Dear Mr. and Mrs. Ford:

My thanks to you and Mr. and Mrs. Dart for your telegram expressing your approval of the President's budget and adequate funds for our national defense and Mutual Security programs.

I could not agree with you more. While probably no one will see eye-to-eye with the President, or with anyone else, on every single item or details, I am sure his basic position is right.

You may be interested in the enclosed copy of a statement I have been sending for months to opponents of the program. It is gratifying now to have many letters and telegrams like yours supporting it.

With all good wishes,

Sincerely yours,
