The State Bank of Anoka,

Anoka, Minnesota.

Gentlemen:

We are in receipt of your favor of September 6th, and have carefully noted contents. We have not as yet made any arrangements as to our pay roll checks for Anoka, although we will probably do so very soon.

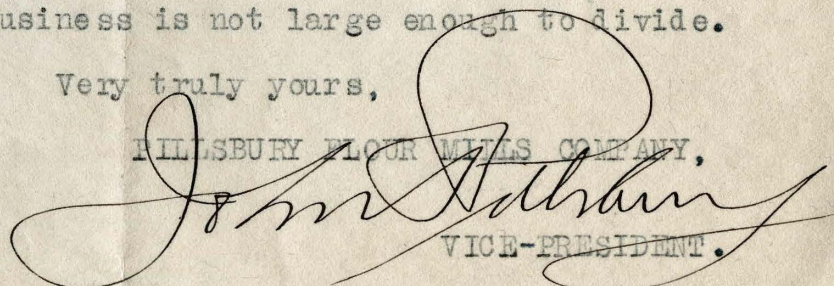

As our grain account, which is now quite a small account, is in the Anoka National Bank, and as they have always taken care of us in a most satisfactory manner, we feel obligated to give them this pay roll account, which, however, will be of very little value to them, as we will only deposit our pay roll voucher in the Anoka Bank, and will at the same time issue the pay roll checks against the deposit.

You will realize that it is advantageous to have all of our banking arrangements in Anoka at one place, and as our business is of so little value to any bank, we are naturally anxious to make the account as attractive as possible.

We know that your Bank has a very high standing, and regret that our business is not large enough to divide.

Very truly yours,

PILLSBURY FLOUR MILLS COMPANY,

VICE-PRESIDENT.
