Dear Madame.

I wish it were in my power to do what you ask me to perform, but I am so lame this season (the ~~winter~~ you fall) that I really must not make any more engagements to speak in public. Otherwiser I must gladly appear in Keetham and add my mite of a lecture to your friends.

Dear Sir,

I believe the expenses of an Education here cannot be stated more accurately, than they are in the accompanying Catalogue, of which I send you three copies. - There are considerable beneficiary funds in the Divinity School: - None in the Law School. In the College proper about $2300 are distributed annually, - partly as loan & partly as gift, - in sums ranging from 40 to 80 dollars, taking the two funds together, to an individual. -

I am, Dear Sir, very truly Yours,

Edward Everett. -

Dear Sir

I beg you to allow Mr. Abbot access to my library, should he have occasion for any of the books contained in it.
I have given him leave to take them.

With much respect yours

My dear "Aunt Anne"

I am happy to give you this autograph of Mr. Norton for your friend.

Ever affectionately yours,

Miss Anne W. Abbot.

Dear Mr. Stetson

You will do me a great favor by advancing to my Father in Law, Mr. James Gibson $150 - one hundred and fifty dollars, whose receipt for that sum, will be as valid as my own - I could send that amount to him. but as the best I have done for you will be shipped immediately for N York, there being now a good opportunity to ship it, and as I shall order Messrs Davis Knott & Co to insure it, it has occurred to me, that perhaps you might not object to advance so much upon it and thus save me some extra expenses

advising William, and you in the Post Office would find him, please let him know when you see him, that we are all quite well, and that his letter has been received, I am too busy to write to him at this moment, H. P.
