Dear Mr. Ford:

Let me thank you for your good letter of February 10th in which you congratulate me upon my new position as Secretary-Manager of the National Association of Retail Grocers. We shall undoubtedly have an opportunity to make more frequent contacts in the future. Perhaps I shall see you at some of the conventions of the food industry. Your line is not food, of course, but your product is sold in almost every grocery store.

I enjoyed the reference to my wife and me in the last issue of your bulletin.

With kindest personal wishes, I am,

Yours very truly,
