Minneapolis 3, Minnesota

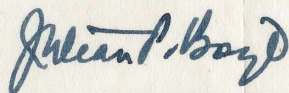

My dear Mr. Ford:

Professor Chinard has told me what a delightful time he had with you last Saturday. I had hoped to get up to Morristown for the meeting of the Friends of Lafayette, but unfortunately my schedule was much too crowded. Nevertheless, if I had known you were going to be there, I would have made a special effort to attend. I regret very much that it was not possible for you to come by Princeton to visit our Jefferson Office.

The next time you are in this vicinity, I certainly hope that we may have the pleasure of seeing you and of thanking you in person for all of the assistance you have given us.

With all good wishes, I am

Cordially yours,

Julian P. Boyd
