake crossed Stanley's trail & followed the ridge 3 miles too far & had to return losing 6

miles, camped on head of Davis Creek, light rain
at this place

May 28
went down the valley of Davis creek 7 miles made 8
crossings timber scarce except a few miles near the head & again near the mouth

May 29
5 miles & 6 crossings & camped in the valley of the Little Missouri grass good the entire length of Paris Creek valley

May 30

Laid in camp all day; Custer went up stream on a scout with four companies of Cavalry.

May 31 Climbed
the bluffs on the west side of Little Missouri, followed a crooked ridge 10
miles & camped on
a ravine running
into the Little M.
much past a mile west, killed two Big horn today.
had a severe rain
and snow storm

here.

June 1 Snow
2 inches deep this morning & snowed
all day, lay in camp.

June 2 still in camp; had to lay
over two days on account of storm.
This camp was on
a ravine running
into the Little Mts.
2 miles north east of the east sentinel of Butte; wood plenty in the vicinity. water in early summer.

June 3

traveled nearly due west 25 miles to

Beaver Creek, over a level prairie except about 5 miles in the morning. 5 miles from camp crossed a deep ravine with large pools of water which probably
last all summer.
Considerable box elder on Beaver Creek at this point.

June 4.

17 miles
south along the east side of Beaver to Gen. Stahl's 72
trail crossed &
camped on south side just below camp plenty of

wood, but none
above here on the main stream. Crossed
3. The same hadine today besides Beaver
road very hilly.

followed the divide between Beaver & Cabin Creeks 10
miles South then turned west down
the bad lands of the latter crossed Cabin Creek & camp
ed 2 miles west of
it. 18 miles in all from the west by road then to 2 miles east west part of

Offatlone River
 Ten miles
 farther crossed
 west fork & camp

7

14 miles west by northwest to high pine ridge then north 3 miles east side of ridge then west 11 miles down a ridge to Powder River laid 2 days in camp
 at this place

10

25 miles down
 east side of Powder River to junction
 with yellowstone
 in camp here two days Col Moore in command of troops left here to guard supplies

14

21 miles along south bank of yellowstone with many miles south only rough

15

10 miles to mouth
of Snake River Landing
Camp 3 days

19 crossed Snake River 2 miles from the mouth of the river

3 1/2 miles to a very swift fall followed
the valley of the yellowstone & miles past Roman park there is a small camp & a

the lower end of the bottom where Custer
 had his first fight with Sioux in 1873
 that bottom is about 15 miles long here we left the River as the bluffs ran down to it and traveled over a very rough country
 cutting up with ripples some 40 miles after which the country was quite level with exception of a few bad ravines at night camped under small butternut
 the yellow stone

making about 23
miles in the days march

20 crossed a narrow divide & went down again to another

bottom about 6
miles long which we followed until the bluffs again
forced us to leave it followed the big prairie some 9 miles & camped on the yellowstone making about 18 miles

21

moved up River
12 miles to mouth
of Rosebud then traveled south in

the valley of the latter 10 miles &
camped road far 22

Still the same
the creek bottom making several crossings which were generally
made by means with sticks & for bamboos. Several Indians
camped the first of which was
about 20 miles
of the Lytle
I came to be traveling lies at about least certain part

was probably 12
days old.
