FRANK B. KELLOGG
SAINT PAUL

November 7,
1922..

My dear Governor:

I am unexpectedly called to Washington by request of the President to come as early as possible, as he wishes to consult me. I must also go on account of the critical coal situation. I leave to-morrow night.

I wish to express to you my sincere regards, my appreciation of the splendid work you did for me, and how much I enjoyed association with you in our campaign this fall. Whatever the outcome, I shall have the same deep regard for you and gratitude for what you have done.

Sincerely yours,

Hon. L. L. Collins,
Lieut.-Governor,
Oak Grove Hotel,
Minneapolis, Minn.
