OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

April 21, 1948

Dear Mr. Ford:

It was kind of you and Mr. Ritchey to invite me to the meeting of the Autograph Collectors, which was held on Friday, April 16th. I should have liked to be there, not because I am an autograph collector, but because I should like to know people who are autograph collectors. As I said, I am not one myself, but I do try to collect an odd book here and there. I think that if the country were filled with autograph collectors and book collectors instead of the collectors of a lot of crazy ideas, we should be much better off.

Sincerely yours,

(Very Rev.) Vincent J. Flynn
