OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

June 27, 1949

Mr. Allyn K. Ford
Maplewoods
RFD Wayzata, Minn.

Dear Mr. Ford:

I was immensely pleased to receive your letter of June 21st, with its enclosure of the copy of Israel Putnam's letter and the watermark of George Washington. I am making copies of the Putnam letter to send to my father-in-law.

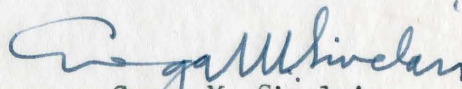

I had a grand time in Minneapolis, but I know that you will appreciate the fact that as an old autograph collector one of the high points in a series of high points was my Saturday morning visit with you. I don't know when I had such a thoroughly good time. Certainly I had only one objection: The time moved on too rapidly.

I am delighted to know that you had no ill effects from our visit. One with heart trouble certainly must be careful.

Yes, I hope that our paths will cross again soon and that I may have the pleasure of meeting your wife and family. At the moment, we are in the throes of the Philosophers' Conference and busier than the proverbial "one armed paper hanger with the itch."

With all good wishes. . .

Sincerely yours,

Gregg M. Sinclair
President
