

~~measures~~ measures of Europe are in a fluctuating situation & C Resolution by Mr Clay for the C to Mr Alston & C. in Preamble about acting upon the Resolution —

This Resolution does not go the length of the other & C. the adoption of this will be no more than what every commercial nation has a right to do and can offend no other. It will not injure ourselves and compel the other nations to do justice — It will cause the articles & C. to be cheapened & C. — When we submit a measure like this it will not be construed into a declaration & C. & C.

The friends of the Resolution say that the carrying trade will not affect the light & C.

Pork and Corn will not if not carried to the W. I. market & C. — my constituents are interested & C. — It has been mentioned that altho the Manx. of G. B. are prohibited they will find their way here & C.

It has been said the for. R. was a W. measure. but cannot be said of this & C.

There is not an act of my P. Life that I can look back with more approb. than to extinguish the Dr. Debt — apology to his Colleagues & C.

I am much better pleased with this Res & C it ought to be expression of the Public will. & C

I want to give time for the negotiation. before we will up the blank.
I hope it will be adopted in an unanimous manner for it will & C.
and have the C rise

Mr Tomlinson hoped the C would not rise.
The time has found us & C What has your min^d told you? & C Why wait is this the auspicious moment & C & C I hope they will not rise.

Mr Clay rose to state that the Com would rise and to move & C

Mr Bran.

Politicians in the abstract — disparso postponement & C.
