Dear Allyn:

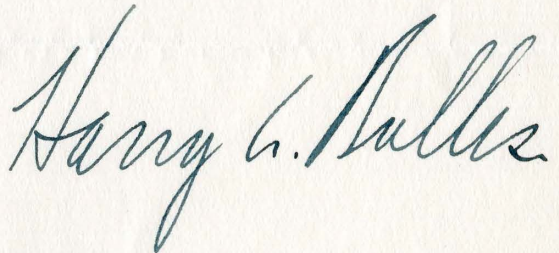

Thank you for your letter of May 15.

I appreciate your position, and regret that you are receiving letters urging you to join the National Association of Manufacturers.

Thanks for the clipping; I am sending it to the national headquarters of the N.A.M. in New York City.

Best regards.

Sincerely,
