My dear Bishop
Though somewhat delayed I send you
the little book you ask about, or rather I have ordered it sent and
this letter with it.

Our winter so far
has been rather cold

will do whether able or not.

Since hearing from you I have had the great pleasure and advancement of being made a partner in S. M. Co. The place is somewhat large for us as yet but I hope to grow up to it in time.

Hoping the little book will serve your purpose, & with much love from Jessie & myself I am your affectionately

J. P. Morgan Jr.
