Cameo Social Club

Minneapolis/St. Paul, MN

History of Cameo Social Club

The Cameo Club came into existence (September 4, 1925) out of a need for a more active social, cultural and civic life. The club was founded by five teen-age girls in St. Paul, MN (Cynthia Hitt, Anita Roberts, Esther Bradley, Audrey Boswell and Guinevere Kelly). The first male member was admitted on September 22, 1925 (Herbert Foster). The first social event was an "Introductory Ball" (November 6, 1925). The Cameo Club maintained a full social agenda with: parties, dances, hayrides, sleigh rides, roller skating and ice skating.

The Cameo club hosted their first Cotillion Ball in 1956 where Debutantes were presented from the Twin Cities. To this day the Cameo Club maintains a full social calendar with, parties, picnics, casino days, game nights, cruises and other trips throughout the year.

The Cameo Club continues to make donations to various charitable foundations and has newly introduced a scholarship program to promote higher education.

The Cameo Club is a Lifetime member of the NAACP and is archived at the Minnesota Historical Society.

The motto chosen for the Club in 1925 is still meaningful today:

"Down not the one who is down
Cheer them up in their sorrow
For this old world is a funny old world
And you may be down tomorrow"

Parliamentary Procedure for Meetings

Robert's Rules of Order is the standard for facilitating discussions and group decision-making. Copies of the rules are available at most bookstores. Although they may seem long and involved, having an agreed-upon set of rules makes meetings run easier. Robert's Rules will help your group have better meetings, not make them more difficult. Your group is free to modify them or find another suitable process that encourages fairness and participation, unless your bylaws state otherwise.

Here are the basic elements of Robert's Rules, used by most organizations:

1. Motion: To introduce a new piece of business or propose a decision or action, a motion must be made by a group member ("I move that.....") A second motion must then also be made (raise your hand and say, "I second it.") After limited discussion the group then votes on the motion. A majority vote is required for the motion to pass (or quorum as specified in your bylaws.)
2. Postpone Indefinitely: This tactic is used to kill a motion. When passed, the motion cannot be reintroduced at that meeting. It may be brought up again at a later date. This is made as a motion ("I move to postpone indefinitely..."). A second is required. A majority vote is required to postpone the motion under consideration.
3. Amend: This is the process used to change a motion under consideration. Perhaps you like the idea proposed but not exactly as offered. Raise your hand and make the following motion: "I move to amend the motion on the floor." This also requires a second. After the motion to amend is seconded, a majority vote is needed to decide whether the amendment is accepted. Then a vote is taken on the amended motion. In some organizations, a "friendly amendment" is made. If the person who made the original motion agrees with the suggested changes, the amended motion may be voted on without a separate vote to approve the amendment.
4. Commit: This is used to place a motion in committee. It requires a second. A majority vote must rule to carry it. At the next meeting the committee is required to prepare a report on the motion committed. If an appropriate committee exists, the motion goes to that committee. If not, a new committee is established.
5. Question: To end a debate immediately, the question is called (say "I call the question") and needs a second. A vote is held immediately (no further discussion is allowed). A two-thirds vote is required for passage. If it is passed, the motion on the floor is voted on immediately.
6. Table: To table a discussion is to lay aside the business at hand in such a manner that it will be considered later in the meeting or at another time ("I make a motion to table this discussion until the next meeting. In the meantime, we will get more information so we can better discuss the issue.") A second is needed and a majority vote required to table the item being discussed.
7. Adjourn: A motion is made to end the meeting. A second motion is required. A majority vote is then required for the meeting to be adjourned (ended).

Note: If more than one motion is proposed, the most recent takes precedence over the ones preceding it. For example if #6, a motion to table the discussion, is proposed, it must be voted on before #3, a motion to amend, can be decided.

In a smaller meeting, like a committee or board meeting, often only four motions are used:

- To introduce (motion.)
- To change a motion (amend.)
- To adopt (accept a report without discussion.)
- To adjourn (end the meeting.)

Remember, these processes are designed to ensure that everyone has a chance to participate and to share ideas in an orderly manner. Parliamentary procedure should not be used to prevent discussion of important issues.

Board and committee chairpersons and other leaders may want to get some training in meeting facilitation and in using parliamentary procedure. Additional information on meeting processes, dealing with difficult people, and using Robert's Rules is available from district office staff and community resources such as the League of Women Voters, United Way and other technical assistance providers. Parliamentary Procedure at a Glance, by O. Garfield Jones, is an excellent and useful guide for neighborhood association chairs.

Tips in Parliamentary Procedure

The following summary will help you determine when to use the actions described in Robert's Rules.

- A main motion must be moved, seconded, and stated by the chair before it can be discussed.
- If you want to move, second, or speak to a motion, stand and address the chair.
- If you approve the motion as is, vote for it.
- If you disapprove the motion, vote against it.
- If you approve the idea of the motion but want to change it, amend it or submit a substitute for it.
- If you want advice or information to help you make your decision, move to refer the motion to an appropriate quorum or committee with instructions to report back.
- If you feel they can handle it better than the assembly, move to refer the motion to a quorum or committee with power to act.
- If you feel that the pending question(s) should be delayed so more urgent business can be considered, move to lay the motion on the table.
- If you want time to think the motion over, move that consideration be deferred to a certain time.
- If you think that further discussion is unnecessary, move the previous question.
- If you think that the assembly should give further consideration to a motion referred to a quorum or committee, move the motion be recalled.
- If you think that the assembly should give further consideration to a matter already voted upon, move that it be reconsidered.
- If you do not agree with a decision rendered by the chair, appeal the decision to the assembly.
- If you think that a matter introduced is not germane to the matter at hand, a point of order may be raised.
- If you think that too much time is being consumed by speakers, you can move a time limit on such speeches.
- If a motion has several parts, and you wish to vote differently on these parts, move to divide the motion.

IN THE MEETING

TO INTRODUCE A MOTION:

Stand when no one else has the floor.

Address the Chair by the proper title.

Wait until the chair recognizes you.

- Now that you have the floor and can proceed with your motion say "I move that...", state your motion clearly and sit down.
- Another member may second your motion. A second merely implies that the seconder agrees that the motion should come before the assembly and not that he/she is in favor of the motion.
- If there is no second, the Chair says, "The motion is not before you at this time." The motion is not lost, as there has been no vote taken.
- If there is a second, the Chair states the question by saying "It has been moved and seconded that ... (state the motion). . . , is there any discussion?"

DEBATE OR DISCUSSING THE MOTION:

- The member who made the motion is entitled to speak first.
- Every member has the right to speak in debate.
- The Chair should alternate between those "for" the motion and those "against" the motion.
- The discussion should be related to the pending motion.
- Avoid using a person's name in debate.
- All questions should be directed to the Chair.
- Unless there is a special rule providing otherwise, a member is limited to speak once to a motion.
- Asking a question or a brief suggestion is not counted in debate.
- A person may speak a second time in debate with the assembly's permission.

VOTING ON A MOTION:

- Before a vote is taken, the Chair puts the question by saying "Those in favor of the motion that ... (repeat the motion)... say "Aye." Those opposed say "No." Wait, then say "The motion is carried," or "The motion is lost."
- Some motions require a 2/3 vote. A 2/3 vote is obtained by standing
- If a member is in doubt about the vote, he may call out "division." A division is a demand for a standing vote.

Responses to grievance made by Sonia Stoddard on June 15, 2013 are as follows:

(1). Sonia: "My grievance is the Constitution is only followed when it suits a few people. Members make request and even when it is in our bylaws they are ignored".

Response: In Article III, Section I, the Constitution states "it shall be the duty of the President to preside at all meetings of the Club, apportion duties, call all special meetings, appoint all committees and perform such duties as the office may require. Therefore, the rules can be adapted to fit the situation at hand. For example, the President appointed Renee Ellis as the interim Treasurer in the absence of the elected Treasurer (AJ Jackson) who was temporarily relocated through employment.

(2). Sonia: "The Constitution states that this Club shall meet on the third Saturday of each month". This has not always happened. We have had call meetings in the place of regular meetings. To be fair to all members you cannot do this for some members and refuse others".

Response: The Constitution states that, "This Club shall meet on the third Saturday of each month in host's home or in a private room of a restaurant" (Section IX). The Constitution further states that "It shall be the duty of the President to preside at all meetings of the Club, apportion duties, call all special meetings, appoint all committees and perform such duties as the office may require" (Section 1). As such, LoraEtta Logan (President) called one call meeting in February 2012 in order to re-establish alphabetical order in which Club members were to host future meetings.

(3). Sonia: "In one of our meetings a Club member asked for receipts of money spent. I truly trust everyone in this Club but we are not following the bylaws in Section XII".

Response: The Constitution does not state that receipts must be provided as part of the Treasurer's report. What the Constitution does say is that, the Treasurer shall keep all receipts for expenditures. The Treasurer shall present a written report at each meeting.

(4). Sonia: "The Honorary Member"?

Response: The Constitution defines an honorary member as member who for reasons of ill health, age, who cannot fully participate in Club meetings and whose dues are current, may become an honorary member. The member can attend meetings with no vote and may participate in social events and pay for same. Currently the Club has two honorary members (Hope Abrams and Walter Jones) and they both meet the guidelines set forth as defined in the Constitution. In the past, we did vote outside the guidelines directed by the Constitution and made Mother Ella Kelly an honorary member.

(5.) Sonia: "I love this Club and the people that are in it. I feel the young Saint Paul founders of the Cameo Club had a reason for their Bylaws. I feel we should do a better job of following the Constitution".

Response: The Roberts Rules of Order is a guideline that our forefathers used as a foundation to govern this Club. The Club through the years has operated within the intent of the rules. However, there have been instances in which exceptions to the rules were made. However, the Club voted on these exceptions prior to implementation. The Club like any organization has room for growth and improvement. This can only occur with total commitment and cooperation from all Club members. This is not a singular problem, but a collective problem that together we can achieve.

(6.) Sonia: "If you had a secret ballot, most members would say they feel it does not matter what they think".

Response: Votes are casted publicly and the quorum dictates the outcome. In Section XI, the Constitution states that the quorum shall consist of one fourth of the total membership. Members are entitled to bring in new business topics that are discussed publicly within the Club. Due to past experiences the Club has learned that having detailed information is essential in making an informed decision. Every member has an active voice in table discussions but it is imperative that Club members bring up well-thought out ideas for the Club to vote on. For example, before the Club donated $200 to the charitable organization "The Family Place", the director of the organization conducted a presentation to the Club. As a result, the Club members were able to ask the director questions and get accurate answers in which to make an informed decision.

(7.) Sonia: "The only thing I ask is that we acknowledge all members of this Club. We all deserve respect. After all, it is every member's Club too".

Response: It is the intent of the President to acknowledge all Club member's ideas and opinions as deemed appropriate for the situation. All members do have equal rights, privileges and obligations. One of the President's main responsibilities is to use the authority of the chair to ensure that all people attending a meeting are treated equally--for example, not to permit a vocal few to dominate the debates. Unfortunately during discussions, a Club member can feel left out or that their opinions are not well received. This does not mean that the member is not respected or valued. Sometimes a person's vantage point gets skewed in the mist of intense discussions and perceptions get tainted. This Club is built on love and there is no malice or intent to hurt anyone. Club members who feel unappreciated or disrespected should contact the President and make her aware of this situation so that it can be avoided in the future.
