

HOWARD M. COOPER
COUNSELLOR AT LAW
106 MARKET ST., CAMDEN, N. J.

December 6, 1912.

John Mickle Hemphill,

Dear Sir:

I enclose; letter of West Jersey Title and Guaranty Company relative to title of John Coates' heirs to lot in Camden purchased of Isaac Mickle deceased, showing the error in the description thereof, also two letters of Mr. Donges relative thereto, also map of the land, also the deed to correct the error in that deed to Mr. Coates, and also the deed, John Coates to Isaac Mickle, for the back part of the lot conveyed by Mr. Mickle to Mr. Coates in which the same error of North for South occurs as in the deed to Mr. Coates

I think the error in the deed to Mr. Coates is clear and that it will be proper for the heirs of Isaac Mickle to execute the deed correcting the error. If it is convenient for those heirs to execute that deed at my office they may do so.

Yours truly,

Howard M. Cooper
