

Post office. New York Octob^r 14th 1805

my dear Sir, Mr Samuel Harrison & Mr R. Carnegie

I have often written to you from London on (via) Wm B. Peters Esq of N York

& Mr Albert Ryckman

they forwarded to you

Great Caution, Expense & Exertion will be necessary in this concern, & I have given you my advice how you shall manage. — I have also written to the friends on

I shall go by Water to Troy, thence to Granville by Land - to Judge Thorns where you & Mr. Corver can as I hope see me - if you should see Judge Hitchcock please to tell him I have Levi Allen, original Drafts & Bills of exchange with me to prove my demand to be just & legal - I expect he will not
