612
DISTRICT COURT
EDWARD F. WAITE, JUDGE

MINNEAPOLIS, MINN.

505 Pence Bldg.,

Nov. 18, 1942.

My dear Mr. Ford:

As I saw your beautiful pictures of the Canadian Rockies last week I was reminded of a trip Mrs. Waite & I took in the John Valley many years ago, before the days of auto-roads, when travel there was by stage-coach & in the saddle. And thinking of that trip reminded me that in cleaning out an old drawer last spring I found a long-forgotten jingle, evidently inspired by my horseback experience in the John. I am sending it to you, thinking it may give you & Mrs. Ford a smile in these days when smiles are at a premium. You may <sup>or</sup> return it, if you please, at your convenience.

With the verses I found some correspondence, attached, which I send along too, - it being a part of the incident with much appreciation of your hospitality.

Sincerely yours,

Edward F. Waite
